REVOCATION OF PROXIES, DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY

Edgar Filing: CSB BANCORP INC /OH - Form DEF 14A

AND CUMULATIVE VOTING

Shares of CSB's common stock, par value $6.25 per share (the "Common Shares"), can be voted at the Meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the Meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked by written notice to the Secretary of CSB (addressed to: CSB Bancorp, Inc., 6 West Jackson Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, Attention: Ms. Margaret L. Conn, Secretary) or by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Meeting. A proxy will not be voted if a shareholder attends the Meeting and votes in person. Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted for the nominees for directors set forth below or as otherwise described herein in the event cumulative voting for directors is properly requested. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting and (iii) any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees for director, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The enclosed proxy is being solicited by CSB and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by CSB. In addition to use of the mails, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone, telegraph or telefax by directors, officers and employees of CSB.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 1, 2004 (the "Record Date"), are entitled to (i) notice of the Meeting and (ii) one vote on each matter to be considered at the Meeting for each Common Share held on that date. As of the Record Date, there were 2,644,351 Common Shares issued and outstanding. The presence at the Meeting in person or by proxy of at least a majority of such shares will be required to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Common Shares held by holders who abstain from voting and all Common Shares held by brokers who do not have the discretionary authority to vote on certain matters will be included in determining the presence of a quorum. Consequently, an abstention or a broker non-vote has the same effect as a vote against a proposal or Director nominee, as each abstention or broker non-vote would be one less vote in favor of a proposal or for a Director nominee. Shareholders will not be entitled to dissenter's rights with respect to any matter to be considered at the Meeting.

The following table sets forth the Common Shares beneficially owned by each person, group or entity owning more than five percent of CSB's outstanding Common Shares as of the Record Date. This information was obtained from a Schedule 13D/A filed with the Securities Exchange Commission by the Committee of Concerned CSB Shareholders for a Better Bank on January 3, 2002.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires CSB's officers, directors and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of CSB's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required to furnish CSB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. During 2003, Mr. Waltman filed a late Form 4 on October 28, 2003, Mr. Limbert filed late Forms 4 on August 25, 2003, September 11, 2003 and September 22, 2003 and Mr. Paul Greig, Senior Vice President, filed a late Form 3 on July 25, 2003. With the exception of the foregoing inadvertently late filings and based solely on CSB's review of the copies of such forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors that they complied with all applicable filing requirements, CSB's officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them.

PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

CSB's Regulations provide that its business shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than three and not more than twenty-five persons. CSB's Regulations divide such directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and set their terms at three years. The Board of Directors, pursuant to CSB's Code of Regulations, has established the number of directors at nine.

Assuming that at least a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares are present at the Meeting so that a quorum exists, the three nominees for director of CSB receiving the most votes will be elected as directors. Shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. In order to exercise the right to vote cumulatively, a shareholder must give written notice to the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of CSB not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the meeting, and the shareholder's demand for cumulative voting must be announced at the commencement of the meeting by or on behalf of the shareholder. If cumulative voting is elected, a shareholder may cast as many votes in an election of directors as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held. The Board of Directors has nominated Jeffery A. Robb, Sr., Samuel M. Steimel, and John R. Waltman, to serve until the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Messrs. Robb, Steimel, and Waltman are incumbent directors whose present terms expire at the Meeting.

If it is intended that Common Shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted for the election of nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card.) If one or more of the nominees should, at the time of the Meeting, be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominee and any substitute nominee designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the election of the nominees.

The following table sets forth information concerning nominees for director of CSB, including their principal occupation or employment during the past five years. Each nominee, if elected, will serve for a term expiring at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders in 2007.

He served as President and Chief Executive Officer until his resignation on July 31, 2003. Information regarding Mr. Bess is provided pursuant to SEC requirements.

The Board of Directors conducts its business through meetings of the Board and its committees. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors are held on a monthly basis. The Board of Directors held 12 regular, and 9 special, meetings during the year ended December 31, 2003. No director except Mr. Robb attended fewer than 75% of such meetings, and Mr. Robb attended 71% of such meetings. Directors receive no compensation from CSB. In addition, each director of CSB also serves as a director of The Commercial & Savings Bank, a wholly-owned banking subsidiary of CSB (the "Bank"), for which outside directors were compensated at a rate of $10,000 annually, plus $500 per Board Meeting attended or reviewed, and $500 per Committee Meeting. Mr. Bess, an insider Director, received $17,500 in director fees in 2003.

CSB has a Nominating Committee, which selects the nominees for election as directors. The Nominating Committee currently consists of Mr. Baker, Mr. Lang and Mr. Miller. The Nominating Committee met 2 times in 2003. The Nominating Committee will consider nominees for election as directors submitted by shareholders of CSB. No nominations for directors, except those made by the Nominating Committee, shall be voted upon at the Meeting unless other nominations are submitted by shareholders to the Secretary of CSB in writing not less than fourteen nor more than fifty days prior to the date of the Meeting. On March 5, 2004, the Nominating Committee adopted a Nominating Committee Charter, which can be found on CSB's website at www.csbl.com.

In considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors, and consistent with its Charter, the Nominating Committee considers, among other things, the potential candidates' knowledge of the communities in which CSB and the Bank operate; their experience and any special business, financial, or other expertise; their reputation for honesty and integrity; and their ability to provide independent and objective oversight and supervision for matters which may impact CSB and the Bank. The Nominating Committee also considers applicable requirements of the CSB Code of Regulations and requirements of applicable law and regulations with respect to evaluating potential candidates, as well as other matters which the Nominating Committee deems appropriate in light of the specific circumstances and the potential candidate. To that end, the Nominating Committee may conduct its own analysis and may also seek information from a variety of outside sources in order to ascertain whether a potential candidate meets the referenced criteria.

The Nominating Committee utilizes the same standards and criteria in considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors who are recommended by CSB shareholders, when appropriate. Shareholders may nominate potential candidates for election to the Board of Directors in the manner provided in the CSB Code of Regulations.

The Compensation Committee develops and recommends executive compensation principles, policies and programs to the CSB Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Mr. Baker, Mr. Lang, Mr. Limbert, Mr. Steimel, Mr. Steiner, and Mr. Waltman. The Compensation Committee met 2 times in 2003.

CSB has an Audit Committee, the members of which currently consist of Mr. Holtman, Mr. Robb and Mr. Steiner. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent directors. Among other things, the Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of independent auditors, reviewing with the independent auditors the plans and results of the audit, and reviewing the adequacy of internal accounting controls. The Audit Committee met a total of 11 times in 2003. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Robb and Mr. Steiner meet the requirements of an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. On March 12, 2004, the Board adopted a revised Audit Committee charter, which is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A.

SHAREHOLDER COMMUNICATION WITH BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Shareholders interested in communicating directly with the Board of Directors may do so by writing to Margaret L. Conn, Secretary, CSB Bancorp, Inc., 6 West Jackson Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654. The mailing envelope and letter must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a "Shareholder-Board of Directors Communication."

The Secretary will review all such correspondence and regularly forward to the Board of Directors a log and summary of all such correspondence and copies of all correspondence that, in the opinion of the Secretary, deals with the functions of the Board or Committees of the Board or that she otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by CSB that is addressed to members of the Board and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters are immediately brought to the attention of CSB's internal audit department and handled in accordance with procedures established by the Audit Committee for such matters.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Edgar Filing: CSB BANCORP INC /OH - Form DEF 14A

The Compensation Committee is responsible for developing and recommending CSB's executive compensation principles, policies and programs to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee believes that in representing the Board of Directors, it must act in the best interest of the shareholders as it reviews and determines CSB's executive compensation principles, policies and programs. The Compensation Committee's essential goal is to create a balance by which CSB is able to attract and retain qualified management personnel, while at the same time providing for maximization of CSB's financial performance and safeguarding CSB's assets. In compensating CSB's executive officers, the Committee seeks to achieve the following goals:

1. motivate executive officers to strive for and achieve outstanding corporate performance which provides a direct benefit to shareholders;
2. attract highly-qualified key management personnel; and
3. reward superior performance in reaching corporate objectives with aggressive compensation levels and provide that a significant portion of compensation will be dependent on CSB's annual performance.

Base salaries for executive officers in 2003 were determined after review of an analysis of salaries paid for comparable positions and consideration of the competition for executive talent within CSB's industry. CSB's review included a survey of public filings made by industry peers. CSB's compensation philosophy is to target executive salaries close to the mean of the market rate paid for comparable positions by similarly sized bank holding companies. CSB's senior officers recommend to the Board of Directors an aggregate amount of cash and options to purchase Common Shares to offer as bonuses to employees each fiscal year, based upon the performance of CSB and the Bank during the prior fiscal year, and an allocation of these bonuses among the employees of CSB and the Bank. After consideration of this recommendation, the Compensation Committee approves the issuance of bonuses each year. The Chief Executive Officer only participates in the evaluation of compensation of the other executive officers.

The existing employment agreement dated March 1, 2001, with former Chief Executive Officer C. James Bess, continued into 2003, and provided for payment of an annual base salary of $300,000 as well as vacation and certain enumerated benefits. The agreement was amended in May, 2003, to provide for resignation of Mr. Bess from all positions with CSB and the Bank effective July 31, 2003. In accordance with the terms of the amended agreement, Mr. Bess received a severance payment of $200,000 as well as payment for all unused vacation effective July 31, 2003, and was permitted to participate in certain CSB employee benefit plans until July 31, 2004. The amended agreement also provided for service by Mr. Bess as an independent consultant to the Bank during the period beginning on August 1, 2003, through February 29, 2004, for a fee of $50,000 paid on July 1, 2003, and $7,145 monthly thereafter through February 29, 2004. Mr. Bess' 2003 base salary, shown in the "Salary" column of the Compensation Table below, was established under Mr. Bess' employment agreement, which was approved by the Committee and the Board. Information on Mr. Bess is included pursuant to SEC requirements.

An employment agreement dated May 20, 2003, was entered into with John J. Limbert, providing for employment of Mr. Limbert as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Bank and CSB pursuant to the terms of the agreement. The agreement is for a two-year term with annual renewals commencing at the first anniversary, and provides for compensation to Mr. Limbert consisting of an annual base salary of $150,000, a bonus to be paid at the discretion of the Board of Directors, vacation, benefits, and certain stock options. The compensation for the Chief Executive Officer is determined using the same criteria discussed above for all other executives.

Consistent with this function, the Audit Committee should encourage continuous improvement of, and should foster adherence to, the Corporation's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. The Audit Committee will primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section IV of this Charter.
