NUVEEN INVESTMENTS' MULTI-STRATEGY CLOSED-END FUNDS
MAIL PROXY STATEMENT REGARDING ENHANCED INVESTMENT CAPABILITIES

CHICAGO, March 7, 2007 -- Nuveen Investments, a leading provider of diversified investment services, today announced that the Nuveen Preferred and Convertible Income Fund (NYSE: JPC) and Nuveen Preferred and Convertible Income Fund 2 (NYSE: JQC) began mailing proxy statements for an annual meeting of shareholders scheduled for April 11, 2007. Shareholders of each fund are being asked to vote on the election of Board members as well as two additional proposals that are the result of changes to each fund's investment policies announced last fall. The proposed enhancements were authorized by the funds' Board of Trustees and are designed to provide each fund with greater flexibility to pursue its investment objectives of high current income and total return.

At the meeting, shareholders of each fund will be asked to approve an amended sub-advisory fee schedule with one of the funds' current sub-advisers, Symphony Asset Management LLC, as well as the addition of Tradewinds NWQ Global Investors, LLC as a sub-adviser to manage a portion of each fund's direct equity investments. Neither proposal, if approved, will increase the overall management fees paid by the funds.

The proposals regarding the funds' sub-advisory relationships are being proposed in connection with following previously announced changes to the funds' investment policies:

- Eliminating the requirement to invest a minimum of each fund's managed assets in preferred and/or convertible securities
- Expanding the funds' direct equity investment types to include both domestic and international equities
- Increasing the percentage of the funds' managed assets that may be invested directly in equity securities

Reflecting these enhancements, the funds will also change their names to the Nuveen Multi-Strategy Income and Growth Fund (NYSE: JPC) and Nuveen Multi-Strategy Income and Growth Fund 2 (NYSE: JQC). The implementation of these changes is anticipated in early May, 2007.

The funds will continue to allocate their assets to maintain each portfolio's current strategic asset mix of approximately 70% in income-oriented securities and 30% in equity-oriented securities. However, the funds' exposure to convertible securities is expected to shift from a static to a more variable level and decline over time. Eventually, the funds' investments in convertible securities will comprise a portion of either the funds' multi-strategy income sleeve managed by Symphony or the equity-oriented assets managed by Tradewinds, if approved as a fund sub-adviser. In connection with these changes, the Board of each fund has determined that Froy, Revy Investment Co., Inc., the funds' current sub-adviser investing fund assets allocated to it in convertible securities, will no longer serve as a sub-adviser to the Fund effective as early as May 1, 2007, but not later than June 30, 2007.

In response to market changes over time, Nuveen Asset Management, together with the funds' sub-advisers, will determine how best to allocate each fund's assets among the fund's sub-advisers, consistent with the fund's objectives and strategic asset allocation target. More information on these and other Nuveen closed-end funds is posted on Nuveen's web site at www.nuveen.com/cef.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING

The funds have made a filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission of a definitive proxy statement and accompanying proxy card to be used to solicit votes in connection with the proposals to be presented at the annual meeting.
