AMERICAN TECHNICAL CERAMICS CORP.
PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of American Technical Ceramics Corp., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders and any adjournment or postponement thereof (the “Annual Meeting”). The Annual Meeting will be held at 1:00 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Tuesday, November 14, 2006, at the Company’s facility at 2201 Corporate Square Boulevard, Jacksonville, Florida 32216. The principal executive offices of the Company are located at One Norden Lane, Huntington Station, New York 11746. It is expected that this Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy card will first be mailed or delivered to stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting on or about October 18, 2006.

VOTING SECURITIES AND VOTING RIGHTS

Only holders of record of the Company’s Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the “Common Stock”), at the close of business on September 29, 2006, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. As of September 29, 2006, there were 8,709,973 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. A majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote on all matters, which vote may be given in person or by proxy duly authorized in writing. There are no cumulative voting rights.

All proxies received pursuant to this solicitation will be voted, and, where a choice is specified as to the proposals described in the foregoing Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders, they will be voted in accordance with that specification. If no specific instructions are given with respect to the matters to be acted upon, the shares of Common Stock represented by a signed proxy will be voted FOR all of the Board’s nominees for director, FOR the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007, and in accordance with the proxy holders’ best judgment as to any other matters as may properly come before the Annual Meeting. Stockholders who have executed proxies may revoke them at any time before they are voted by submitting a later dated proxy or by written notice delivered to the Secretary of the Company. Personal attendance at the Annual Meeting without submitting a later dated proxy or a written notice of revocation to the Secretary shall not serve to revoke any proxy.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Common Stock present at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote is necessary for the election of directors and the ratification of KPMG LLP as the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company’s consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007. Accordingly, an abstention is treated as a share present or represented and entitled to vote and is the equivalent of a vote against the election of any nominee for election to the Board of Directors of the Company or the proposal to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP. If a stockholder holds his, her or its shares of Common Stock through a broker, bank or representative, generally the broker or representative may only vote the Common Stock that it holds in accordance with the stockholder’s instructions. However, if it has not timely received such instructions, the broker, bank or representative may vote on certain matters for which it has discretionary voting authority. If the broker, bank or representative cannot vote on a particular matter because it does not have discretionary voting authority, this is a “broker non-vote” on that matter. For purposes of voting, broker non-votes will not be considered present at the Annual Meeting and, therefore, will not be considered in determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the vote for the election of directors or the ratification of KPMG LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

As of September 29, 2006, Victor Insetta, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Company, owned 4,405,280 shares of Common Stock, representing approximately 50.6% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock. His shareholdings are sufficient to assure election of the nominees for election as directors as set forth herein, to ratify the appointment of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007 and to take action on any other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting.

The Company will bear the entire cost of the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors, which, the Company estimates, will be approximately $15,000. Proxies will be solicited by mail, and may be solicited personally by telephone or facsimile or electronic transmission, by directors, officers and regular employees of the Company, without additional remuneration.

There are no family relationships between or among any directors or executive officers of the Company. See footnotes (2) and (3) to the table under the caption “Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management” for information concerning agreements among certain stockholders as to the election of directors. See also “Certain Relationships and Related Transactions” for information concerning the lease of certain real property owned by entities in which Mr. Insetta has an interest.

Board Meetings; Committees of the Board of Directors

Meeting Attendance. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Board of Directors held six meetings. All of the meetings were attended by all of the directors, with the exception of Mr. Spence who was unable to attend four meetings due to illness.

The Company encourages its directors to attend each annual meeting of stockholders. Five of the Company’s six directors attended the Company’s annual meeting of stockholders held on November 15, 2005.

Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has a separately-designated standing Audit Committee established in accordance with section 3(a)(58)(A) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). The Audit Committee, which held nine formal meetings and communicated informally several times during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, currently consists of Messrs. Garrard, Spence, Volpe and Bacharach. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent as defined in Section 121(A) of the American Stock Exchange’s listing standards. The authority of the Audit Committee is set forth in more detail in its Charter, which was adopted by the Board of Directors in August 2005. The Audit Committee’s primary function is to assist the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the financial information which will be provided to stockholders and others, the systems of internal controls which management and the Board of Directors have established, and the audit process. In addition, the Audit Committee provides an open avenue of communication between the independent registered public accountants, financial management and the Board of Directors. Messrs. Garrard and Bacharach attended all of the meetings held by the Audit Committee during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. Mr. Spence was unable to attend three meetings due to illness. Mr. Volpe was unable to attend one meeting held during the fiscal year. Please see the Report of the Audit Committee set forth elsewhere in this Proxy Statement.

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Garrard and Volpe are “audit committee financial experts” as defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K under the Exchange Act and are also “independent” as that term is used in Item 7(d)(3)(iv) of Schedule 14A under the Exchange Act.

Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee, which currently consists of Messrs. Garrard, Spence, Volpe and Bacharach, is authorized, subject to the Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Company and the Delaware General Corporation Law, to exercise all power and authority of the Board of Directors with respect to the compensation of employees of the Company. The authority of the Compensation Committee is set forth in more detail in a written Charter adopted by the Company's Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee held two formal meetings during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006. All of the meetings were attended by all of the directors, with exception of Mr. Spence, who was unable to attend one meeting due to illness.

Nominating Committee. Because more than 50% of the voting power of the Company is owned by Victor Inetta, the Company qualifies as, and has elected to be treated as, a “controlled company” under the rules of the American Stock Exchange. A controlled company is exempt from several of the American Stock Exchange listing requirements, including, among others, the requirements that (i) the Board of Directors be comprised of a majority of independent directors, (ii) the compensation of executive officers be determined, or recommended to the Board of Directors for determination, by a compensation committee comprised entirely of independent directors or by a majority of the independent directors on the Board of Directors, and (iii) nominees for membership on the Board of Directors be selected, or recommended for selection to the Board of Directors, by a nominating committee comprised entirely of independent directors or by a majority of the independent directors on the Board of Directors. Notwithstanding this exemption, a majority of the members of the Company's Board of Directors satisfy the American Stock Exchange's standards for independence. Moreover, the Board has established a Compensation Committee which is comprised entirely of independent directors.

The Board does not have a separate Nominating Committee. The Board is currently comprised of a majority of independent directors. Two of the members of the Board qualify as financial experts, two are industry experts and two (including one of the industry experts) are former employees of the Company and, accordingly, are familiar with its operations. The Board believes that, in light of the size of the Company and the qualifications and complementary strengths of the members of the Board, the current size of the Board is appropriate. If the Board determines that it is in the Company's best interest to expand the Board, the entire Board would oversee the identification and consideration of candidates for membership.

Communications with the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors recommends that stockholders initiate any communications with the Board in writing and send them in care of the Secretary of the Company. Stockholders can send communications by e-mail to kkelly@atceramics.com, by fax to (631) 622-4610 or by mail to Kathleen M. Kelly, Secretary, American Technical Ceramics Corp., One Norden Lane, Huntington Station, New York 11746. This centralized process will assist the Board of Directors in reviewing and responding to stockholder communications in an appropriate manner. The name of any specific intended Board recipient should be noted in the communication. The Board has instructed the Secretary to forward such correspondence only to the intended recipients; however, the Board has also instructed the Secretary, prior to forwarding any correspondence, to review such correspondence and, in her discretion, not to forward certain items if they are deemed of a commercial or frivolous nature or otherwise inappropriate for the Board's consideration. In such cases, some of that correspondence may be forwarded elsewhere in the Company for review and possible response.

Compensation of Directors

Each non-employee director of the Company receives an annual retainer of $15,000 plus a fee of $1,000, travel expenses and a fee of $500 for their out of state travel time for each meeting, excluding certain teleconference meetings, of the Board of Directors and, if a member of a Committee, each Committee meeting not held on the same day that a meeting of the Board of Directors or another Committee of the Board is held, that he attends. In addition, if a teleconference meeting extends beyond one hour, then the fee for that meeting will be $500. The Chair of the Audit Committee receives an additional $2,500 annual retainer. Provided he is serving as a director of the Company on June 30th of the applicable year, each non-employee director is granted options under the Company's stock option plans to purchase 5,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price equal to the closing sale price of the Company's Common Stock on the American Stock Exchange on such June 30th. The term of each option is ten years from the date of grant. The options vest in four equal installments over the first four years of their term.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's officers, directors and persons who own beneficially more than ten percent of the Company's Common Stock to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") initial reports of beneficial ownership and reports of changes in their beneficial ownership of Common Stock. Officers, directors and persons owning more than ten percent of the Common Stock are required to furnish the Company with copies of all such reports. Based solely on a review of copies of such reports furnished to the Company, the Company believes that, during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, there were no deviations from the Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and persons owning beneficially more than ten percent of the Common Stock.

Employment Agreements

Victor Insetta

The Company is party to an employment agreement with Victor Insetta, the Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer. Pursuant to its terms, the agreement is automatically renewed for successive one-year periods beginning on March 1st of each year unless either party gives written notice of his or its election to terminate the agreement at least 120 days prior to such date.

Pursuant to the agreement, Mr. Insetta was paid base compensation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006 of $406,058. The agreement provides for further increases in Mr. Insetta’s base salary by the Board of Directors from time to time in its sole discretion. (Mr. Insetta’s base salary was increased by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, effective June 1, 2006, from $390,000 per annum to $425,000 per annum.) The agreement also provides that, as additional annual compensation, Mr. Insetta is entitled to an amount equal to 2.5% of the Company’s net income (before such incentive compensation and before income taxes). The Company, at its option, may pay the additional annual compensation in stock, cash or a combination thereof, subject to certain limitations. For each of the fiscal years ended June 30, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the Company elected to pay all of Mr. Insetta's additional compensation in cash. See "Executive Compensation — Summary Compensation Table."

The agreement further provides, among other things, that if there is a change of control of the Company or if Mr. Insetta's employment is terminated prior to the scheduled expiration date other than for cause (as defined in the agreement), death, disability or voluntary termination apart from a change of control, the Company is required to pay to Mr. Insetta, in a lump sum, an amount equal to the greater of (i) all of the compensation due to Mr. Insetta under the agreement through the end of the then existing term of the agreement, or (ii) three times Mr. Insetta's average annual compensation under the agreement during the five most recent fiscal years prior to the fiscal year in which the termination took place as calculated in accordance with the Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). In addition, if Mr. Insetta voluntarily terminates his employment with the Company, for a period equal to the lesser of the remaining term of the agreement or one year, Mr. Insetta has agreed that he will not, directly or indirectly, solicit those persons or entities who are customers of the Company on the effective date of his termination of employment for the purpose of purchasing multi-layer capacitors; provided, however, that the foregoing restriction shall not apply if Mr. Insetta terminates his employment because of a change of control of the Company. In addition, Mr. Insetta has agreed that, for a period of one year following the termination of his employment (other than termination by the Company without cause), he will not divulge to any person any information which is actually held in confidence by the Company, subject, however, to certain conditions, including the Company having performed, and continuing to perform, its obligations under the agreement.

The Company presently maintains a term life insurance policy in the aggregate amount of $4,000,000 on the life of Mr. Insetta. The Company is named as the beneficiary of this policy.

Richard Monsorno

In October 2003, the Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with Richard Monsorno, the Company's Senior Vice President — Technology. The agreement provides for base compensation of $208,428, subject to increase in the discretion of the Board Directors. In addition, Mr. Monsorno is entitled to participate in the Company's Officers' Bonus Plan. See "Executive Compensation — Bonus Programs." In September 2006, the Company and Mr. Monsorno entered into a letter agreement extending the term of Mr. Monsorno's employment agreement until September 30, 2007.

The agreement may be terminated by the Company at any time. If the agreement is terminated by the Company for reasons other than cause, or if Mr. Monsorno terminates his employment (provided he continues to abide by certain obligations contained in the agreement), Mr. Monsorno would be entitled to receive his base salary for 15 months from the date of termination, the Company would continue to provide medical coverage for Mr. Monsorno and his family for a period of 18 months and Mr. Monsorno would be entitled to exercise all vested stock options for a period of one year following termination.

Judah Wolf

In March 2002, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Judah Wolf, the Company's Senior Vice President — Thin Film Products, effective January 1, 2002. The agreement expired December 31, 2005. The Company and Mr. Wolf have entered into a letter agreement pursuant to which they have mutually agreed to continue Mr. Wolf's employment on the terms set forth in the agreement until a new long-term agreement is negotiated.

The agreement provides for annual base compensation which increases by 8% in each successive year of the agreement. Mr. Wolf's current base salary is $157,464 per annum. In addition, Mr. Wolf receives a quarterly incentive bonus equal to 3% of the Thin Film Profit Contribution (as defined in the agreement). Mr. Wolf is also entitled to participate in the Company's Officers' Bonus Plan. Any amount to which he would be entitled under such plan shall be reduced by an amount equal to one half of one percent of the Thin Film Profit Contribution. See "Executive Compensation — Bonus Programs."

The agreement may be terminated by the Company at any time. If the agreement is terminated for reasons other than disability or cause, provided he continues to abide by certain obligations contained in the agreement, Mr. Wolf is entitled to receive his base salary for the remainder of term of the agreement and to exercise all vested stock options for a period of one year following termination.

David Ott

In January 2004, the Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with David Ott, the Company's Senior Vice President — New York Operations. The agreement provides for base compensation of $165,500, subject to increase in the discretion of the Board of Directors. In April 2004, the annual compensation was increased to $200,000 in connection with a promotion. In addition, Mr. Ott is entitled to participate in the Company's Officers' Bonus Plan. See "Executive Compensation — Bonus Programs."

The agreement may be terminated by the Company at any time. If the agreement is terminated for reasons other than disability or cause, provided he continues to abide by certain obligations contained in the agreement, Mr. Ott is entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year from the date of termination.

William Johnson

In June 2005, the Company entered into an employment arrangement with William Johnson, the Company's Vice President-Sales. The arrangement provides for annual base compensation of $175,000 plus incentive compensation equal to (i) .25% of the amount by which sales of the Company's passive components in each fiscal quarter exceed sales of such components in the comparable fiscal quarter in the immediately preceding year, and (ii) .25% of the Company's (overall) pre-tax profits in each fiscal quarter (the latter portion being pursuant to the Company's Officers' Bonus Plan). The incentive compensation is paid on a quarterly basis; however, in the event of a decline in sales of passive components in a quarter compared to the comparable quarter in the immediately preceding fiscal year, or a net loss in any quarter within a particular fiscal year, as the case may be, the amount of such decline or net loss, as applicable, will be applied to reduce the amount of the incentive compensation, if any, to which Mr. Johnson may be entitled in respect of subsequent quarters in that fiscal year.

In connection with his employment by the Company, Mr. Johnson was granted an option to purchase 40,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price equal to $13.22 per share, the prevailing market price on the date of grant. The option will vest at the rate of 25% per year from the date of grant.

Mr. Johnson was paid $30,000 in respect of his relocation to Jacksonville, Florida. In addition, the Company reimbursed Mr. Johnson for the cost of lodging for the first six months of employment at $1,600 per month.

Severance Agreements

In November 2003, the Company entered into three separate severance agreements with three executive officers. If the officer is terminated by the Company during the term of the agreement other than for cause (as defined in the agreement), (i) the officer will be entitled to receive his or her base salary for a period of months equal to the number of years the employee has been an executive officer plus three months up to a maximum of 15 months, (ii) the Company shall continue to provide family medical coverage for the severance period, and (iii) all exercisable options may be exercised during the lesser of the severance period and the expiration of the options.

Consulting Agreement

Stuart Litt

In October 2000, upon his retirement as Senior Vice President — Operations of the Company, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with Stuart P. Litt. This agreement was subsequently assigned to Northport Systems, Inc., a consulting firm of which Mr. Litt is the sole stockholder and principal (“Northport”). Mr. Litt remains on the Board of Directors of the Company. The agreement has been extended several times and is currently scheduled to expire on December 31, 2006.

Under the agreement, Mr. Litt provides advisory and consulting services to the Company for a maximum of fifteen full days in each calendar quarter. The Company pays Northport the sum of $2,000 for each full day Mr. Litt provides services to the Company. The Company is also required to reimburse Northport for reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by Mr. Litt in providing his consulting services. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Company paid Northport $60,146 under this agreement.

Bonus Programs

The Company has a bonus program for eligible executive officers pursuant to which each such officer is eligible to receive quarterly cash bonuses equal to a percentage of the Company's net income (before such bonuses and before income tax) as determined by the Board. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the percentages ranged from one half of one percent to three quarters of one percent. In the event of a net loss in any quarter, the amount of such net loss is applied to reduce the bonus payable in future quarters in that fiscal year. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Company paid bonuses aggregating $223,900 under this program, including bonus awards of $56,185 and $41,929 to Messrs. Monsorno and Ott, respectively. See “Executive Compensation — Summary Compensation Table.”

Mr. Wolf participates in a modified version of this bonus program as stated in his employment agreement. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Company paid Mr. Wolf bonuses aggregating $107,379. See “Employment Agreements — Judah Wolf” and “Executive Compensation — Summary Compensation Table.”

Mr. Johnson participated in a modified version of this bonus program as stated in his employment arrangement. In addition, Mr. Johnson receives a bonus based upon the sales growth of the Company's component products. In the fiscal year ended June 30, 2006, the Company paid Mr. Johnson bonuses aggregating $58,211. See “Employment Agreements — William Johnson” and “Executive Compensation — Summary Compensation Table.”

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Board of Directors has a Compensation Committee, the members of which are Dov Bacharach, O. Julian Garrard III, Chester E. Spence and Thomas J. Volpe. None of the members of the Compensation Committee is an officer of the Company. No officer who serves as a director of the Company participated in matters involving the evaluation of his own performance or the setting of his own compensation. See “Executive Compensation — Report on Executive Compensation.” No officer who serves as a director of the Company served on the board of directors of any other company.

Report on Executive Compensation

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any of the Company’s previous or future filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or the Exchange Act that might incorporate this Proxy Statement by reference into future filings with the SEC, in whole or in part, the following report shall not be incorporated by reference into any such filing.

The Company seeks to establish compensation plans and policies which are designed to (i) attract and retain highly qualified employees at all levels, (ii) provide rewards that are closely linked to the Company’s performance, and (iii) align the interests of the Company’s employees with those of its stockholders through stock ownership. The Company monitors the compensation paid to various levels of employees on both a geographic and industry basis. Moreover, the Company has established bonus compensation programs for virtually all levels of employees pursuant to which they are rewarded based upon the overall profitability of the Company. Finally, the Company has over the past several years awarded stock bonuses and stock options to several executive officers and supervisory employees in order to reward them for their efforts on behalf of the Company and to provide them with a direct stake in the Company’s future. In April 1997, the Board adopted the 1997 Stock Option Plan in order to expand the universe of individuals who are important to the Company’s success who may be eligible for stock-based compensation. Having granted options for all of the shares authorized for issuance under such plan, in April 2000, the Board adopted the 2000 Incentive Stock Plan in order to enable the Company to continue to utilize stock awards and options as a means of attracting and retaining employees important to the Company’s success.

The base salary of Victor Insetta, the Company’s President and Chief Executive Officer, for fiscal year 2006 was based principally upon his rights under his employment agreement. The agreement, which was entered into in 1985 and has been amended several times, provided for a minimum base salary at the rate of $390,000 from July 1, 2005 until May 30, 2006, when Mr. Insetta’s minimum base salary was increased to $425,000 per annum. The Compensation Committee believed that this increase was warranted based upon its review of the total compensation paid to the chief executive officers of similarly-sized companies with shares trading on the American Stock Exchange and certain of the companies in the Company’s peer group, and in light of Mr. Insetta’s important contributions to the Company over the past several years (including managing the Company well in a challenging business environment and furthering the Company's progress toward its long-term objectives).

Mr. Insetta's employment agreement also entitles him to annual incentive compensation of two and a half percent of the Company's net income (before such incentive compensation and before income taxes). The Compensation Committee believes that it is appropriate for the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company to be based, in substantial part, on the Company's overall performance. Mr. Insetta's employment agreement allows the Company to pay Mr. Insetta's annual incentive compensation in cash, Common Stock or a combination thereof. The determination of the manner of payment is made each year by the Board of Directors, in its sole discretion, subject to certain limitations.

For the fiscal years ended 2004, 2005 and 2006, 100% of Mr. Insetta's annual incentive compensation was paid in cash. The Board believed this was appropriate in light of the Company's cash position and the current level of Mr. Insetta's stock ownership in the Company.

The Company, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, American Technical Ceramics (Florida), Inc. The lease currently provides for base rent of approximately $780,000 per annum (approximately $65,000 per month). The fixed rental is adjusted upward (but not downward) annually based upon the increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index for all Urban Consumers for the last reported month available on August 1st of each year during the lease compared to such index for the same month in the previous calendar year. In no event may the monthly payments in respect of fixed rent under the lease be less than the monthly payments of principal and interest due and payable by VPI in connection with the financing for the Jacksonville Facility. ATC-Florida is also obligated to pay all expenses arising in connection with the Jacksonville Facility, including all real estate taxes, assessments, insurance, utilities and repairs. The lease also provides for increases to the base rent in connection with any new construction at the Jacksonville Facility. Under the lease, upon any new construction being placed into use, the base rental is subject to increase to the fair market rental of the Jacksonville Facility, including the new construction.

The Company, through ATC-Florida, has the right at the end of the lease term to purchase the Jacksonville Facility at its fair market value and has a right of first offer to purchase the Jacksonville Facility if VPI elects to sell it in the interim.

PROPOSAL 2

RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

KPMG LLP, the independent registered public accounting firm who has audited the Company's financial statements for the past 15 years, has been appointed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007. The Audit Committee believes that the selection of an independent registered public accounting firm to audit the financial statements of the Company prepared by management is an appropriate matter for stockholder consideration. If the stockholders do not ratify the selection of KPMG LLP, the Audit Committee will consider the selection of another independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007. Representatives of KPMG LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and, if present, will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Principal Accountant Fees and Services

The following table sets forth fees billed by KPMG LLP for the last two fiscal years ended June 30:

	2005	2006
Audit Fees	$ 279,885	$ 352,107

All of the services set forth in the categories above were approved in advance by the Audit Committee.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit and Permissible Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditors

Consistent with SEC policies regarding auditor independence, the Audit Committee has responsibility for appointing, setting compensation and overseeing the work of the independent auditor. In recognition of this responsibility, the Audit Committee has established a policy to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services provided by the independent auditor.

Prior to engagement of the independent auditor for the next year's audit, management will submit an aggregate of services expected to be rendered during that year for each of the following four categories of services to the Audit Committee for approval:

1. Audit services include audit work performed in the preparation of financial statements, as well as work that generally only the independent auditor can reasonably be expected to provide, including comfort letters, statutory audits and attest services and consultation regarding financial accounting and/or reporting standards.
2. Audit-Related services are for assurance and related services that are traditionally performed by the independent auditor, including due diligence related to mergers and acquisitions, employee benefit plan audits and special procedures required to meet certain regulatory requirements.

3. Tax services include all services performed by the independent auditor's tax personnel except those services specifically related to the audit of the financial statements, and includes fees in the areas of tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice.

4. Other Fees are those associated with services not captured in the other categories.

Prior to engagement, the Audit Committee pre-approves these services by category of service. The fees are budgeted and the Audit Committee requires the independent registered public accounting firm and management to report actual fees compared to the budget periodically throughout the year by category of service. During the year, circumstances may arise when it may become necessary to engage the independent registered public accounting firm for additional services not contemplated in the original pre-approved services. In those instances, the Audit Committee requires specific pre-approval before engaging the independent registered public accounting firm.

The Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated must report, for informational purposes only, any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

The Board of Directors of the Company recommends a vote FOR the ratification of KPMG LLP as the independent registered public accounting firm to audit the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007, which is designated as Proposal 2 on the enclosed proxy card.
