The transaction is subject to customary closing and termination conditions and the approval of BFC's and Levitt's shareholders. In addition to the shareholder approvals required by Florida law, the transaction will also be subject to the approval of the holders of a majority of Levitt's Class A Common Stock voting on the transaction not including shares owned by BFC and certain of Levitt's directors. BFC and Levitt anticipate that the transaction will close in the second quarter of 2007.
