This report on Form 10-Q/A contains certain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which are intended to be covered by the safe harbors created by those laws. We have based these forward-looking statements on our current expectations and projections about future events. These forward-looking statements include information about possible or assumed future results of our operations. All statements, other than statements of historical facts, included or incorporated by reference in this report that address activities, events or developments that we expect or anticipate may occur in the future, including such things as future capital expenditures, business strategy, competitive strengths, goals, growth of our business and operations, plans and references to future successes may be considered forward-looking statements. Also, when we use words such as "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "plan," "probably" or similar expressions, we are making forward-looking statements. Many risks and uncertainties may impact the matters addressed in these forward-looking statements.

Many possible events or factors could affect our future financial results and performance. These could cause our results or performance to differ materially from those we express in our forward-looking statements. Although we believe that the assumptions underlying our forward-looking statements are reasonable, any of these assumptions, and therefore also the forward-looking statements based on these assumptions, could themselves prove to be inaccurate. In light of the significant uncertainties inherent in the forward-looking statements which are included in this report, our inclusion of this information is not a representation by us or any other person that our objectives and plans will be achieved.

Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the date made and we will not update these forward-looking statements unless the securities laws require us to do so. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, any forward-looking events discussed in this report may not occur.

HCC Insurance Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

(unaudited, in thousands, except per share data)

(1) GENERAL INFORMATION

HCC Insurance Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries ("we," "us" and "our") provide specialized property and casualty and accident and health insurance coverages, underwriting agency and intermediary services to commercial customers and individuals. Our lines of business include group life, accident and health; aviation; our London market account (which includes energy, marine, property and some accident and health); diversified financial products (which includes directors and officers liability, errors and omissions, employment practices liability and surety); and other specialty lines of insurance. We operate primarily in the United States, the United Kingdom and Spain, although some of our operations have a broader international scope. We market our products both directly to customers and through a network of independent and affiliated agents and brokers.

Basis of Presentation

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and include all adjustments which are, in our opinion, necessary for a fair presentation of the results of the interim periods. All adjustments made to the interim periods are of a normal recurring nature. The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of HCC Insurance Holdings, Inc. and those of our wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. The condensed consolidated financial statements for periods reported should be read in conjunction with the annual audited consolidated financial statements and related notes. The condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2002, and the condensed consolidated statement of changes in shareholders' equity for the year then ended were derived from audited financial statements, but do not include all disclosures required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

This Form 10-Q/A has amended our previously filed Form 10-Q to reflect a restatement to change the basis upon which the fee and commission income of our underwriting agency and intermediary subsidiaries are accounted. This restatement relates only to business underwritten by our underwriting agencies or placed by our intermediaries that passes through one of our affiliated insurance companies to an unrelated reinsurance company. This income had previously been recognized at the later of the effective date of a policy, the date when the premium could be reasonably established or the date when substantially all the services relating to the insurance placement had been rendered to the client. This income is now recognized pro rata over the term of the underlying policy. The cumulative effect of the restatement related to prior years, $3.9 million, which is recorded in the first quarter of 2003, is not material to prior years or 2003. The effect of the change only became material in 2003 as a result of recent acquisitions. The change is a timing difference which generally reverses over a twelve month period. The restatement does not impact the overall amount of fees and commissions ultimately earned or previously collected in cash. Additionally, it does not change the net earnings of our reporting segments but, rather, results solely from changes to the consolidating entries made in the preparation of our condensed consolidated financial statements. Likewise, it does not change cash flow from operations.

The effect of the restatement on revenue was a reduction of $10.9 million for the first three months of 2003. This amount includes $6.5 million associated with the cumulative effect of the restatement related to prior years. The table below shows the effect on net earnings and earnings per share for the first quarter of 2003.

	Amount	Earnings per share
	-----	Basic	Diluted
	-----	-----	-----
Net earnings, as previously reported	$ 30,275	$ 0.48	$ 0.48

During the fourth quarter of 2002, we completed three acquisitions. The results of operations of these entities are included in our consolidated financial statements beginning on the effective date of each transaction. Thus, our condensed consolidated statements of earnings and cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2002 do not contain any activity generated by these three entities. We are still in the process of completing the purchase price allocations for two of these acquisitions, as we are still gathering some of the information needed to make the required calculations and, additionally, in the case of HCC Europe, we have not yet completed the final determination of the purchase price, which will be based upon an agreed-upon final closing date balance sheet. Any subsequent net adjustment will result in a change to recorded goodwill.

Edgar Filing: HCC INSURANCE HOLDINGS INC/DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

During the first quarter of 2003, we adopted prospectively Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation ("FIN") No. 46 entitled "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities". We now consolidate an investment in a partnership that owns an office building leased to unaffiliated third parties, whereas previously we used the equity method of accounting to account for this investment. The partnership is not material to our financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Fee and Commission Income

Our fee and commission income in our condensed consolidated statements of earnings includes fee income from our underwriting agencies and commission income from our intermediaries earned by underwriting on behalf of and/or placing business with unaffiliated (re)insurers and proceeds from ceded reinsurance (ceding commissions in excess of policy acquisition costs).

Income Tax

For the three months ended March 31, 2003 and 2002, the income tax provision has been calculated based on an estimated effective tax rate for each of the fiscal years. The difference between our effective tax rate and the Federal statutory rate is primarily the result of state income taxes and tax exempt municipal bond interest.

Stock Options

We account for stock options granted to employees using the intrinsic value method of APB Opinion No. 25 entitled "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees". All options have been granted at fixed exercise prices at the market price of our common stock at the grant date. Because of that, no stock-based employee compensation cost is reflected in our reported net income. Options vest over a period of up to seven years and expire four to ten years after grant date. The following table illustrates the effects on net income and earnings per share if we had used the fair value method of SFAS No. 123 entitled "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation".

Reclassifications

Certain amounts in our 2002 condensed consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2003 presentation. Among these reclassifications, proceeds from ceded reinsurance (ceding commissions in excess of acquisition costs) have been classified as fee and commission income rather than a reduction of operating expenses. Also, compensation and other operating expenses of our underwriting agency subsidiaries representing acquisition costs have been classified as policy acquisition costs to be offset by the portion of ceding commissions which represent the reimbursement of those acquisition costs. Such reclassifications had no effect on our net earnings, shareholders' equity or cash flows.

(2) REINSURANCE

In the normal course of business our insurance companies cede a portion of their premium to non-affiliated domestic and foreign reinsurers through treaty and facultative reinsurance agreements. Although the ceding of reinsurance does not discharge the primary insurer from liability to its policyholder, our insurance companies participate in such agreements for the purpose of limiting their loss exposure, protecting them against catastrophic loss and diversifying their business. The following table represents the effect of such reinsurance transactions on premium and loss and loss adjustment expense:

HCC Insurance Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries

We have a reserve of $7.7 million as of March 31, 2003 for potential collectibility issues and associated expenses related to reinsurance recoverables. The adverse economic environment in the worldwide insurance industry, the decline in the market value of investments in equity securities and the terrorist attack on September 11, 2001 have placed great pressure on reinsurers and the results of their operations. Ultimately, these conditions could affect reinsurers' solvency. Historically, there have been insolvencies following a period of competitive pricing in the industry. We limit our exposure by holding funds, letters of credit or other security such that net balances due are significantly less than the gross balances shown in our condensed consolidated balance sheets. While we believe that the reserve is adequate based on currently available information, conditions may change or additional information might be obtained which may result in a future change in the reserve. We periodically review our financial exposure to the reinsurance market and the level of our reserve and continue to take actions in an attempt to mitigate our exposure to possible loss.

A number of reinsurers have delayed or suspended the payment of amounts recoverable under certain reinsurance contracts to which we are a party. Such delays have affected, although not materially to date, the investment income of our insurance companies, but not to any extent their liquidity. In some instances, the reinsurers have withheld payment without reference to a substantive basis for the delay or suspension. In other cases, the reinsurers have claimed they are not liable for payment to us of all or part of the amounts due under the applicable reinsurance agreement. We believe these claims are substantially without merit and expect to collect the full amounts recoverable. We are currently in negotiations with most of these parties, but if such negotiations do not result in a satisfactory resolution of the matters in question, we may seek or be involved in a judicial or arbitral determination of these matters. In some cases, the final resolution of such disputes through arbitration or litigation may extend over several years. In this regard, as of March 31, 2003, our insurance companies had initiated two litigation proceedings against reinsurers. As of such date, our insurance companies had an aggregate amount of $4.2 million which had not been paid to us under the agreements and we estimate that there could be up to an additional $9.5 million of incurred losses and loss expenses and other balances which become due under the subject agreements.

(3) SEGMENT AND GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

The performance of each segment is evaluated based upon net earnings and is calculated after tax and after all corporate expense allocations, purchase price allocations and intercompany eliminations have been charged or credited to the individual segments. The following tables show information by business segment and geographic location. Geographic location is determined by physical location of our offices and does not represent the location of insureds or reinsureds from whom the business was generated. The revenues within our underwriting agency and intermediary segments for 2002, have been reclassified to be consistent with the 2003 presentation. This reclassification did not change segment total revenue or segment net earnings from amounts previously reported. Certain reinsurance proceeds of our insurance subsidiaries have also been reclassified to revenue to be consistent with the classification in the condensed consolidated financial statements.

(4) EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share is based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period divided into net earnings. Diluted earnings per share is based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding plus the potential common shares outstanding during the period divided into net earnings. Outstanding common stock options, when dilutive, are considered to be potential common shares for the purpose of the diluted calculation. The treasury stock method is used to calculate potential common shares due to options. Contingent shares to be issued are included in the earnings per share computation when the underlying conditions for issuance have been met.

The following table provides a reconciliation of the denominators used in the earnings per share calculations:

In a public offering on March 25, 2003, we sold an aggregate $125.0 million principal amount of 1.3% Convertible Notes due in 2023. Each $1 thousand principal amount of notes is convertible into 29.4377 shares of our common stock, which represents an initial conversion price of $33.97 per share. The initial conversion price is subject to change under certain conditions. Interest is to be paid by us on April 1 and October 1 each year, commencing October 1, 2003. Holders may surrender notes for conversion into shares of our common stock if, as of the last day of the preceding calendar quarter, the closing sale price of our common stock for at least 20 consecutive trading days during the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of that quarter is more than 130% ($44.16 per share) of the conversion price per share of our common stock. We can redeem the notes for cash at any time on or after April 4, 2009. Holders of the notes may require us to repurchase the notes on April 1, 2009, 2014 and 2019 at a price equal to the principal amount of the note plus accrued and unpaid interest. If the holders require us to repurchase these notes, we may choose to pay the purchase price in cash, in shares of our common stock, or in a combination thereof. We paid $3.2 million in underwriting discounts and expenses in connection with this offering, which is being amortized from the issue date until April 1, 2009. We used $66.0 million of the proceeds from this offering to pay down existing indebtedness under our bank facility, while the remainder is available to assist in financing future acquisitions and strategic investments and for general corporate purposes.

Edgar Filing: HCC INSURANCE HOLDINGS INC/DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

(7) COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

In addition to the matters discussed in Note (2) Reinsurance, we are party to numerous lawsuits and other proceedings that arise in the normal course of our business. Many of such lawsuits and other proceedings involve claims under policies that we underwrite as an insurer or reinsurer, the liabilities for which, we believe, have been adequately included in our loss reserves. Also, from time to time, we are a party to lawsuits and other proceedings which relate to disputes over contractual relationships with third parties, or which involve alleged errors and omissions on the part of our subsidiaries. In addition, we are presently engaged in litigation initiated by the appointed liquidator of a former reinsurer concerning payments made to us prior to the date of the appointment of the liquidator. The disputed payments were made by the now insolvent reinsurer in connection with a commutation agreement. Our understanding is that such litigation is one of a number of similar actions brought by the liquidator. We intend to vigorously contest the action. We are also presently engaged in litigation, along with other insurers, with a state health insurance association concerning the change in calculation methodology of its assessments. We do not believe the resolution of any of these matters will have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

This Form 10-Q/A has amended our previously filed Form 10-Q to reflect a restatement to change the basis upon which the fee and commission income of our underwriting agency and intermediary subsidiaries are accounted. This restatement relates only to business underwritten by our underwriting agencies or placed by our intermediaries that passes through one of our affiliated insurance companies to an unrelated reinsurance company. This income had previously been recognized at the later of the effective date of a policy, the date when the premium could be reasonably established or the date when substantially all the services relating to the insurance placement had been rendered to the client. This income is now recognized pro rata over the term of the underlying policy. The cumulative effect of the restatement related to prior years, $3.9 million, which is recorded in the first quarter of 2003, is not material to prior years or 2003. The effect of the change only became material in 2003 as a result of recent acquisitions. The change is a timing difference which generally reverses over a twelve month period. The restatement does not impact the overall amount of fees and commissions ultimately earned or previously collected in cash. Additionally, it does not change the net earnings of our reporting segments but, rather, results solely from changes to the consolidating entries made in the preparation of our condensed consolidated financial statements. Likewise, it does not change cash flow from operations.

The effect of the restatement on revenue was a reduction of $10.9 million for the first three months of 2003. This amount includes $6.5 million associated with the cumulative effect of the restatement related to prior years. The table below shows the effect on net earnings and earnings per share for the first quarter of 2003.

Results of Operations

Total revenue increased 31% to $204.4 million for the first quarter of 2003 from $156.1 million for the same period in 2002. The revenue increase resulted from premium rate increases, increased business in all three operating segments and subsidiaries acquired during the fourth quarter of 2002.

Net investment income increased 27% to $11.0 million for the first quarter of 2003 from $8.7 million for the same period in 2002. This increase was due to the higher level of invested assets resulting primarily from cash flow generated by operating activities and from the insurance company we acquired in December, 2002. Cash flow from operating activities was $101.9 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $13.1 million for the same period in 2002, continuing a trend of increasing operating cash flow that began in 2002. The majority of the increase in cash flow from operations results from increased earnings and net premium flow into our insurance companies. We expect the positive cash flow provided by operating activities to continue, most of which will increase invested assets and thus the related investment income. If market interest rates were to rise, the growth in investment income would be accelerated as our current portfolio has a relatively short average duration, and would be available to be invested on a longer term basis to take advantage of higher rates. For the first quarter of 2003 our annualized, weighted average, tax equivalent yield was 3.9% compared to 4.7% for the same period in 2002.

Compensation expense increased to $20.5 million during the first quarter of 2003 from $16.7 million for the same period in 2002. Most of the increase is due to subsidiaries acquired during the fourth quarter of 2002. Other operating expense increased to $13.7 million during the first quarter of 2003 compared to $12.0 million in 2002 for the same reason.

Interest expense was $1.7 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $2.4 million for the same period in 2002. Included in the 2002 amount is $1.1 million representing the amortization of underwriting discounts and expenses related to our issuance of our 2% convertible notes.

Income tax expense was $12.8 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $12.4 million for the same period in 2002. Our effective tax rate was 35.0% in the 2003 quarter compared to 34.8% in 2002.

Net earnings increased to $23.8 million, or $0.38 per diluted share, for the first quarter of 2003 from $23.3 million, or $0.37 per diluted share, for the same period in 2002. Included in 2003 net earnings is a reduction of $3.9 million, or $0.06 per share, due to the prior years' cumulative effect of the restatement to change our accounting for certain fee and commission income.

At March 31, 2003, total assets exceeded $4.0 billion for the first time, shareholders equity was $906.4 million and book value per share was $14.46, up from $14.15 as of December 31, 2002.

Expense Ratio

Combined Ratio

Gross written premium increased 53% to $379.4 million for the first quarter of 2003 from $247.8 million for the same period in 2002. All of the lines of business showed some increase as a result of increases in premium rates as well as organic growth, but the largest growth was the diversified financial products line of business, which our insurance companies began writing in 2002. Net written premium for the first quarter of 2003 increased 57% to $192.5 million and net earned premium increased 46% to $162.4 million, both due principally to the growth in gross premium. The increase in premium is expected to continue throughout 2003 and into 2004.

Loss and loss adjustment expense was $100.0 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $68.3 million for the same period in 2002. The net loss ratio was 61.6% for the first quarter of 2003 compared to 61.3% for the same period in 2002. For the same period, the gross loss ratio was 68.9% in 2003 compared to 69.3% in 2002. Prior year net reserve deficiency included in loss and loss adjustment expense approximated $1.3 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to a redundancy of $1.8 million for the same period in 2002. The deficiency and redundancy resulted from the settlement of claims for different amounts than previously reserved.

The loss ratio in the aviation line of business increased slightly from the first quarter of 2002 principally due to some adverse development on a few old claims plus a bad month of March 2003. Loss experience in the other specialty lines improved in 2003 to a more usual level from the prior year. The loss ratio in the discontinued lines of business increased in the first quarter of 2003 primarily due to prior year reserve development as we increase reserves towards the mid level of the actuarial range.

Policy acquisition costs, which are net of commissions on reinsurance ceded, increased to $31.9 million during the first quarter of 2003, from $20.9 million in the same period in 2002. This increase is due to and in proportion to the increase in net earned premium.

Net earnings of our insurance companies increased to $19.4 million in the first quarter of 2003 from $14.9 million for the same period in 2002 due to increased premium volume and continuing profitable underwriting results. We expect this growth to continue into 2004.

Underwriting Agencies

Revenue from our underwriting agencies (primarily fee income) increased 42% to $37.4 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $26.3 million for the same period in 2002. This growth was both from acquisitions made during the fourth quarter of 2002 and from internal growth at our underwriting agencies. Net earnings in this segment increased to $9.9 million in the first quarter of 2003 from $5.5 million in 2002 for the same reasons and we expect this growth to continue into 2004.

Intermediaries

Revenue from our intermediaries (primarily commission income) increased 13% to $12.0 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $10.6 million for the same period in 2002 due to improved market conditions and growth in non-affiliated business. Net earnings of our intermediaries increased to $2.7 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to $1.7 million for the same period of 2002 for the same reason. We expect continued improvement in the intermediary segment during the remainder of 2003.

Other Operations

There was very little activity in the other operations segment during either first quarter. Quarter to quarter comparisons may vary substantially depending on other operating investments or dispositions thereof in any given period.

Corporate

The net loss of the corporate segment was $0.2 million for the first quarter of 2003 compared to net earnings of $1.3 million for the same period in 2002. This resulted from the difference between years in intersegment income tax adjustments and the adjustment of certain accruals to their ultimate liability, which positively affected the 2002 quarter.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We receive substantial cash from premiums, reinsurance recoverables, management

Edgar Filing: HCC INSURANCE HOLDINGS INC/DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

fees and commission income and, to a lesser extent, investment income and proceeds from sales and redemptions of investments and other assets. Our principal cash outflows are for the payment of claims and loss adjustment expenses, payment of premiums to reinsurers, purchase of investments, debt service, policy acquisition costs, operating expenses, income and other taxes and dividends. Variations in operating cash flows can occur due to timing differences in either the payment of claims and the collection of related recoverables or the collection of receivables and the payment of related payable amounts.

We maintain a substantial level of cash and liquid short-term investments which are used to meet anticipated payment obligations. Our consolidated cash and investment portfolio increased $138.4 million, or 11% , during the first quarter of 2003 and totaled $1.3 billion as of March 31, 2003 of which $474.4 million was cash and short-term investments. The increase in investments resulted from the positive operating cash flows and part of the proceeds from the 1.3% Convertible Notes discussed below.

In a public offering on March 25, 2003, we sold an aggregate $125.0 million principal amount of 1.3% Convertible Notes due in 2023. Each $1 thousand principal amount of notes is convertible into 29.4377 shares of our common stock, which represents an initial conversion price of $33.97 per share. The initial conversion price is subject to change under certain conditions. Interest is to be paid by us on April 1 and October 1 each year, commencing October 1, 2003. Holders may surrender notes for conversion into shares of our common stock if, as of the last day of the preceding calendar quarter, the closing sale price of our common stock for at least 20 consecutive trading days during the period of 30 consecutive trading days ending on the last trading day of that quarter is more than 130% ($44.16 per share) of the conversion price per share of our common stock. We can redeem the notes for cash at any time on or after April 4, 2009. Holders of the notes may require us to repurchase the notes on April 1, 2009, 2014 and 2019 at a price equal to the principal amount of the note plus accrued and unpaid interest. If the holders require us to repurchase these notes, we may choose to pay the purchase price in cash, in shares of our common stock, or in a combination thereof. We paid $3.2 million in underwriting discounts and expenses in connection with this offering, which is being amortized from the issue date until April 1, 2009. We used $66.0 million of the proceeds from this offering to pay down existing indebtedness under our bank facility, while the remainder is available to assist in financing future acquisitions and strategic investments and for general corporate purposes.

Reinsurance recoverables increased during the first quarter of 2003 due to the increase in reinsurance recoverables on incurred but not reported losses. A significant portion of this increase comes from the diversified financial products line of business, new in 2002, which is more heavily reinsured than our other lines of business. Reinsurance recoverables on outstanding losses was slightly reduced during the first quarter of 2003, but this was offset by a slight increase in reinsurance recoverables on paid losses.

We have a reserve of $7.7 million as of March 31, 2003 for potential collectibility issues and associated expenses related to reinsurance recoverables. The adverse economic environment in the worldwide insurance industry, the decline in the market value of investments in equity securities and the terrorist attack on September 11, 2001 have placed great pressure on reinsurers and the results of their operations. Ultimately, these conditions could affect reinsurers' solvency. Historically, there have been insolvencies following a period of competitive pricing in the industry. We limit our exposure by holding funds, letters of credit or other security such that net balances due are significantly less than the gross balances shown in our condensed consolidated balance sheets. While we believe that the reserve is adequate based on currently available information, conditions may change or additional information might be obtained which may result in a future change in the reserve. We periodically review our financial exposure to the reinsurance market and the level of our reserve and continue to take actions in an attempt to mitigate our exposure to possible loss.

A number of reinsurers have delayed or suspended the payment of amounts recoverable under certain reinsurance contracts to which we are a party. Such delays have affected, although not materially to date, the investment income of our insurance companies, but not to any extent their liquidity. In some instances, the reinsurers have withheld payment without reference to a substantive basis for the delay or suspension. In other cases, the reinsurers have claimed they are not liable for payment to us of all or part of the amounts due under the applicable reinsurance agreement. We believe these claims are substantially without merit and expect to collect the full amounts recoverable. We are currently in negotiations with most of these parties, but if such negotiations do not result in a satisfactory resolution of the matters in question, we may seek or be involved in a judicial or arbitral determination of these matters. In some cases, the final resolution of such disputes through arbitration or litigation may extend over several years. In this regard, as of March 31, 2003, our insurance companies had initiated two litigation proceedings against reinsurers. As of such date, our insurance companies had an aggregate amount of $4.2 million which had not been paid to us under the agreements and we estimate that there could be up to an additional $9.5 million of incurred losses and loss expenses and other balances which become due under the subject agreements.

We believe that our operating cash flows, short-term investments, bank facility and shelf registration on file with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission will provide sufficient sources of liquidity to meet our operating needs for the foreseeable future.

Critical Accounting Policies

We have made no changes in our methods of application of our critical accounting policies from the information provided in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There have been no material changes in market risk from the information provided in Item 7A. "Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

a. Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures.

Within the 90 days prior to the date of this report, we carried out an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13a-14. This evaluation was performed under the supervision of, and with the participation of, our management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting them to material information relating to HCC Insurance Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries required to be included in our periodic SEC filings.

b. Changes in internal controls.

Edgar Filing: HCC INSURANCE HOLDINGS INC/DE/ - Form 10-Q/A

There have been no significant changes in our internal controls or in other factors which could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date we carried out our evaluation.
