Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On April 13, 2006, our board of directors elected Martin J. Emerson to fill a vacancy on the board of directors. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Emerson is independent as defined in Nasdaq's listing standards. Mr. Emerson, age 42, has been the President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of American Medical Systems Holdings, Inc., a medical device company, since January 2005, where he also served as the President and Chief Operating Officer from 2004 to January 2005, the Executive Vice President of Global Sales and Marketing and Chief Operating Officer from 2003 to 2004, and a Vice President and the General Manager of International from 2000 to 2002. He has over 20 years of experience in the medical device industry. He was the General Manager and Finance Director in Singapore for Boston Scientific Corporation from 1998 to 2000. Mr. Emerson was the Vice President and Regional Financial Officer in Singapore for MasterCard International Incorporated from 1997 to 1998. He also held management positions with Baxter International from 1985 to 1997, most recently as the Vice President of Finance of its Hospital Business division.

On April 13, 2006, James E. Thomas notified the board of directors that he will not stand for reelection and will retire from the board of directors at our annual meeting of stockholders on May 11, 2006. Mr. Thomas's decision not to stand for reelection as a director was not the result of a disagreement with us on any matter relating to our operations, policies or practices.
