Compensation Arrangements with Executive OfficersArrangements with Martin J. Wygod

In October 2001, we entered into a five-year employment agreement with Martin J. Wygod. The employment agreement provides that Mr. Wygod will be Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of WebMD. Mr. Wygod may elect to serve solely as Chairman of the Board and to perform duties commensurate with that position, in which case his resignation as Chief Executive Officer shall not terminate his employment agreement or result in any change in his compensation or the other terms of his employment. Mr. Wygod currently receives an annual base salary of $1,400,000.

In the event of termination of Mr. Wygod's employment by us without cause or by Mr. Wygod for good reason, as those terms are defined in his employment agreement, Mr. Wygod would become a consultant for us and would be entitled to receive a consulting fee equal to his salary and continuation of benefits for two years or, if longer, the expiration of the term of the employment period. In addition, all options, or other forms of equity compensation, granted to Mr. Wygod which have not vested prior to the date of termination would be vested as of the date of termination and, assuming there has not been a change in control (as defined in the employment agreement), would continue to be exercisable as long as he remains a consultant (or longer if the plan or agreement expressly provided). In the event that Mr. Wygod's employment is terminated due to death or disability, he would receive the same benefits as described above.

The employment agreement provides that, in the event of a change in control (as defined in the employment agreement, which definition includes certain business combination transactions) of WebMD, all outstanding options and other forms of equity compensation would become immediately vested on the date of the change in control and, if following the change in control, Mr. Wygod's employment terminates for any reason other than cause, they will continue to be exercisable until the tenth anniversary of the applicable date of grant. A change in control is also an event that constitutes "good reason" for purposes of a termination by Mr. Wygod.

The employment agreement contains confidentiality obligations that survive indefinitely and non-solicitation and non-competition obligations that continue until the second anniversary of the date his employment has ceased.

The employment agreement contains a tax gross-up provision relating to any excise tax that Mr. Wygod incurs by reason of his receipt of any payment that constitutes an excess parachute payment as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

Arrangements with Roger C. Holstein

We are party to an employment agreement, dated October 23, 2002, with Roger C. Holstein, our President, which provides for an employment period through December 31, 2007. Mr. Holstein currently receives an annual base salary of $600,000. Mr. Holstein is entitled to a bonus of $450,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002, and beginning in 2003, and continuing each year for the duration of his employment. Mr. Holstein is eligible to receive a bonus of up to 100% of his base salary in the event that the Company attains certain specified performance goals.

Upon termination of employment, unvested options generally are forfeited and vested options generally expire 90 days after termination (one year in the case of termination as a result of death or disability or immediately in the event of termination for cause). The 2001 Stock Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors and all or a portion of such authority may be delegated to one or more officers of the Company. The Compensation Committee has the authority to designate participants, determine the number, terms and conditions of options, establish, adopt or revise any rules and regulations as it may deem advisable to administer the 2001 Stock Plan and make all other decisions and determinations that may be required under the 2001 Stock Plan.
