MERGER OF EQUALS FACT SHEET

Lincoln Financial Group (NYSE: LNC)

Through its wealth accumulation, retirement income and wealth protection businesses, Lincoln Financial Group provides annuities, life insurance, 401(k) and 403(b) plans, savings plans, mutual funds, managed accounts, institutional investment, and comprehensive financial planning and advisory services.

Jefferson Pilot Financial (NYSE: JP)

Through the Jefferson Pilot Financial family of companies, Jefferson Pilot offers a full line of life insurance products, as well as annuity and investment products. Jefferson Pilot's Benefit Partners business offers employee benefits including life, disability and dental insurance. Jefferson-Pilot's Communications Company owns and operates three network television stations and 18 radio stations, and produces and syndicates sports programming.

Strategic Rationale

The merger of equals will result in a combined organization with:

- v A broader product portfolio to serve the growing retirement income segment, with leadership positions in the U.S. life and annuity market:
 - § #5 in total life salesⁱ
 - § #1 in UL salesⁱⁱ
 - § #6 in VUL salesⁱⁱⁱ
 - § #5 in VA sales^{iv}
 - § #8 in equity indexed annuity sales^v
 - § #14 in fixed annuity sales^{vi}
 - § #8 in group disability sales^{vii}
 - § #13 in group life sales^{viii}
 - § #6 in employer sponsored (DC/retirement plan assets)^{ix}
- v Powerful distribution organization with greater penetration.
 - § The company will have a multi-channel platform comprised of financial planning, general agency and wholesale distribution organizations.
 - § Complementary networks with little overlap create unique franchise.
 - § Strengthens relationships with key distributors and strategic partners.
- v Improved earnings diversification and strong financial flexibility.
 - § Complementary product lines bring together Lincoln's strength in life and annuities and its leading 401(k) and 403(b) offerings with Jefferson Pilot's strength in life and fixed annuities, including equity indexed annuities, group life and disability, providing a more balanced business mix; Jefferson Pilot's successful communications business adds further earnings diversification.

§ The merged company will have greater scale, strong capital flexibility, and an attractive risk profile and anticipated continued ratings as a strong AA company.

v Significant value creation opportunities.

§ Expect to achieve annual cost synergies of approximately $180 million.

§ Expect transaction to be accretive to the combined company's income from operations per share in the first year and building thereafter, excluding one-time costs.

§ Expect to benefit from revenue enhancement opportunities across business units.

§ Combined management teams with proven integration track records.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Except for historical information contained in this document, statements made in this document are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (PSLRA). A forward-looking statement is a statement that is not a historical fact and, without limitation, includes any statement that may predict, forecast, indicate or imply future results, performance or achievements, and may contain words like: believe, anticipate, expect, estimate, project, will, shall and other words or phrases with similar meaning. We claim the protection afforded by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements provided by the PSLRA. Forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from the results contained in the forward-looking statements. Risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to vary materially, some of which are described within the forward-looking statements include, among others: (1) the shareholders of Lincoln and/or Jefferson-Pilot may not approve and adopt the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement at the special shareholder meetings; (2) we may be unable to obtain regulatory approvals required for the merger, or required regulatory approvals may delay the merger or result in the imposition of conditions that could have a material adverse effect on the combined company or cause us to abandon the merger; (3) we may be unable to complete the merger or completing the merger may be more costly than expected because, among other reasons, conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (4) problems may arise with the ability to successfully integrate Lincoln's and Jefferson-Pilot's businesses, which may result in the combined company not operating as effectively and efficiently as expected; (5) the combined company may not be able to achieve the expected synergies from the merger or it may take longer than expected to achieve those synergies; (6) the merger may involve unexpected costs or unexpected liabilities, or the effects of purchase accounting may be different from our expectations; (7) the credit and insurer financial strength ratings of the combined company and its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; and (8) the combined company may be adversely affected by future legislative, regulatory, or tax changes as well as other economic, business and/or competitive factors.

The risks included here are not exhaustive. The annual reports on Form 10-K, current reports on Form 8-K and other documents filed by Lincoln and Jefferson-Pilot with the Securities and Exchange Commission include additional factors which could impact our businesses and financial performance. Given these risks and uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements as a prediction of actual results. In addition, we disclaim any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that occur after the date of this document, except as may be required by law.
