NOTE B Plan Description and Summary of Significant Plan Provisions

Plan Description

The Board of Directors of Applica Incorporated (the Company) adopted the Plan on February 23, 2000 and the Plan was approved by shareholders of the Company at the annual meeting of shareholders on May 9, 2000. The Plan became effective as of August 1, 2000 and will terminate on June 30, 2010, unless terminated sooner by the sale of all shares offered under the Plan or at the discretion of the Board of Directors. There are 500,000 shares of the Company's common stock reserved under the Plan subject to adjustment as defined in the Plan document. The number of remaining available shares was 334,190 and 390,535 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

The purpose of the Plan is to provide eligible employees with an opportunity to participate in the accumulation and potential appreciation in value of the common stock of the Company. Eligible employees are those who have completed at least one year of employment and are employees as of the first trading day of each offering period. The first offering period began on August 1, 2000 and ended on December 31, 2000. Each offering period thereafter will begin on the first trading day in January and end on the last trading day in December.

Under the terms of the Plan, all eligible employees of the Company, through payroll deductions, are allowed to purchase, on each trading day ending on or before each June 30 and December 31 (exercise dates), shares of common stock at a 15% discount from the lower of the fair market value on the offering date (the first trading day of each offering period), the entry date on which the employee elects to become a participant or the exercise dates.

Contributions are limited to 15% of compensation on each payroll date that the employee is a participant. The maximum number of shares that an employee may purchase during any exercise period may not exceed 1,000 shares. Contributions are held by the Company until invested, at which time the shares are distributed to the participants.
