PROXY STATEMENT
For the Annual Meeting of Stockholders
To Be Held on May 13, 2004

GENERAL INFORMATION

Nara Bancorp, Inc. is a registered bank holding company, and Nara Bank, N.A. is our wholly owned subsidiary. This proxy statement contains information about our annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Wednesday, May 13, 2004 at the Oxford Palace Hotel, 745 South Oxford Avenue, Los Angeles, California at 10:30 a.m., Pacific Time, and at any postponements or adjournments thereof. The date of this proxy statement is April 9, 2004 and it is first being mailed to stockholders on or about the same date.

Why Did You Send Me This Proxy Statement?

We sent you this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card because the board of directors is soliciting your votes for use at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders.

This proxy statement summarizes the information you need to know to cast an informed vote at the meeting. However, you do not need to attend the meeting to vote your shares. Instead, you may simply complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card.

We will begin sending this proxy statement, notice of annual meeting and the enclosed proxy card on or about April 9, 2004 to all stockholders entitled to vote. The record date for those entitled to vote is April 5, 2004. On that date, there were 11,583,700 shares of our common stock outstanding (after giving effect to our two-for-one stock split effected as of the close of business on March 17, 2003). The common stock is our only class of stock outstanding. We are also sending our annual report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 along with this proxy statement.

What Vote Is Required for Each Proposal?

Election of Directors. The eight nominees for director who receive the most votes will be elected. So, if you do not vote for a particular nominee or you indicate withhold authority to vote for a particular nominee on your proxy card, your abstention will have no effect on the election of directors.

Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation. To be approved, the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation must receive a For vote from the majority of the outstanding shares either in person or by proxy. If you do not vote, or Abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as an Against vote. Broker non-votes will have the same effect as an Against vote.

Ratification of Auditors. Stockholder ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche as our independent auditors is not required. However, we are submitting the selection of Deloitte & Touche to you for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. Ratification requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present at the meeting. If you fail to ratify the selection by a majority vote of the present and voting shares, we will reconsider whether to retain Deloitte & Touche. Even if the selection is ratified, we may, in our discretion, direct the appointment of different independent auditors at any time during the year if we determine that such a change would best benefit our corporation and our stockholders.

Table of Contents

How Many Votes Do I Have?

Each share of common stock that you own entitles you to one vote. The proxy card indicates the number of shares of common stock that you own. Our Certificate of Incorporation and bylaws do not provide for cumulative voting.

How Do I Vote by Proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the meeting or not, we urge you to complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and to return it promptly in the envelope provided. Returning the proxy card will not affect your right to attend the meeting and vote in person.

If you properly fill in your proxy card and send it to us in time to vote, your proxy (one of the individuals named on your proxy card) will vote your shares as you have directed. If you sign the proxy card but do not make specific choices, your proxy will vote your shares as recommended by the board of directors as follows:

FOR the election of each of the eight nominees for director;

FOR the increase in the number of authorized shares of common stock to 40,000,000 shares;

FOR the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as our independent auditors; and in the discretion of the proxy holder as to any other matter that may properly come before the meeting.

If you hold your shares of our common stock in street name (that is, through a broker or other nominee) and you fail to instruct your broker or nominee as to how to vote your shares of common stock, your broker or nominee may, in its discretion, vote your shares FOR the election of the nominees for director set forth in this proxy statement, and FOR ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as our independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 2004. Brokers may not use their discretionary authority to vote on the proposal to amend the Certificate of Incorporation.

Can I Change My Vote After I Return My Proxy Card?

Yes. Even after you have submitted your proxy, you may change your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised if:

you file either a written revocation of your proxy, or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, with our corporate Secretary prior to the meeting, or you attend the meeting and vote in person. However, your presence at the meeting will not revoke your proxy unless and until you vote in person.

If your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, and you wish to vote in person, you must bring a properly executed legal proxy from your nominee so that you can vote your shares.

How Do I Vote in Person?

If you plan to attend the meeting and vote in person, we will give you a ballot form when you arrive. However, if your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must bring a properly executed legal proxy from the nominee authorizing you to vote the shares and indicating that you are the beneficial owner of the shares on April 5, 2004, the record date for voting.

What Constitutes a Quorum?

To establish a quorum at the annual meeting, a majority of the shares of our common stock outstanding on the record date must be present either in person or by proxy. We will count abstentions for purposes of establishing the presence of a quorum at the meeting.

Table of Contents

What Are the Recommendations of the Board of Directors?

Our current board of directors has unanimously approved the following items:

the election of each of the named nominees for director the increase in authorized shares of common stock from 20,000,000 to 40,000,000 shares; and the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as our independent auditors.

The board of directors recommends that you vote FOR each of the eight nominees for director, FOR the amendment to the Certificate of Incorporation increasing the number of authorized shares of common stock from 20,000,000 to 40,000,000 shares, and FOR the ratification of Deloitte & Touche as our independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2004.

What Are the Costs of Solicitation of Proxies?

Nara Bancorp will bear the cost of this solicitation, including the expense of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this proxy statement and the material used in this solicitation of proxies. The proxies will be solicited principally through the mails, but our directors, officers and regular employees may solicit proxies personally or by telephone. Although there is no formal agreement to do so, we may reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expense in forwarding these proxy materials to their principals. In addition, we may pay for and utilize the services of individuals or companies we do not regularly employ in connection with the solicitation of proxies. We have hired The Altman Group, Inc. to seek proxies of custodians, such as brokers who hold shares, which belong to other people. This service will cost us approximately $5,000.

Will There Be Any Other Matters Considered at the Annual Meeting?

We are unaware of any matter to be presented at the annual meeting other than the proposals discussed in this proxy statement. If other matters are properly presented at the annual meeting, then the persons named in the proxy will have authority to vote all properly executed proxies in accordance with their judgment on any such matter, including any proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting.

How Do I Propose Actions for Consideration at Next Year's Annual Meeting of Stockholders?

You may submit proposals for consideration at future stockholder meetings. For a shareholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in our proxy statement for the annual meeting next year, our corporate secretary must receive the written proposal no later than January 14, 2005. Such proposals also will need to comply with Securities and Exchange Commission regulations under Rule 14a-8 regarding the inclusion of shareholder proposals in company-sponsored proxy materials. If the date of next year's annual meeting is moved more than 30 days before or after the anniversary date of this year's annual meeting, the deadline for inclusion of proposals in our proxy statement is a reasonable time before we begin to print and mail our proxy materials.

The nomination committee has a charter, a copy of which can be found on our website at www.narabank.com.

It is the policy of the nomination committee to consider director candidates recommended by stockholders. Any such recommendation shall be made in writing and be delivered or mailed to the president of the Corporation not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, such nominations shall be mailed or delivered to the president of the Corporation not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of meeting was mailed. Such notification shall contain the following information to the extent known to the notifying stockholder:

- (a) The name and address of each proposed nominee.
- (b) The principal occupation of each proposed nominee.
- (c) The total number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation owned by each proposed nominee.
- (d) The name and address of the notifying stockholder.
- (e) The number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation owned by the notifying stockholder.

Nominations not made in accordance herewith may be disregarded by the chairman of the meeting, and upon his instructions, all votes cast for each such nominee may be disregarded.

Among the qualifications the nomination committee will consider in the selection of candidates (regardless of whether such candidates are identified by the nomination committee, management or stockholders) are broad experience in business, finance or administration; familiarity with national and international business matters; familiarity with the commercial banking industry; and prominence and reputation. Since prominence and reputation in a particular profession or field of endeavor are what bring most persons to the board's attention, there is the further consideration of whether the individual has the time available to devote to the work of the board of directors and one or more of its committees. Nominees will be screened to ensure each candidate has qualifications which compliment the overall core competencies of the board of directors. A review is also to be made of the activities and associations of each candidate to ensure that there is no legal impediment, conflict of interest, or other consideration that might hinder or prevent service on the board of directors. In making its selection, the nomination committee will bear in mind that the foremost responsibility of a director of the Corporation is to represent the interests of the stockholders as a whole. The screening process shall include a background evaluation and independence determination.

Except for the requirement that Stockholders submit nominees in writing to the president of the Corporation not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of stockholders called for the election of directors (except if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to stockholders) the process that the nomination committee follows for identifying and evaluating nominees for director is the same whether a candidate is identified by the nomination committee, management or stockholders. In each case, the nomination committee will review each properly submitted nominee.

Historically, the Corporation has not adopted a formal process for stockholder communications with the board of directors. Nevertheless, every effort has been made to ensure that the views of stockholders are heard by the board of directors or individual directors, as applicable, and that appropriate responses are provided to stockholders in a timely manner. We believe our responsiveness to stockholder communications to the board of directors has been excellent. Nevertheless, during the upcoming year the nominating committee will give full consideration to the adoption of a formal process for stockholder communications with the board of directors and, if adopted, publish it promptly and post it to the Corporation's website.

The Corporation has adopted the Nara Code of Business Conduct and Ethics that applies to all officers, directors and employees. The Nara Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available on our website at www.narabank.com. If the Corporation makes any substantive amendments to the Nara Code of Business Conduct and Ethics or grants any waiver from a material provision of the Code to any executive officer or director, the Corporation will promptly disclose the nature of the amendment or waiver on its website.

Employment Agreement with Our President and Chief Executive Officer

Benjamin B. Hong was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of Nara Bank pursuant to an employment agreement effective June 30, 1994. Mr. Benjamin Hong also serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of Nara Bancorp. Mr. Benjamin Hong's employment agreement was for an initial term of five years from such date with an option to renew such agreement for an additional four years. Mr. Benjamin Hong's initial contract expired in June of 1999, but was renewed according to its terms for the additional four-year period and expired in June of 2003. His employment agreement has not been renewed. Mr. Benjamin Hong briefly retired between September 2 and December 1, 2003, when the board of directors invited him to return as Interim President and CEO, after his successor, S.H. Hong resigned. Mr. Benjamin Hong is currently acting as Interim President and CEO, without salary, until the board of directors appoints a successor. Mr. Benjamin Hong's employment agreement, while it was effective, provided for a base salary of $120,000 in the initial year, plus profit sharing equal to a minimum of 7% of the pre-tax income of Nara Bank, an automobile allowance, one month's paid vacation per year and payment of monthly country club dues and business-related expenses. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Benjamin Hong was granted stock options to purchase 200,000 shares of Nara Bank's common stock, which, pursuant to the February 2001 reorganization, were automatically converted into stock options to purchase an equal number of shares of Nara Bancorp common stock, at an exercise price of $1.29 per share (adjusted for stock split and stock dividend). The terms of these stock options are subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the 1989 Stock Option Plan, as amended and adopted by Nara Bancorp. In 1997, Mr. Benjamin Hong was granted an additional 60,000 stock options under the 1989 Stock Option Plan at an exercise price of $2.57 per share (adjusted for stock split and stock dividend). In May 2003, Mr. Benjamin Hong was granted an additional 60,000 stock options under the Nara Bancorp, Inc., 2001 Nara Bank 2000 Continuation Long Term Incentive Plan. Except for the 60,000 stock options granted in 2003, all of the options granted to Mr. Benjamin Hong have vested and were exercised by him.

Seong-Hoon Hong (S.H. Hong) was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of Nara Bank and Nara Bancorp pursuant to an employment agreement effective August 27, 2003. Mr. S.H. Hong's employment agreement was for an initial term of three years from September 3, 2003. Mr. Hong's employment agreement provided for a base salary of $200,000 in the initial year, plus profit sharing equal to 2% of Nara Bancorp's consolidated pretax earnings in excess of 20% of the Nara Bancorp's consolidated previous year-end's stockholders equity excluding unrealized gain (loss), an automobile allowance, one month's paid vacation per year and payment of business-related expenses. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. S.H. Hong was granted stock options to purchase 100,000 shares of Nara Bancorp's common stock, which were to have vested over a period of three years, starting one year after the date of the grant. The terms of these stock options were subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Nara Bancorp, Inc., 2001 Nara Bank 2000 Continuation Long Term Incentive Plan. None of the stock options have vested, and all the unvested stock options were cancelled. On December 1, 2003, by mutual agreement, Mr. S.H. Hong resigned from his positions at Nara Bank and Nara Bancorp. As part of this agreement, Nara Bank agreed that Mr. S.H. Hong will receive (i) $300,000, (ii) $52,156 in profit sharing; (iv) the Lexus LS 430 valued at approximately $68,000; (v) $271.92 housing allowance; and (vi) health insurance for twelve months or until he secures other employment, whichever comes first. Part of the payment was made in 2003 and part will be paid in 2004.

Neither Nara Bancorp nor Nara Bank has entered into any other written employment agreements with any of their respective executive officers except as described above.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Nara Bancorp formed a compensation committee on July 30, 2002. To date our executive compensation arrangements are approved by the full board of directors of Nara Bank and ratified by the compensation committee of Nara Bancorp. Director Steve Kim is the Chairman of the compensation committee and the other members consist of Directors Dr. Thomas Chung, Ki Suh Park, Yong H. Kim and Jesun Paik. No person who served as a member of the compensation committee or the compensation committee during the 2003 fiscal year is, or ever has been, an officer or employee of Nara Bancorp or any of its subsidiaries. The following report is submitted by the compensation committee.

Compensation Committee Report

The Report of the board of directors should not be deemed incorporated by reference into any filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or the Securities Act of 1933 except to the extent we specifically incorporate the information contained in this Report by reference thereto.

What Is Our Philosophy on Executive Compensation?

We have adopted a basic philosophy and practice of offering a compensation program designed to attract and retain highly qualified employees. Our compensation practices encourage and motivate these individuals to achieve superior performance. This underlying philosophy pertains specifically to executive compensation, as well as employee compensation at all other levels throughout the organization.

Our executive compensation program is currently administered by the personnel committee of the board of directors of Nara Bank, approved by the full board of directors of Nara Bank and ratified by the compensation committee of Nara Bancorp. The role of the personnel committee of the board of directors of Nara Bank in this respect is to review and recommend the base salaries, bonuses, stock options and other compensation of the executive officers and management-level employees. The board of directors of Nara Bancorp, directly or through the compensation committee of the board of directors, also administers our stock option plans and will make grants to executive officers under the Nara Bancorp, Inc. 2001 Nara Bank 2000 Continuation Long Term Incentive Plan.

We have designed our executive compensation program to support what we believe to be an appropriate relationship between executive pay and the creation of shareholder value. To emphasize equity incentives, we link a significant portion of executive compensation to the market performance of our common stock. The objectives of our program are:

To support a pay-for-performance policy that differentiates bonus amounts among all executives based on both their individual performance and the performance of Nara Bancorp;

To align the interests of executives with the long-term interests of stockholders through awards whose value over time depends upon the market value of Nara Bancorp's common stock; and

To motivate key executives to achieve strategic business initiatives and to reward them for their achievement.

We also provide our executives with employee benefits, such as retirement and health benefits. The three principal components of our executive compensation program include cash compensation, bonuses and equity-based compensation.

Table of Contents

Cash Compensation

We review bank executive compensation surveys to ensure that the total cash compensation provided to executive officers and senior management remains at a competitive level to enable us to attract and retain management personnel with the talents and skills required to meet the challenges of a highly competitive industry. The compensation of executive officers is reviewed annually by the board of Nara Bank and the compensation committee.

Bonuses

For 2003, we approved cash bonuses for specific senior management and executive staff. The bonuses were determined based on revenue and earnings targets, along with individual performance objectives.

Equity-Based Compensation

We use equity-based compensation, principally in the form of stock options, as a cornerstone of our executive compensation program. Equity awards typically are based on industry surveys, each officer's individual performance and achievements, market factors and the recommendations of executive management.

Is the Compensation We Pay Our Executives Deductible?

As part of the Omnibus Reconciliation Act of 1993, Section 162(m) was added to the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) limits the deduction of compensation paid to the chief executive officer and our other Named Executive Officers to the extent the compensation of a particular executive exceeds $1 million, unless such compensation was based on predetermined quantifiable performance goals or paid pursuant to a written contract that was in effect on February 17, 1993.

We will continue to review and modify our compensation practices and programs as necessary to ensure our ability to attract and retain key executives while taking into account the deductibility of compensation payments. Under the 2000 Long Term Incentive Plan, as adopted by Nara Bancorp, award of stock options and performance stock are designed generally to satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) limits the deductibility of compensation paid to certain executive officers in excess of $1 million dollars per year. The 1989 Stock Option Plan was never amended to comply with the requirements of Section 162(m). Both plans permit us flexibility to reward senior management for extraordinary contributions that cannot properly be recognized under a predetermined quantitative plan.

How Do We Compensate Our President and Chief Executive Officer?

Mr. Benjamin B. Hong, the President and Chief Executive Officer of Nara Bancorp and Nara Bank received compensation for his services to Nara Bank during 2003 based primarily upon his rights under his employment agreement with Nara Bank, which expired in June 2003. We discuss this contract above under the heading Employment Agreement with Our President and Chief Executive Officer.

Respectfully submitted by the members of the compensation committee of the board of directors:

Steve Y. Kim, Chairman

Dr. Thomas Chung

Jesun Paik

Ki Suh Park

Yong H. Kim

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF NARA BANCORP, INC.

Nominations

Our Certificate of Incorporation and bylaws provide that the number of directors may be no less than five (5) and no more than twenty-five (25), with the exact number to be fixed by resolution of the board of directors or stockholders. The board of directors, by a resolution unanimously passed on December 1, 2003, has fixed the number at eight (8). The board of directors has unanimously nominated the eight (8) persons set forth in the following table to serve as Nara Bancorp's directors until the next annual meeting of stockholders and until each person's successor is elected and qualified.

The proxy holders will vote all proxies for the election of the eight (8) nominees listed below unless authority to vote for the election of any of the directors is withheld. The nominees receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to be voted for them shall be elected as directors. Abstentions and votes cast against nominees will have no effect on the election of directors. If any of the nominees should unexpectedly decline or be unable to act as a director, the proxies voted for them may be voted for a substitute nominee to be designated by the board of directors. The board of directors has no reason to believe that any nominee will become unavailable and has no present intention to nominate persons in addition to or in lieu of those names below.

Each of the nominees listed below, except for Dr. Chong Moon Lee, is currently a director of the Corporation who was previously elected by the stockholders. Dr. Lee was appointed to the board of directors as a result of the Corporation's acquisition of Asiana Bank. As a result of his performance since he was appointed, the nomination committee determined that Dr. Lee was an appropriate nominee for election to the Corporation's board of directors. It is the Corporation's policy to encourage nominees for directors to attend the Annual Meeting. All of the nominees for election as a director at the 2003 Annual Meeting of stockholders attended the 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The next table provides certain information as of April 5, 2003, with respect to those persons nominated by the board of directors for election as directors. Nara Bancorp knows of no arrangements, including any pledge by any person of Nara Bancorp's securities, the operation of which may, at a subsequent date, result in a change in control of Nara Bancorp. There are no arrangements or understandings by which any of the directors or nominees for director of Nara Bancorp were selected. There is no family relationship between any

AMENDMENT OF CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

The board of directors is requesting stockholder approval of an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation to increase our authorized number of shares of common stock from 20,000,000 shares to 40,000,000 shares.

The additional common stock to be authorized by adoption of the amendment would have rights identical to our currently outstanding common stock. Adoption of the proposed amendment and issuance of the common stock would not affect the rights of the holders of currently outstanding common stock of Nara Bancorp, except for effects incidental to increasing the number of shares of the our common stock outstanding, such as dilution of the earnings per share and voting rights of current holders of our common stock. If the amendment is adopted, it will become effective upon filing of a Certificate of Amendment of our Certificate of Incorporation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

Although at present the board of directors has no plans to issue the additional shares of common stock, it desires to have the shares available to provide additional flexibility to use its capital stock for business and financial purposes in the future. The additional shares may be used for various purposes without further stockholder approval. These purposes may include: raising capital; providing equity incentives to employees, officers or directors; establishing strategic relationships with other companies; expanding the corporation's business through the acquisition of other businesses; issuing stock dividends to our stockholders; and other purposes.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock, will be required to approve this amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation. As a result, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as negative votes.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL 2.

PROPOSAL NO. 3

RATIFICATION OF THE SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

General

We have appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for the year ending December 31, 2004. The board of directors unanimously approved the appointment of Deloitte & Touche. Deloitte & Touche, who performed our audit services in 2003, has served as Nara Bank's and later Nara Bancorp's accountants since 1995. Deloitte & Touche performed all of its services in 2003 at customary rates and terms.

Fees

The following table sets forth the aggregate fees that we incurred for audit and non-audit services provided by Deloitte & Touche, which acted as independent auditors for the fiscal year ending 2003 and performed audit services for us in fiscal year 2003. The table lists audit fees, financial information systems design and implementation fees, and other fees.

Audit Fees. The audit fees include only fees that are customary under generally accepted auditing standards and are the aggregate fees that we incurred for professional services rendered for the audit of our annual financial statements for fiscal year 2003.

	December 31, 2003
Audit Fees (Financial)	$ 229,328
Audit Related Fees	$ 37,245
Tax Fees	$ 75,567
Other Fees	$ 0

Table of Contents

All Other Fees. All other fees include the aggregate fees billed for services rendered by Deloitte & Touche, other than those services covered above.

The audit committee of the board of directors considered whether the provision of financial information systems design and implementation services and other non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independence of Deloitte & Touche.

Representatives of Deloitte & Touche will be present at the annual meeting, will be available to respond to your appropriate questions and will be able to make such statements as they desire.

If you do not ratify the selection of independent accountants, the audit committee and the board will reconsider the appointment. However, even if you ratify the selection, the board may still appoint new independent accountants at any time during the year if it believes that such a change would be in the best interests of Nara Bancorp, Inc. and our stockholders.

Advanced Approval Policies and Procedures

The audit committee has adopted a policy and procedures for the approval in advance of audit and non-audit services rendered by our independent auditor, Deloitte & Touche LLP. The policy requires advanced approval of all services before the independent auditor is engaged to provide such services. The advanced approval of services may be delegated to one or more of the audit committee's members, but the decision must be reported to the full audit committee at its next scheduled meeting. A copy of the Nara Bancorp, Inc., Interim Policy Regarding the Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services Provided by the Independent Auditor is attached as Appendix B.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF PROPOSAL 3.

ANNUAL REPORT ON FORM 10-K

Nara Bancorp will provide you, without charge, a copy of its annual report for the year ended December 31, 2003 on Form 10-K, including financial statements and schedules, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to the Exchange Act of 1934. If you did not receive it, we will send it to you without charge if you send notification to our Corporate Secretary at the address below. The Annual Report on Form 10-K includes a list of exhibits filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, but does not include the exhibits themselves. If you wish to receive copies of the exhibits, we will send them to you. Expenses for copying and mailing of the exhibits will be your responsibility. Please write to: Mr. Michel Urich, Nara Bancorp, Inc., 3701 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 220, Los Angeles, CA 90010. In addition, the Securities and Exchange Commission maintains a website, <http://www.sec.gov>, which contains information filed by us with them.

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries (e.g., brokers) to satisfy the delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more stockholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement addressed to those share/stockholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially means extra convenience for stockholders and cost savings for companies.

This year, a number of brokers with account holders who are Nara Bancorp, Inc., stockholders will be householding our proxy materials. A single proxy statement will be delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected stockholders. Once you have received notice from your broker that they will be householding communications to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement and annual report, please notify your broker, direct your written request to Nara Bancorp, Inc., Attention: Michel Urich, Corporate Secretary, 3701 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 220, Los Angeles, CA. 90010. Stockholders who currently receive multiple copies of the proxy statement at their address and would like to request householding of their communications should contact their broker.

OTHER MATTERS

The board of directors knows of no other matters that will be brought before the meeting, but if such matters are properly presented to the meeting, proxies solicited hereby will be voted in accordance with the judgment of the persons holding such proxies. All shares represented by duly executed proxies will be voted at the meeting in accordance with the terms of such proxies.

APPENDIX B

NARA BANCORP, INC.

POLICY REGARDING THE APPROVAL OF AUDIT AND NONAUDIT SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

Purpose and Applicability

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Nara Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) is responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the independent auditor of the Company. As part of this responsibility, the Audit Committee is required to approve the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent auditor in order to assure that they do not impair the auditor's independence from the Company. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the Act) and the rules and regulations adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) thereunder contain detailed requirements specifying the types of non-audit services that an independent auditor may not provide to its audit client and the audit committee's administration of the engagement of the independent auditor. Accordingly, the Audit Committee has adopted this Policy Regarding the Approval of Audit and Nonaudit Services Provided by the Independent Auditor (the Policy).

Policy Statement

It is the policy of the Company that all services provided by the Company's independent auditor, both audit and nonaudit in nature, must be approved in advance by the Audit Committee. Although the Act permits de minimis exceptions and allows for the pre-approval of certain categories of audit and non-audit services, our policy is that all services provided by the independent auditor, both audit and nonaudit in nature, must be specifically approved in advance by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee may delegate to one or more designated member(s) of the Audit Committee (a Designated Member), who is independent as defined under applicable NASDAQ rules, the authority to grant approval of permitted services to be provided by the independent auditor. The decision of a Designated Member to approve a permitted service shall be reported to the Audit Committee at each of its regularly scheduled meetings. However, in no case may a Designated Member approve services related to the annual audit, which approval is reserved to the Audit Committee, and in no event may the Designated Member approve under delegated authority fees for services which total in the aggregate more than 50% of the Company's regular fees for its annual audit.

All fees paid to the Company's independent auditor will be disclosed in the Company's annual proxy statement in accordance with applicable SEC rules. Subject to SEC rules, the annual proxy statement should include disclosure of the amount of Audit Related Fees and other fees required to be disclosed by the rules.

Prohibited Services Under no circumstances may the Company engage the independent auditors to provide the nonaudit services described below to the Company:

1. Bookkeeping or Other Services Related to the Company's Accounting Records or Financial Statements. The Independent auditor cannot maintain or prepare the Company's accounting records or prepare the Company's financial statements that are either filed with the SEC or form the basis of financial statements filed with the SEC.
2. Appraisal or Valuation Services or Fairness Opinions. The Independent auditor cannot provide appraisal or valuation services when it is reasonably likely that the results of any valuation or appraisal would be material to the Company's financial statements, or where the Independent auditor would audit the results.
3. Actuarial Services. The Independent auditor cannot provide insurance actuarial-oriented advisory services unless the Company uses its own actuaries or third party actuaries to provide management with the primary actuarial capabilities, and management accepts responsibility for actuarial methods and assumptions.

Table of Contents

4. Management Functions or Human Resources. Partners and employees of the Independent auditor cannot act as a director, officer, or employee of the Company, or perform any decision-making, supervisory, or ongoing monitoring function for the Company. The Independent auditor cannot recruit, act as a negotiator on the Company's behalf, deliver employee testing or evaluation programs, or recommend, or advise that the Company hire, a specific candidate for a specific job.

5. Broker-Dealer, Investment Adviser, or Investment Banking Services. The Independent auditor cannot serve as a broker-dealer, promoter or underwriter of an audit client's securities.

6. Legal Services and Expert Services Unrelated to the Audit. The Independent auditor cannot provide any service in which the person providing the service must be admitted to practice before the courts of a U.S. jurisdiction.

7. Internal Audit Outsourcing. The Independent auditor cannot provide any internal audit services relating to accounting controls, financial systems, or financial statements.

8. Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation. The Independent auditor cannot design or implement a hardware or software system that aggregates source data underlying the financial statements or generates information that is significant to the Company's financial statements, taken as a whole.

Non-prohibited services shall be deemed permitted services and may be provided to the Company with the advance approval of a Designated Member or by the full Audit Committee, as described herein.

Audit Committee Review of Services

At each regularly scheduled Audit Committee meeting, the Audit Committee shall review the following:

A report summarizing the services, or grouping of related services, including fees, provided by the independent auditor;

A listing of newly approved services since its last regularly scheduled meeting; and

An updated projection for the current fiscal year, presented in a manner consistent with the proxy disclosure requirements, of the estimated annual fees to be paid to the independent auditor.

Effective Date

This policy shall be effective immediately upon approval by the Audit Committee.
