Set forth below is a copy of a list of frequently asked questions for participants in certain equity plans of Laidlaw International, Inc. on February 9, 2007.

To: participants in Deferred stock, Stock options or VAR plans

Additional FAQs regarding equity plans

1. Are my equity holdings (stock, stock options or VARs) affected by the announcement today?

No. Until the deal closes, there is no impact on equity holdings.

2. Between now and closing, will my shares continue to vest?

Yes. Options and deferred shares will vest according to the vesting schedules associated with each grant.

3. Is there anything I need to do right now?

No. Closing is expected to take several months, as shareholder and regulatory approvals are required.

4. Is the Company able to make any new equity grants?

No. Not as long as there is a deal pending.

5. What happens after the closing date?

Closing of this transaction will constitute a Change of Control. Under the terms of all equity plans and value appreciation rights, all unvested stock, stock options or VARs will immediately vest.

6. If the deal closes, will the value of my deferred stock or stock options be based on the offer price of $35.25?

At closing, your shares will be valued based upon the same price other shareholders receive.

7. How will VARs which vest at closing be valued?

According to the VAR plan, the value of unvested VARs will be calculated based on the value of each business unit as calculated in accordance with the VAR Plan and the relevant award document, over the twelve months prior to closing, compared to the business unit value at grant date. The EBITDA multiple in the calculation will be the multiple at closing. The increase in the value will be used to determine the unit value of each VAR.

8. What are the tax implications to me?

Upon closing, all unvested deferred shares, stock options and VARs will vest and the cash received will be immediately taxable to the executive.

9. Can I continue to exercise vested stock options?
