Your shares will be voted at the annual meeting as you direct in the enclosed proxy, provided that it is completed, signed, and returned to us prior to the annual meeting. No proxy can vote for more than seven nominees for director. If you return a proxy but fail to indicate how you wish your shares to be voted, then your shares will be voted in favor of each of the nominees for director.

After you sign and return your proxy, you may revoke it prior to the meeting either by (i) filing a written notice of revocation at our corporate headquarters, (ii) attending the annual meeting and voting your shares in person, or (iii) delivering to us another duly executed proxy that is dated after the initial proxy.

We will bear the expense of preparing, printing, and mailing the proxy solicitation material and the proxy. In addition to use of the mail, we may solicit proxies by personal interview or telephone by our directors, officers, and employees. We may also engage the services of a proxy solicitation firm to assist us in the solicitation of proxies. We estimate that the fee of any such firm will not exceed $5,000 plus reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES AND BOARD MATTERS

Corporate Governance Initiatives

Our board of directors has adopted a number of corporate governance initiatives, including the following:

Independence Standards, which determine the independence of our non-employee directors. These standards are consistent with the independence standards set forth in Rule 303A.02(b) of the New York Stock Exchange Listed Company Manual. The Independence Standards are included as an exhibit to our Audit Committee Charter.

Corporate Governance Guidelines, which include, among other things:

annual submission of independent auditors to stockholders for approval;

formation of a Nominating and Governance Committee to be comprised solely of independent directors;

prohibition of stock option re-pricing;

formalization of the ability of independent directors to retain outside advisors;

performance of periodic formal board evaluation; and limitation on the number of additional public company boards on which a director may serve to a maximum of four.

A copy of our Corporate Governance Guidelines may be found on our Website, www.tylerworks.com.

An Audit Committee Charter, which requires, among other things, that the committee be comprised solely of independent directors (as set forth in the Independence Standards), at least one of who will qualify as an audit committee financial expert as set forth in Item 401(h) of the SEC's Regulation S-K. A copy of our Audit Committee Charter may be found on our Website, www.tylerworks.com.

Table of Contents

A Compensation Committee Charter, which requires, among other things, that the committee be comprised solely of independent directors and sets forth the guidelines for determining executive compensation. A copy of our Compensation Committee Charter may be found on our Website, www.tylerworks.com.

A Nominating and Governance Committee Charter, which requires, among other things, that the committee be comprised of at least three independent directors who are responsible for recommending candidates for election to the board of directors. A copy of our Nominating and Governance Committee Charter may be found on our Website, www.tylerworks.com.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Our board of directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which applies to all of our directors, executive officers (including, without limitation, the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, principal accounting officer, and controller), and employees. The purpose of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is to promote:

honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;

full, fair, accurate, timely, and understandable disclosure in our public communications and reports filed with the SEC;

compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules, and regulations;

prompt internal reporting of violations of the policy to the appropriate persons designated therein, including anonymous whistleblower provisions; and accountability for adherence to the policy.

A copy of our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics may be found on our Website, www.tylerworks.com, or will be furnished, without charge, upon written request at our principal executive offices. Any future amendments or waivers related to our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics will be promptly posted on our website.

Board Independence

Our board of directors has determined, after considering all of the relevant facts and circumstances, that each of the non-employee directors standing for re-election as director (Messrs. Brattain, King, Reeves, and Richards) has no material relationship with us (either directly or as a partner, shareholder, or officer of an organization that has a relationship with us) and is independent within the meaning of the New York Stock Exchange director independence standards, as currently in effect and as may be changed from time to time. As a result, if each of the nominees for director is elected at the annual meeting, our board of directors will be comprised of a majority of independent directors as required by the New York Stock Exchange. Furthermore, our board of directors has determined that each of the members of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, and Nominating and Governance Committee has no material relationship with us (either directly or as a partner, shareholder, or officer of an organization that has a relationship with us) and is independent within the meaning of our director independence standards.

Committees of the Board of Directors

During 2004, the standing committees of our board of directors were the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee, Executive Committee, and Nominating and Governance Committee. The board met four times during 2004. Each board member participated in at least 75% of all board and committee meetings held during the portion of 2004 that he served as a director and/or committee member. In addition, our board of directors has established a policy under which our non-management members will meet at regularly scheduled (and in any event at least twice per fiscal year) executive sessions without management present and with Mr. G. Stuart Reeves presiding over such meetings.

Table of Contents

Audit Committee. During 2004, the Audit Committee was comprised of Donald R. Brattain (Chairman), J. Luther King, Jr., and G. Stuart Reeves, each of who is independent as defined above. The Audit Committee's duties include:

considering the independence of our independent auditors before we engage them;

reviewing with the independent auditors the fee, scope, and timing of the audit;

reviewing the completed audit with the independent auditors regarding any significant accounting adjustments, recommendations for improving internal controls, appropriateness of accounting policies, appropriateness of accounting and disclosure decisions with respect to significant unusual transactions or material obligations, and significant findings during the audit;

reviewing our financial statements and related regulatory filings with the independent auditors; and meeting periodically with management to discuss internal accounting and financial controls.

The Audit Committee met four times during 2004.

Compensation Committee. During 2004, the Compensation Committee was comprised of Michael D. Richards (Chairman), J. Luther King, Jr., and G. Stuart Reeves. The Compensation Committee has final authority on all executive compensation and periodically reviews compensation and other benefits paid to or provided for our officers and directors. The Compensation Committee also approves annual salaries and bonuses for officers to ensure that the recommended salaries and bonuses are not unreasonable. The Compensation Committee met once during 2004.

Executive Committee. During 2004, the Executive Committee was comprised of John M. Yeaman (Chairman), John S. Marr, Jr., and Glenn A. Smith. The Executive Committee has the authority to act for the entire board of directors, but may not commit to an expenditure in excess of $5,000,000 without full board approval. The Executive Committee meets periodically throughout the year.

Nominating and Governance Committee. During 2004, the Nominating and Governance Committee was comprised of G. Stuart Reeves (Chairman), Donald R. Brattain, and Michael D. Richards. The Nominating and Governance Committee's duties include:

identifying and recommending candidates for election to our board of directors;

periodically reviewing the appropriate skills and characteristics required of board members in the context of the current make-up of our board; and monitoring adherence to our Corporate Governance Guidelines.

The Nominating and Governance Committee met once during 2004.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

Our board of directors determined that each of Donald R. Brattain and J. Luther King, Jr., current chairman and member of the Audit Committee, respectively, possesses the attributes necessary to qualify as an audit committee financial expert as set forth in Item 401(h) of the SEC's Regulation S-K.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures for Audit and Non-Audit Services

The Audit Committee Charter requires that the Audit Committee pre-approve all of the audit and non-audit services performed by our independent auditors. The purpose of these pre-approval procedures is to ensure that the provision of services by our independent auditors does not impair their independence. Each year, the Audit Committee receives fee estimates from our independent auditors for each category of services to be performed by the independent auditors during the upcoming fiscal reporting year. These categories of services include Audit Services, Audit-Related Services, Tax Services, and All Other Services. Upon review of the types of services to be performed and the estimated fees related thereto, the Audit Committee will determine which services and fees should be pre-approved, which pre-approval will be in effect for a period of twelve months. The Audit Committee may periodically review the list of pre-approved services based on subsequent determinations. Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent auditor has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee (or delegated member of the Audit Committee) prior to the performance of such service. Any proposed services exceeding the pre-approved cost levels will also require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee (or delegated member of the Audit Committee).

Director Nominating Process

The Nominating and Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing and interviewing qualified candidates to serve on our board of directors and to select both independent as well as management nominees for director to be elected by our stockholders at each annual meeting. The Nominating and Governance Committee is comprised solely of independent directors and operates under a Charter for the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Our Corporate Governance Guidelines include the criteria our board of directors believes are important in the selection of director nominees, which includes the following qualifications:

sound personal and professional integrity;

an inquiring and independent mind;

practical wisdom and mature judgment;

broad training and experience at the policy-making level of business, finance and accounting, government, education, or technology;

expertise that is useful to Tyler and complementary to the background and experience of other board members, so that an optimal balance of board members can be achieved and maintained;

willingness to devote the required time to carrying out the duties and responsibilities of board membership;

commitment to serve on the board for several years to develop knowledge about our business; willingness to represent the best interests of all stockholders and objectively appraise management performance; and involvement only in activities or interests that do not conflict with the director's responsibilities to Tyler or our stockholders.

The Nominating and Governance Committee may, in the exercise of its discretion, actively solicit nominee candidates; however, nominee recommendations submitted by other directors or stockholders will also be considered as described below. Our new nominee for director, Mr. Womble, was recommended to the Nominating and Governance Committee by John M. Yeaman.

The Nominating and Governance Committee will consider qualified nominees recommended by stockholders who may submit recommendations to the committee in care of our Corporate Secretary at our corporate headquarters, 5949 Sherry Lane, Suite 1400, Dallas, Texas 75225. To be considered by the Nominating and Governance Committee, stockholder nominations must be submitted in accordance with our bylaws and must be accompanied by a description of the qualifications of the proposed candidate and a written statement from the proposed candidate that he or she is willing to be nominated and desires to serve, if elected. Nominees for director who are recommended by our stockholders will be evaluated in the same manner as any other nominee for director.

Nominations by stockholders may also be made at an annual meeting of stockholders in the manner provided in our bylaws. Our bylaws require that a stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors may make nominations of persons for election to our board at a meeting of stockholders by complying with required notice procedures. Nominations must be received at our corporate headquarters not less than 75 days or more than 85 days before any annual meeting of stockholders. If, however, notice or prior public disclosure of an annual meeting is given or made less than 75 days before the date of the annual meeting, the notice must be received no later than the 10th day following the date of mailing of the notice of annual meeting or the date of public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting, whichever is earlier. The notice must specify the following:

as to each person the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a director:

the name, age, business address, and residence address of the person;

the principal occupation or employment of the person;

the class and number of shares of our capital stock that are beneficially owned by the person; and any other information relating to the person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations for proxies for election of directors under Regulation 14A of the Exchange Act; and as to the stockholder giving notice:

the name and record address of the stockholder and any other stockholder known to be supporting the nominee; and the class and number of shares of our capital stock that are beneficially owned by the stockholder making the nomination and by any other supporting stockholders.

We may require that the proposed nominee furnish us with other information as we may reasonably request to assist us in determining the eligibility of the proposed nominee to serve as a director. At any meeting of stockholders, the presiding officer may disregard the purported nomination of any person not made in compliance with these procedures.

Communications with Our Board of Directors

Any stockholder or interested party who wishes to communicate with our board of directors or any specific directors, including non-management directors may write to:

Board of Directors
Tyler Technologies, Inc.
5949 Sherry Lane, Suite 1400
Dallas, Texas 75225

Depending on the subject matter, management will:

forward the communication to the director or directors to whom it is addressed (for example, if the communication received deals with our whistleblower policy found on our Website, www.tylerworks.com, including questions, concerns, or complaints regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, and auditing matters, it will be forwarded by management to the Chairman of the Audit Committee for review);

attempt to handle the inquiry directly (for example, if the communication is a request for information about us or our operations or it is a stock-related matter that does not appear to require direct attention by our board of directors); or not forward the communication if it is primarily commercial in nature or if it relates to an improper or irrelevant topic.

At each meeting of our board of directors, our Chairman will present a summary of all communications received since the last meeting of the board of directors that were not forwarded and will make those communications available to any director on request.

Director Attendance at Annual Meetings

Directors are not required to attend our annual meetings of stockholders. However, our board of directors typically holds a meeting immediately following the annual meeting of stockholders. Therefore, in most cases, all of our directors will be present at the annual meeting. All of our directors were present at the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders.

Director Compensation

Each non-employee director receives an annual fee of $15,000, plus $1,000 for each board meeting and $500 for each committee meeting attended.

Each of these option grants vests in equal installments on the first, second, and third anniversary of the date of grant and each has an exercise price of $9.37 per share, the quoted market price of our common stock on the date of grant.

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires that our directors, executive officers, and 10% or more stockholders file with the SEC and New York Stock Exchange initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership of our common stock. These persons are required to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file with the SEC. Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

In 2004, the Compensation Committee consisted of Michael D. Richards (Chairman), J. Luther King, Jr., and G. Stuart Reeves. No member of the Compensation Committee was an officer or employee of the company or any of our subsidiaries. None of our executive officers served on the board of directors or compensation committee of any other entity.

Report of the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee has the responsibility for final approval for all compensation to our executive officers and directors, including the duty to ensure that compensation paid to executive officers does not exceed reasonable amounts and is based on objective standards. The Compensation Committee approves or disapproves the recommendations of management regarding compensation according to the guidelines set forth below. The specific duties and responsibilities of the Compensation Committee are set forth in the Compensation Committee Charter.

We strive to employ outstanding management in order to obtain outstanding results. To attract and retain high-level individuals, we may pay above-median compensation or provide stock ownership and stock option incentives to our executive officers. From time to time, salaries, bonuses, and other compensation of our executive officers are evaluated by reference to nationwide comparisons for the industries in which we operate.

A substantial portion of each of our executive officer's potential total compensation is in the form of bonuses and options. Annual bonuses vary significantly based on our financial results and revenue growth, the achievement of strategic objectives, extraordinary individual achievement, and each individual's contribution toward our performance. The Compensation Committee met once during 2004.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

John M. Yeaman served as President and Chief Executive Officer from January through July 2004, at which time he was appointed Chairman of the Board. John S. Marr, Jr. was named President and Chief Executive Officer effective

August 1, 2004. In 2004, Mr. Yeaman's cash compensation consisted of a base salary of $325,000 with a bonus equal to 75% of his base salary. Mr. Marr's cash compensation consisted of a base salary of $300,000 and a bonus equal to 83% of his base salary. In determining Mr. Yeaman's and Mr. Marr's cash compensation in 2004, the Compensation Committee considered several factors, including:

management's goal of year-over-year improved revenue growth and profitability;

Table of Contents

management's focus on strengthening our balance sheet by maintaining low levels of outstanding indebtedness coupled with high levels of available cash;

management's strategic mission to increase profitability through sustained internal growth;

management's continued drive to reduce general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues;

management's directive to develop and deploy premier technology;

the return on our stockholders' investment as evidenced by the market price of our common stock and the growth in the enterprise value of the company;

Mr. Yeaman's and Mr. Marr's contributions to the achievement of each of these strategic initiatives; and the levels of compensation of chief executive officers of companies of similar size in similar industries.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee assists the board of directors in fulfilling its responsibilities for general oversight of the integrity of our financial statements, our compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, the independent auditors' qualifications and independence, the performance of our independent auditors, the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and of our internal controls over financial reporting, and risk assessment and risk management. The Audit Committee manages the relationship with our independent auditors (who report directly to the Audit Committee). The Audit Committee has the authority to obtain advice and assistance from outside legal, accounting, or other advisors as the Audit Committee deems necessary to carry out its duties and to receive appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, from the Company for such advice and assistance.

Management has the primary responsibility for our reporting process, including our systems of internal controls, and for preparing our financial statements. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed with management the audited financial statements contained in the Annual Report, including a detailed discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of the significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the overall scope and plans for the audits and the results of their examinations. The Audit Committee reviewed with the independent auditors, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. The Audit Committee also reviewed management's report on internal controls over financial reporting and the independent accounting firm's related opinions. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and the company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee met four times during 2004.

Table of Contents

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the board of directors (and the board approved) that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the SEC.

This report is submitted by the Audit Committee.
