PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b) with respect to the Form 10-K.

The late filing of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 2, 2005 is the result of delays in reviewing the accounting treatment for income taxes related to the timing of recognition of gift certificate revenues for tax purposes. This matter recently arose as a result of the examination of our federal income tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service. The issue relates primarily to a timing difference resulting from a possible requirement for us to recognize gift certificate revenues for tax purposes on a cash basis rather than an accrual basis as the IRS has questioned whether the company met certain technical requirements which would have allowed a deferral of two years following the year in which gift cards were sold for recognizing gift card revenue related to unredeemed certificates.

The amount of any adjustment to net income with respect to this matter is not expected to exceed approximately $650,000 in the aggregate. Management is evaluating the matter and, based on initial review, does not expect the amounts to be material to the results or financial statements of any previous year. We have not yet determined the exact amount of additional liabilities that will be required and whether the accruals should be recognized in 2004 or prior years.

(Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed ? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As a result of the ongoing evaluation of the matters described in Part III above, we are unable to determine with certainty whether any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in our Form 10-K.
