Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

As previously disclosed by Metromedia International Group, Inc. (the Company) on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) on October 24, 2006, two lawsuits were filed against the Company and certain directors and officers of the Company on October 18, 2006 and October 19, 2006, respectively, in the Court of Chancery for the State of Delaware (the Court) by Esopus Creek Value LP., Black Horse Capital, LP, Black Horse Capital (QP) LP and Black Horse Capital Offshore Ltd., stockholders of the Company. The lawsuits, which have been consolidated, generally sought to enforce a Stipulation and Order of the Court, dated September 26, 2006, pursuant to which the Company agreed to hold an annual meeting of stockholders on December 15, 2006 (the Annual Meeting). The lawsuits alleged that (i) by entering into a letter of intent (the LOI) in respect of the proposed sale of substantially all of the Company's assets (the Proposed Sale), as announced by the Company on October 2, 2006, the Company intended to avoid holding the Annual Meeting, and (ii) in connection with the approval and execution of the LOI, certain directors and officers of the Company have breached their fiduciary duties and have attempted to avoid a stockholder vote on the transactions contemplated by the LOI in violation of Section 271 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

A preliminary injunction hearing in connection with the aforementioned lawsuits was held in the Court on November 22, 2006. Following oral arguments by the plaintiffs and the defendants at the November 22, 2006 hearing, the Court issued an order (the Order), dated November 29, 2006, pursuant to which it was ordered, among other things, that (i) the Company and its representatives, and those persons in active concert or participation with them, not enter into a definitive agreement providing for the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, including the Company's subsidiary Metromedia International Telecommunications, Inc. and/or the Company's direct or indirect interest in Magticom (an Asset Sale Agreement), unless consummation of such Asset Sale Agreement is subject to a vote of the common stockholders of the Company pursuant to 8 Del. C. § 271, and (ii) in the event the Company enters into an Asset Sale Agreement, the Company and its Board of Directors shall call a meeting of the common stockholders of the Company, consistent with the notice provision of 8 Del. C. § 271, the Company shall distribute to its stockholders, in advance of such meeting, a notice advising the Company's common stockholders of the date, time and place of the meeting and their right to vote on the Proposed Sale and all information required under Delaware law necessary to ensure an informed vote on the Proposed Sale and at such meeting the common stockholders shall have the opportunity to vote on the Proposed Sale. In addition, the Order provides that the Company and its representatives shall take whatever steps they deem necessary, including the use of oral, written or electronic communications, to encourage stockholders to attend the meeting and cast a vote on the Proposed Sale.

A copy of the November 29, 2006 Order of the Court is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
