ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
To be held on June 10, 2002

This Proxy Statement with the accompanying proxy card, is being mailed or given to stockholders commencing on or about May 10, 2002, in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of HEARx Ltd. (Company) to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held at Washington, D.C., on Monday, June 10, 2002 at 2:00 p.m. local time and any adjournments thereof.

The Company's principal executive offices are located at 1250 Northpoint Parkway, West Palm Beach, Florida 33407.

Proxy Procedure

Stockholders of record (stockholders who hold their shares in their own name) can vote any one of three ways:

- (1) By Mail: If the enclosed proxy card is properly executed and returned prior to the meeting, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the stockholder's directions or, if no directions are indicated, the shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors as specified in this proxy statement. The Board of Directors does not know of any other business to be brought before the meeting, but it is intended that, as to any such other business, a vote may be cast pursuant to the proxy in accordance with the judgment of the person or persons acting thereunder.
- (2) By Telephone: Call the toll-free number on your proxy card to vote by phone. You will need to follow the instructions on your proxy card and the voice prompts.
- (3) By Internet: Go to the web site listed on your proxy card to vote through the Internet. You will need to follow the instructions on your proxy card and the web site. If you vote through the Internet, you may incur telephone and Internet access charges.

If you vote by telephone or the Internet, your electronic vote authorizes the named proxies in the same manner as if you signed, dated and returned your proxy card. IF YOU VOTE BY TELEPHONE OR THE INTERNET, YOU SHOULD NOT RETURN YOUR PROXY CARD.

If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record (street name), you will receive instructions from the holder of record that you must follow in order for your shares to be voted in accordance with your instructions. Telephone and Internet voting also will be offered to stockholders owning shares through most banks and brokers.

Any stockholder voting by written proxy by mail may revoke that proxy at any time prior to the voting thereof either by delivering written notice to the Secretary of the Company or by voting in person at the meeting. If you voted by telephone or the Internet you may also change your vote with a timely and valid later telephone or Internet vote, as the case may be. Attendance at the meeting will not have the effect of revoking a proxy unless you give proper written notice of revocation to the Secretary before the proxy is exercised or you vote by written ballot at the meeting.

Proxy Solicitation

All costs of the solicitation of proxies will be borne by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, the Company may utilize the services of some of the officers and regular employees of the Company (who will receive no compensation therefore in addition to their regular salaries) to solicit proxies personally and by telephone. The Company will request banks, brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward copies of the proxy solicitation materials to beneficial owners and to request authority for the execution of proxies. The Company will reimburse such persons or entities for their expenses in doing so.

Voting at Meeting

Holders of record of shares of the Company's common Stock, par value $.10 per share (Common Stock), as of the close of business on May 10, 2002, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting. As of that date, there were outstanding [] shares of Common Stock. Each holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each share held. The holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of the close of business on May 10, 2002, will constitute a quorum at the meeting. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, any stockholder who submits a proxy and abstains from voting on a particular matter described herein will still be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. Broker non-votes will be treated as not represented at the meeting as to any matter for which a non-vote is indicated on the broker's proxy.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Five directors of the Company are to be elected at the meeting, each to hold office until the next Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his successor is elected and qualified, or as otherwise provided by the Company's Bylaws or by Delaware law.

The Board of Directors has nominated the five persons named below for election as directors, all of whom are presently serving as such. All members of the Board have been previously elected as directors by the Company's stockholders. It is intended that the shares represented by the enclosed proxy will be voted for the election of these five nominees (unless such authority is withheld by a stockholder). The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Dr. Paul A. Brown to serve as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer for an initial five-year term ending in 2004. The Company has entered into a substantially similar employment agreement with Stephen J. Hansbrough to serve as President and Chief Operating Officer for an initial five-year term ending in 2004. Each of the employment agreements provides that the executive will be entitled to receive base compensation and performance bonuses and to participate in and receive benefits under the Company's welfare benefit and similar employee benefit plans generally made available by the Company to other key employees. Dr. Brown's base compensation for the first year of the agreement is $300,000 per year, and Mr. Hansbrough's base compensation for the first year of the agreement is $275,000 per year. Such annual compensation is subject to review annually by the Board. In respect of annual bonuses, if in any calendar year the Company achieves the net income targets approved by the Board, the Company has agreed to pay the executive a bonus equal to at least 50% of the executive's base salary. In addition, if in any calendar year the Company achieves the target net income approved by the Board for such year, the executive is entitled to receive a cash bonus equal to 1% of such net income for such year. Each executive is entitled to reimbursement of his reasonable and necessary business expenses in connection with the performance of his duties consistent with guidelines established by the Company's Board of Directors. Concurrent with the execution of the employment agreements, and pursuant to the terms of the agreements, each executive was granted an option to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock. Dr. Brown was granted an option to acquire 100,000 shares and Mr. Hansbrough was granted an option to acquire 113,246 shares. Each option vests ratably over four years and was granted with an exercise price equal to the market value of the common stock on the date of grant.

Each of the employment agreements contains termination and change in control provisions. If the executive is terminated with cause or if the executive terminates without good reason before or after a change in control, the Company will be required to pay only amounts earned through the date of termination. If the executive terminates because the Company has breached the employment agreement or if the Company terminates the executive without cause (before a change in control), the Company must pay the executive an amount equal to the base salary in effect for the duration of the term as in effect immediately before the date of termination or, if more than three years of the term have elapsed on the date of such termination, an amount equal to one year's salary. In addition, the executive is entitled to payment of a bonus equal to one times the average of all bonus and other incentive payments made by the Company to the executive over the then prior two years plus the pro rata portion of the bonus payable for the year of the termination. In such circumstances, the Company will be obliged to continue the executive's medical, dental, life and other insurance and benefit program coverage for 18 months, and the executive shall be fully vested in all options and similar rights previously granted to him and shall have a period of two years within which to exercise such rights.

Each of the employment agreements provides that in the event the executive is terminated by the Company without cause on or after a change in control or if the executive terminates with good reason after a change in control, the Company must pay the executive a minimum of three times the executive's base salary plus an amount equal to three times the average of all bonus and other incentive payments made by the Company to the executive over the then preceding two years. All options and other rights will then be fully vested and the executive will have three years within which to exercise such rights. The Company also will be responsible for maintaining the executive's medical, dental, life and other insurance and benefit program coverage for a three year period.

In the event of the executive's death or termination because of disability, all then outstanding options and similar rights shall become fully vested and the executive or his legal representatives may exercise such rights for a one year period following the executive's death or termination for disability.

The agreements provide for gross up payments to the executive to cover the executive's incremental tax liabilities in the event payments made under the agreements are subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Report of the Board of Directors on Compensation

The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Board of Directors. In addition to base salary, compensation for the Company's executive officers may include annual performance bonuses and stock options and stock grants pursuant to the Company's stock incentive plan. It is the intention of the Board of Directors to use salary and bonuses as compensation for current and past performance, while using stock options and restricted stock grants to provide incentives for superior long-term performance.

To establish compensation for the Company's executive officers for 2001, the Board of Directors used subjective performance evaluations, compensation statistics of other similar size health care organizations, and with respect to executive officers other than Dr. Brown, the salary and bonus recommendations of Dr. Brown. Each of Dr. Brown and Mr. Hansbrough's salary was determined pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement. In respect of the bonus opportunity for the Company's executive officers, the Board set certain performance criteria, the attainment of which could entitle the executive officer to earn a cash bonus equal to one half of his base salary. These performance criteria were both objective and subjective. The objective performance criteria were not met in 2001. In addition, the Board made available to all executive officers of the Company, including Dr. Brown and the other named executive officers, a bonus opportunity upon the attainment of certain corporate objectives. One of those objectives was achieved, resulting in the cash bonuses for the executive officers shown in the summary compensation table.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Stockholder proposals intended to be presented at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders must be received by us no later than for inclusion, if appropriate, in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy for that meeting.

In order for a stockholder to nominate a candidate for director election at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, a stockholder must provide timely notice of the nomination. Such notice must be given not less than 90 nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary of the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders. The stockholder must include information about the nominee, such as his or her name, address and occupation, all as provided by the Company's Bylaws.

In order for a stockholder to bring any other business before the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, the stockholder must provide advance notice as provided in the Bylaws in respect of such proposal. The notice must be given not less than 90 nor more than 120 days prior to the anniversary date of the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders. These time limits apply in determining whether notice is timely for purposes of rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission relating to the exercise of discretionary voting authority by the Company's designated proxies. The notice must contain specific information as prescribed by the Company's Bylaws. These requirements are separate from and in addition to those requirements imposed by the federal securities laws concerning inclusion of a stockholder proposal in the proxy statement and form of proxy for the meeting.

In each case, the notice must be given to the Company's Secretary at the Company's principal offices, 1250 North Point Parkway, West Palm Beach, Florida 33407.
