Item 3.03 Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders.

On December 5, 2008, the Board of Directors of USG Corporation (the Company) amended the Rights Agreement, dated as of December 21, 2006 (the Rights Agreement), by and between the Company and Computershare Investor Services, LLC, as rights agent. Among other things, the amendment reduces, until September 30, 2009, the threshold at which a person or group becomes an Acquiring Person under the Rights Agreement from 15% to 4.99% of the Company's then-outstanding common shares. After that date, the triggering threshold would again be 15% of the Company's then-outstanding common shares. The Rights Agreement, as amended, exempts shareholders whose beneficial ownership as of 4:00 p.m., New York City time, on December 4, 2008 exceeded 4.99% of the Company's then-outstanding common shares so long as they do not acquire additional common shares, except as otherwise provided by existing agreements. Common shares that otherwise would be deemed to be beneficially owned under the Rights Agreement by reason of ownership of convertible debt of the Company (including ownership of the common shares into which such debt is convertible) is exempted during the period in which the trigger is reduced to 4.99%.

The amendment to the Rights Agreement is intended to maximize the value of the Company's net operating loss carryforwards (NOLs) and related tax benefits. The Company's ability to use its NOLs could be substantially reduced if the Company experiences an ownership change, as defined under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code). The calculation of an ownership change under the Code is based on ownership changes in the Company's common shares by shareholders that own, or are deemed to own, 5% or more of the Company's common shares, and changes are tested over a rolling three-year period. The Company experienced a significant change in the ownership of its common shares in connection with its August 2006 rights offering. After the third anniversary of the completion of the rights offering in August 2009, the risks of an ownership change under the Code could be diminished because the rights offering purchases would no longer be included in the IRS's ownership change calculations. As a result, the Rights Agreement amendment provides for the 4.99% beneficial ownership threshold to return to 15% after September 30, 2009.

The Rights Agreement amendment does not ensure that the NOLs will be protected from an ownership change as defined in the Code, and there can be no assurance that such an ownership change will not occur.

The rights issued pursuant to the Rights Agreement are in all respects subject to and governed by the provisions of the Rights Agreement, as amended. Copies of the Rights Agreement and the amendment are available free of charge from the Company. The foregoing description of the amendment to the Rights Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amendment, a copy of which is incorporated herein by this reference.
