Item 1.01. Amendment of Material Definitive Agreements.

Amendment of Michael Kalogris Employment Agreement

On January 31, 2007, SunCom Wireless Holdings, Inc. (the Company), SunCom Wireless Management Company, Inc. (SunCom Management Company) and Michael E. Kalogris entered into an amendment (the Kalogris Amendment) to Mr. Kalogris Employment Agreement dated February 4, 1998, as amended (the Kalogris Employment Agreement).

The Kalogris Amendment provides that Mr. Kalogris will be eligible to receive increased severance benefits from and after the occurrence of a Triggering Event. Triggering Event is defined in the Kalogris Amendment as the earlier to occur of (1) the closing of an exchange transaction in which certain holders of the 9-3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 and 8-3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 (in each case issued by the Company's subsidiary SunCom Wireless, Inc.) exchange such notes for shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share; and (2) at least two (2) of the following three (3) current members of the board of directors of the Company cease to be members of the board for any reason: Scott Anderson, Mathias DeVito and Arnold Sheiffer.

If a Triggering Event occurs, Mr. Kalogris will be entitled to the following severance benefits if his employment is subsequently terminated (a) by SunCom Management Company without cause, (b) by the SunCom Management Company by notice of non-renewal at the conclusion of his current term of employment (i.e. February 3, 2010), (c) by Mr. Kalogris for Good Reason (as defined in the Kalogris Employment Agreement), or (d) by reason of Mr. Kalogris death or disability:

1. Two times his base salary as of the date of termination;
2. Two times his full target annual bonus for the calendar year during which the termination occurs (calculated as if 100% of his bonus-related goals for such year have been met);
3. Immediate vesting of all unvested shares of Company stock owned by Mr. Kalogris as of the date of such termination; and
4. Continuation of his then existing medical, dental and prescription drug coverage for a period of 24 months following the termination of his employment.

If a Triggering Event does not occur, Mr. Kalogris would remain eligible to receive the severance benefits provided for in the Kalogris Employment Agreement prior to the Kalogris Amendment.

The Kalogris Amendment also provides for the establishment of a Sale Bonus Pool which would be shared by Mr. Kalogris, the Company's Executive Vice President for Operations (William Robinson), and the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (Eric Haskell). Upon the closing of a Sale Transaction (as defined in the Kalogris Amendment) involving the Company following a Triggering Event, the Sale Bonus Pool would be funded in the amount of:

1. One-half of one percent (0.5%) of the Sale Proceeds (as defined in the Kalogris Amendment) payable to the Company, its affiliates and/or its stockholders in such sale transaction in excess of One Billion Seven Hundred Million Dollars ($1,700,000,000) and up to Two Billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000); and
2. One percent (1.0%) of the Sale Proceeds payable to the Company, its affiliates and/or its stockholders in such sale transaction in excess of Two Billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000).

Table of Contents

Mr. Kalogris is entitled to receive 50% of the Sale Bonus Pool.

Amendment of William Robinson Employment Agreement

On January 31, 2007, the Company, SunCom Management Company and William Robinson entered into an amendment (the Robinson Amendment) to Mr. Robinson's Employment Agreement dated March 7, 2005, as amended (the Robinson Employment Agreement).

The Robinson Amendment provides that Mr. Robinson will be eligible to receive increased severance benefits from and after the occurrence of a Triggering Event. Triggering Event is defined in the Robinson Amendment as the earlier to occur of (1) the closing of an exchange transaction in which certain holders of the 9-3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 and 8-3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 (in each case issued by the Company's subsidiary SunCom Wireless, Inc.) exchange such notes for shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share; and (2) at least two (2) of the following three (3) current members of the board of directors of the Company cease to be members of the board for any reason: Scott Anderson, Mathias DeVito and Arnold Sheiffer.

If a Triggering Event occurs, Mr. Robinson will be entitled to the following severance benefits if his employment is subsequently terminated (a) by the SunCom Management Company without cause, (b) by the SunCom Management Company or Mr. Robinson by notice of non-renewal at the conclusion of his current term of employment (i.e. February 3, 2009), (c) by Mr. Robinson by notice of voluntary termination at the conclusion of his current term of employment (i.e. February 3, 2009), (d) by Mr. Robinson for Good Reason (as defined in the Robinson Employment Agreement), or (e) by reason of Mr. Robinson's death or disability:

1. Two times his base salary as of the date of termination;
2. Two times his full target annual bonus for the calendar year during which the termination occurs (calculated as if 100% of his bonus-related goals for such year have been met);
3. Immediate vesting of all unvested shares of Company stock owned by Mr. Robinson as of the date of such termination; and
4. Continuation of his then existing medical, dental and prescription drug coverage for a period of 24 months following the termination of his employment.

If a Triggering Event does not occur, Mr. Robinson would remain eligible to receive the severance benefits provided for in the Robinson Employment Agreement prior to the Robinson Amendment.

The Robinson Amendment also provides for the establishment of a Sale Bonus Pool which would be shared by Mr. Robinson, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (Michael Kalogris), and the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer (Eric Haskell). Upon the closing of a Sale Transaction (as defined in the Robinson Amendment) involving the Company following a Triggering Event, the Sale Bonus Pool would be funded in the amount of:

1. One-half of one percent (0.5%) of the Sale Proceeds (as defined in the Robinson Amendment) payable to the Company, its affiliates and/or its stockholders in such Sale Transaction in excess of One Billion Seven Hundred Million Dollars ($1,700,000,000) and up to Two Billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000); and
2. One percent (1.0%) of the Sale Proceeds payable to the Company, its affiliates and/or its stockholders in such Sale Transaction in excess of Two Billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000).

Table of Contents

Mr. Robinson is entitled to receive 25% of the Sale Bonus Pool.

The Robinson Amendment also makes the following modifications to the Robinson Employment Agreement:

1. The definition of "Cause" has been modified to substantially conform it to the definition of "Cause" in the Kalogris Employment Agreement; and
2. Mr. Robinson's non-competition covenant has been modified to provide that he will not be in breach of such covenant if following any termination of his employment he accepts employment with (or agrees to provide consulting services as an independent contractor to) any entity engaged in the business of selling personal communications services or personal communications handsets and accessories so long as: (A) Mr. Robinson's duties and responsibilities for the new employer are not primarily operational in nature and the new employer either (I) provides services throughout the United States or (II) does not provide services in the Southeastern region of the United States; or (B) Mr. Robinson's duties and responsibilities for the new employer are primarily operational in nature and either (I) the new employer does not provide services in the Southeastern region of the United States or (B) Mr. Robinson's duties for the new employer do not involve the Southeastern region of the United States.

Amendment of Eric Haskell Employment Agreement

On January 31, 2007, the Company, SunCom Management Company and Eric Haskell entered into an amendment (the "Haskell Amendment") to Mr. Haskell's Employment Agreement dated May 26, 2006, as amended (the "Haskell Employment Agreement").

The Haskell Amendment provides that Mr. Haskell will be eligible to receive increased severance benefits from and after the occurrence of a Triggering Event. "Triggering Event" is defined in the Haskell Amendment as the earlier to occur of (1) the closing of an exchange transaction in which certain holders of the 9-3/8% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 and 8-3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2011 (in each case issued by the Company's subsidiary SunCom Wireless, Inc.) exchange such notes for shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share; and (2) at least two (2) of the following three (3) current members of the board of directors of the Company cease to be members of the board for any reason: Scott Anderson, Mathias DeVito and Arnold Sheiffer.

If a Triggering Event occurs, Mr. Haskell will be entitled to the following severance benefits if his employment is subsequently terminated (a) by SunCom Management Company without cause, (b) by SunCom Management Company by notice of non-renewal during the then current 60-day renewal term, (c) by Mr. Haskell for "Good Reason" (as defined in the Haskell Employment Agreement), or (d) by reason of Mr. Haskell's death or disability:

1. His base salary as of the date of termination;
2. His full target annual bonus for the calendar year during which the termination occurs (calculated as if 100% of his bonus-related goals for such year have been met);
3. Immediate vesting of all unvested shares of Company stock owned by Mr. Haskell as of the date of such termination; and
4. Continuation of his then existing medical, dental and prescription drug coverage for a period of 24 months following the termination of his employment.

Table of Contents

In addition, the Haskell Amendment provides that the Haskell Employment Agreement will terminate automatically and that Mr. Haskell will be entitled to the increased severance benefits described above upon the occurrence of the following events:

1. If a debt-for-equity exchange transaction has not been consummated, upon the earlier to occur of (a) the Company's hiring of Mr. Haskell's successor and (B) the close of business on June 29, 2007;
2. If a debt-for-equity exchange transaction has been consummated and the process leading to a sale transaction involving the Company is initiated but not proceeding successfully (in the reasonable judgment of Mr. Haskell) or such process is terminated, upon the close of business on September 28, 2007; or
3. If a debt-for-equity exchange transaction has been consummated and the process leading to a sale transaction involving the Company is proceeding successfully (in the reasonable judgment of Mr. Haskell), upon the earlier to occur of (a) the closing of such sale transaction and (b) the close of business on December 31, 2007.

The Haskell Amendment also provides for the establishment of a Sale Bonus Pool which would be shared by Mr. Haskell, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (Michael Kalogris), and the Company's Executive Vice President for Operations (William Robinson). Upon the closing of a Sale Transaction (as defined in the Haskell Amendment) involving the Company following a Triggering Event, the Sale Bonus Pool would be funded in the amount of:

1. One-half of one percent (0.5%) of the Sale Proceeds (as defined in the Haskell Amendment) payable to the Company, its affiliates and/or its stockholders in such Sale Transaction in excess of One Billion Seven Hundred Million Dollars ($1,700,000,000) and up to Two Billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000); and
2. One percent (1.0%) of the Sale Proceeds payable to the Company, its affiliates and/or its stockholders in such Sale Transaction in excess of Two Billion Dollars ($2,000,000,000).

Mr. Haskell is entitled to receive 25% of the Sale Bonus Pool.

The Haskell Amendment also modifies the definition of "Cause" in the Haskell Employment Agreement to substantially conform it to the definition of "Cause" in the Kalogris Employment Agreement.

The foregoing descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Kalogris Amendment, the Robinson Amendment and the Haskell Amendment attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2, and 10.3 respectively.

Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Michael Kalogris, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, William Robinson, the Company's Executive Vice President of Operations, and Eric Haskell, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, have entered into the Kalogris Amendment, the Robinson Amendment and the Haskell Amendment, respectively. A full description of transactions contemplated by the Kalogris Amendment, the Robinson Amendment and the Haskell Amendment is set forth in Item 1.01 above.
