FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

North American Financial Holdings agrees to acquire 90.1% of Green Bankshares

CHARLOTTE, NC May 5, 2011: North American Financial Holdings, Inc., (NAFH), a North Carolina-based national bank holding company, announced today that it has signed a definitive investment agreement to acquire a 90.1% stake in Green Bankshares, Inc. (NASDAQ: GRNB) for $217 million. The Greeneville, Tennessee-based holding company is the parent of GreenBank, a 65-bank branch network with $2.4 billion in assets headquartered in Greeneville, Tennessee, with operations in Nashville, Knoxville and other Tennessee markets.

The NAFH investment will be composed of approximately 120 million newly issued shares of Green Bankshares common stock at a price of $1.81 per share. In addition, and upon consummation of the investment, Green Bankshares current shareholders will receive a Contingent Value Right, entitling them to cash proceeds of up to $0.75 per share, based on the credit performance of GreenBank's legacy loan portfolio over the five years following closing.

This investment will bring NAFH to approximately $7.3 billion in assets with 149 branches throughout the Southeast, from Southern Florida to the Carolinas, and now including Tennessee. Commenting on the investment, NAFH Chairman and CEO Gene Taylor stated, "This investment helps define NAFH as a broad Southeastern franchise. The fast-growing Nashville and Knoxville markets serve as a natural extension of our western footprint and allow us to integrate our businesses seamlessly. With the capital from this investment, we believe GreenBank will be well positioned to benefit from an improving economy and we expect to close our investment and begin accelerating business development activities throughout Tennessee very quickly. Upon closing, Mr. Taylor will become CEO of Green Bankshares."

The investment agreement contemplates that GreenBank will be combined with NAFH National Bank at a future date. GreenBank's Steve Rownd, current Chairman and CEO of Green Bankshares, is expected to become a member of NAFH's senior management team following the close and is expected to serve as NAFH Market President for Tennessee.

Steve Rownd noted, "This partnership provides stability for GreenBank and its shareholders, enhanced ability to service our clients and great future opportunity for our employees."

Christopher G. Marshall, NAFH CFO, commented, "Our investment will significantly enhance GreenBank's capital position as compared to other banks in Tennessee and allows us to continue building a strong, high performing southeastern regional bank on terms that are consistent with our shareholders' return expectations. Upon closing, Mr. Marshall will become CFO of Green Bankshares."

The transaction is subject to shareholder approval and receipt of any required regulatory approvals and is expected to be consummated in the third quarter of 2011.
