EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Amendment No. 3 ("Amendment No. 3") is being made to the Schedule 13D, as amended and restated by Amendment No. 2 filed on February 8, 2001 (the "Schedule 13D") by TB&C Bancshares, Inc. ("TB&C"). This Amendment No. 3 is being filed pursuant to Rule 13d-2 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, to report the reorganization of TB&C and the related distribution in liquidation by TB&C to its shareholders of all shares of common stock, $1.00 par value (the "Common Stock"), of Synovus Financial Corp. ("Synovus"), as a result of which TB&C no longer owns any shares of Synovus Common Stock. Other updating changes also are reflected in the items that are being amended.

ITEM 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER.

The information previously reported under this Item has not changed as of the date of this Amendment No. 3.

ITEM 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND.

The information previously reported under this Item has not changed as of the date of this Amendment No. 3.

ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION.

Item 3 of the Schedule 13D is hereby amended to report a recent transaction that reduced to zero the shares of Synovus Common Stock that TB&C beneficially owns. This reduction resulted from the reorganization of TB&C (the "Reorganization"), which was completed after the close of business and after the New York Stock Exchange closed on August 13, 2001. Pursuant to the Reorganization, which was effected under Section 368(a)(1)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended:

- (a) TB&C transferred to Synovus the 14,309,182 shares of Synovus Common Stock that TB&C previously owned, and Synovus issued to TB&C the same number of newly issued shares of Synovus Common Stock, having the same rights as the shares surrendered; and
- (b) TB&C immediately distributed the 14,309,182 newly issued

Edgar Filing: TB&C BANCSHARES INC - Form SC 13D/A

shares of Synovus Common Stock to TB&C's shareholders in proportion to their ownership of TB&C shares, all as part of the related liquidation and dissolution of TB&C.

The only funds or other consideration that has been or will be given in connection with the Reorganization consists of: (a) the shares of Synovus Common Stock surrendered by TB&C to Synovus in exchange for the issuance of an equal number of new shares of Synovus Common Stock issued by Synovus to TBC and (b) the shares of TB&C Common Stock owned by the TB&C shareholders that are being cancelled in the dissolution of TB&C.

TB&C was formed in 1986 by William B. Turner and his sisters, Elizabeth T. Corn and Sarah T. Butler, to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals. In 1986, Mr. Turner, Mrs. Corn and Mrs. Butler contributed to TB&C a total of 1,766,637 shares (9.5% of the then outstanding shares) of Common Stock of Synovus that they and their ancestors had owned for many years. All of the shares of Synovus Common Stock that TB&C owned immediately prior to the Reorganization consisted of the shares initially contributed, a modest amount of additional shares contributed in 1990 by the three founding shareholders, and additional shares issued with respect to the contributed shares as a result of intervening stock splits, as reduced by two relatively modest charitable gifts of shares of Synovus Common Stock by TB&C.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION.

As indicated under Item 3, TB&C was formed to allow Mr. Turner, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Corn to effect various family, financial and estate planning goals for themselves and their lineal descendants. As previously disclosed in Amendment No. 2 to this Schedule 13D, Mr. Turner, Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Corn and the other family members who are directors of TB&C concluded, based on their continuing evaluation of the families' circumstances and on the advice of their professional advisors, that achievement of these goals would be advanced by the Reorganization of TB&C (including the related distribution in liquidation by TB&C to its shareholders of all shares of Synovus Common Stock owned by TB&C). The Reorganization and related distribution of Synovus shares were completed on August 13, 2001. TB&C has filed a Notice of Intent To Dissolve with the Georgia Secretary of State and is proceeding to identify and pay its remaining expenses so it can complete its dissolution.

Neither TB&C, nor any executive officer, director or controlling person of TB&C, has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (a) any person acquiring additional securities of Synovus or disposing of securities of Synovus, other than: (i) through distributions in kind by certain of such individuals, in their capacities as trustees of their respective GRATs (or possibly sales by them as trustees of such GRATs), of shares of Synovus Common Stock to satisfy annuity payments due to the annuity beneficiaries of such GRATs, and (ii) through the participation of certain of such persons in Synovus' Director Stock Purchase Plan and in Synovus' Dividend Reinvestment and Direct Stock Purchase Plan; (b) an extraordinary corporate transaction involving Synovus; (c) a sale or transfer of a material amount of the assets of Synovus or any of its subsidiaries; (d) any change in the present board of directors or management of Synovus; (e) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of Synovus; (f) any other material change in Synovus' business or corporate structure; (g) any changes in Synovus' charter or bylaws or other actions that might impede the acquisition of control of Synovus; (h) the delisting of Synovus Common Stock from the New York Stock Exchange; (i) the eligibility of Synovus Common Stock for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; or (j) any action similar to any of those enumerated in items (a) through (i) above.

EXECUTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS AND CONTROLLING PERSONS OF TB&C

Information regarding Synovus Common Stock deemed to be beneficially owned by each of the nine individuals who together constituted TB&C's directors, executive officers and controlling persons and continue as such pending the completion of TB&C's dissolution, is set forth below.

WILLIAM B. TURNER. Mr. Turner could be construed to be the beneficial owner of 6,792,215.871 shares (2.3%) of Synovus Common Stock. Mr. Turner has sole voting and investment power as to 2,086,996.871 shares of Synovus Common Stock, consisting of: (a) 21,660.871 shares that he owns directly; and (b) 2,065,336 shares owned by Mr. Turner as sole trustee of his GRAT. Mr. Turner has sole voting power as to an additional 51,862 shares, shared voting power as to 4,653,357 shares and shared investment power as to 4,705,219 shares of Synovus Common Stock, consisting of: (a) 51,862 shares owned by Synovus Trust Company ("STC"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Synovus, as sole trustee of a revocable trust for the benefit of Mr. Turner ("Mr. Turner's Living Trust") and subject to Mr. Turner's directions as to distributions and his right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mr. Turner has sole voting power, but shares investment power (based on Mr. Turner's power to direct distributions from and to revoke the trust) with STC, as trustee of such trust; (b) 19,817 shares owned by STC, as sole trustee of a revocable trust for the benefit of Mrs. Turner ("Mrs. Turner's Living Trust") and subject to Mrs. Turner's directions as to distributions and her right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mr. Turner shares voting power and investment power with Mrs. Turner (based on Mrs. Turner's power to vote such shares and to direct distributions from and to revoke the trust) and as to which investment power is shared also with STC, as trustee of such trust; (b) 2,065,335 shares owned by Mrs. Turner as sole trustee of her GRAT, as to which voting power and investment power may be deemed to be shared by Mrs. Turner as trustee with her husband; and (c) 2,568,205 shares owned by Bradley-Turner Foundation, Inc. (the "B-T Foundation"), a charitable foundation of which both Mr. and Mrs. Turner are trustees and as to which voting power and investment power are shared with the other trustees of such foundation.

Mrs. Turner has shared voting and investment power as to all of these shares, consisting of: (a) 19,817 shares owned by STC, as sole trustee of Mrs. Turner's Living Trust and subject to Mrs. Turner's directions as to distributions and her right to vote the Synovus shares, as to which Mrs. Turner shares voting power and investment power with Mr. Turner (based on Mrs. Turner's power to vote such shares and to direct
