AT&T/BELLSOUTH MERGER
Suggested Responses
Effective 03/06/06

Essential Information

On March 5th 2006 AT&T publicly announced its intent to acquire BellSouth. The merger is a positive step forward for our company, our customers and the whole industry. Customers from both companies should be advised that this announcement has no immediate effect on them. It is also important to note that this merger likely will not close for approximately 12 months and until then, it will be business as usual.

Suggested Response to General Customer Inquiry:

Mr./Mrs. (customer name), all of us at AT&T are very excited about the BellSouth acquisition. The merger will create a stronger, broader company that will be in an ideal position to serve the needs of our customers. Since the merger will take up to 12 months to close, we want you to know the services you have with us today will not be affected by this announcement and there is no action you need to take. You can also continue to count on the same great service you have come to expect from AT&T. Is there anything else I can help you with today?

I m an AT&T [or BellSouth] customer. How will this affect me? Do I need to do anything?

No, you don t need to do anything at this point. Whatever services you have from either company will continue and are not affected by this announcement.

What affect will this have on prices for services?

Today s announcement will not have any immediate impact on pricing.

Isn t this an anti-competitive move that will hurt customers and limit choices?

No. BellSouth is a regional company and is not a significant player in the national or international enterprise space. AT&T established a broader national presence only recently.

I m an AT&T stockholder. I don t like this plan.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those described in the forward-looking statements in this document: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the merger on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of AT&T shareholders to approve the issuance of AT&T common shares or the failure of BellSouth shareholders to approve the merger; the risk that the businesses of AT&T and BellSouth will not be integrated successfully or as quickly as expected; the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the merger, including any savings and other synergies relating to the resulting sole ownership of Cingular Wireless LLC may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; disruption from the merger making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; and competition and its effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues. Additional factors that may affect future results are contained in AT&T's, BellSouth's, and Cingular Wireless LLC's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), which are available at the SEC's Web site (<http://www.sec.gov>). Neither AT&T nor BellSouth is under any obligation, and expressly disclaim any obligation, to update, alter or otherwise revise any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
