ITEM 5.03. AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OR BYLAWS; CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR

On October 18, 2007, the Company's Board of Directors amended the Company's Bylaws to add new majority voting procedures for all uncontested elections of the Company's directors. Amended Article III provides that in an uncontested election of the Company's Directors, any nominee who does not receive a majority of the shares cast may remain in office only until the director's resignation is accepted by the Board of Directors or the date a person is selected by the Board of Directors to fill the office held by such Director, or the maximum hold-over term of office under the statute. In an uncontested election, a vote of the majority of shares cast means that the number of shares voted for a director exceeds the number of votes against that Director. Amended Article III also clarifies the background information to be provided by a shareholder who intends to nominate one or more persons for election as a Director and to be provided about the nominee, as well as eligibility requirements for any nominee for election as Director of the Company. In addition, amended Article XIII provides that the section of the Bylaws relating to majority election of Directors may be amended only by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented and entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders or by an amendment to the Company's Articles of Incorporation establishing majority requirements for the election of directors.

ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

On October 18, 2007, in connection with the Bylaw amendment adding new majority voting procedures for all uncontested elections of the Company's directors as described in Item 5.03 above, the Board of Directors amended the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines to provide that each incumbent director who is standing for reelection must submit an irrevocable letter of resignation that would be effective if the director does not receive a majority of the votes cast in an uncontested election. The amended Corporate Governance Guidelines can be found at <http://www.weyerhaeuser.com> under the Investors tab at the top of the page and then under the Governance link.
