Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On March 27, 2006, Waste Management, Inc. (the Company) entered into an employment agreement with James Schultz, Senior Vice President Employee and Customer Engagement, effective as of October 30, 2005. The Company announced in November of last year that Mr. Schultz had been named Senior Vice President Employee and Customer Engagement after serving as Vice President of Health and Safety for five years.

The agreement is for a term of two years, and automatically renews for successive one-year periods thereafter. During the employment period, Mr. Schultz shall be paid a minimum base salary of $315,416 per year and shall be entitled to a bonus in accordance with the Company s incentive compensation plan. Mr. Schultz shall have a target annual bonus of 60% of his base salary, although his actual bonus may range from 0 120% of his base salary, depending on the achievement of certain personal and corporate performance goals. Additionally, Mr. Schultz shall be entitled to certain perquisites, including an annual automobile allowance, financial planning services, social organization initiation fees and dues and an annual physical examination. Mr. Schultz shall also be entitled to participate in or receive benefits under any and all plans and programs made available to executive employees of the Company generally.

In the event of the termination of Mr. Schultz s employment by the Company, he will be entitled to certain severance payments. Specifically, if Mr. Schultz is terminated without cause, in addition to the benefits all employees receive, including all accrued but unpaid base salary and payments under applicable Company plans, policies and arrangements, Mr. Schultz generally is entitled to cash payments equal to two times his base salary and target bonus; continuation of all health and welfare plan benefits for him and his family for the lesser of two years, his death or until he becomes covered by a subsequent employer; and a pro-rated bonus payment for the year in which he is terminated. In the event Mr. Schultz is terminated without cause or leaves the Company for good reason in connection with a change in control, he generally is entitled to the same benefits that he would receive as described for a termination without cause, except that his cash payment will be three times his base salary and target bonus, benefits will continue for a period of three years and he will receive 100% of the maximum bonus available, pro rated to the date of termination. In accordance with the Company s Executive Severance Policy, Mr. Schultz s agreement provides that if the present value of severance benefits payable under his agreement would exceed 2.99 times the sum of his then current base salary and bonus (the maximum severance amount), the payments to Mr. Schultz will be reduced to an amount not to exceed the maximum severance amount. In the event Mr. Schultz s employment is terminated by reason of death or total disability, he generally will receive all amounts accrued but unpaid at the date of termination, a pro rated bonus payment and any benefits to which he is entitled pursuant to the plans, policies and arrangements of the Company in accordance with their terms.

Mr. Schultz s agreement also contains certain restrictive covenants, including covenants not to compete or solicit Company customers or employees for a period of two years after the termination of his employment, and a covenant not to disparage the Company.

The terms cause, good reason, and total disability are all defined in Mr. Schultz s employment agreement, which is attached as exhibit 10.1 hereto.
