The proxy may be revoked by appropriate written notice at any time before it is exercised or by voting in person at the meeting.

At the Annual Meeting, the following matters will be considered:

1. To elect two directors, for which positions the Board has nominated Carlos C. Campbell and Kenneth J. Slepicka to serve for three years until the annual meeting of shareholders in the year 2010 and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified.
2. To transact such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting and any adjournment thereof.

The Board recommends that stockholders vote FOR the election as director of the nominees named herein.

The Company's principal executive office is located at 875 Prospect Street, Suite 301, La Jolla, California 92037, and its telephone number is (858) 456-6022.

SOLICITATION AND VOTING

A copy of the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders for 2006 accompanies this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report and these proxy solicitation materials are being mailed on or about June 18, 2007 to all shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting. In most cases, only one annual report and proxy statement is being delivered to multiple stockholders sharing an address unless the Company has received a written or oral request for a separate copy of the annual report and proxy statement. A separate copy of the annual report and proxy statement can be requested by calling the Company at (858) 456-6022 or by sending a written request to the Company at 875 Prospect Street, Suite 301, La Jolla, California 92037. Stockholders sharing an address who are receiving multiple copies of the annual report and proxy statement may request delivery of a single copy of the annual report and proxy statement by either calling the Company at the number listed above or by sending a written request to the Company at the address listed above.

Voting Securities. As of June 5, 2007, the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, 18,833,737 shares of Common Stock of the Company were issued and outstanding, excluding 3,219,243 treasury shares held by the Company's subsidiaries. Only shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 5, 2007 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment thereof. Each share of Common Stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters brought before the Annual Meeting, except for the shares held by the Company's subsidiaries, which may not be voted. Our Bylaws provide that the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting.

Table of Contents

Cumulative Voting. In voting for the election of directors, shareholders have cumulative voting rights. Accordingly, each shareholder may cumulate such voting power as such shareholder possesses and give one candidate a number of votes equal to the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held by the shareholder, or distribute such shareholder's votes on the same principle among two or more candidates, as such shareholder sees fit. However, no shareholder is entitled to cumulate votes (in other words, cast for any candidate a number of votes greater than the number of shares of stock held by such shareholder) unless at least one shareholder has given notice, at the Annual Meeting prior to the voting, of the shareholder's intention to cumulate votes. If any shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for nominated candidates. Management is hereby soliciting discretionary authority to cumulate votes represented by proxies if cumulative voting is invoked.

Voting of Proxies. The proxy, if returned properly executed and not subsequently revoked, will be voted in accordance with the choice made by the shareholder thereon. If a choice is not made with respect to any issue, the proxy will be voted in favor of the items described in this Proxy Statement. If cumulative voting is permitted in the election of directors at the Annual Meeting, the proxy holders shall have discretion as to the manner in which votes represented by the proxy are to be cumulated, unless the proxy indicates the manner in which such votes shall be cumulated. A shareholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke his or her proxy by written notice delivered to the Secretary of the Company or by the shareholder voting in person at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders whose shares are registered in their own names may vote (1) by returning a proxy card, (2) via the Internet, or (3) by telephone. Specific instructions to be followed by any registered stockholder interested in voting via the Internet or by telephone are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. The Internet and telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate the stockholders identity and to allow the stockholder to vote his or her shares and confirm that his or her voting instructions have been properly recorded. If you do not wish to vote via the Internet or telephone, please complete, sign and return the proxy card in the postage paid envelope provided.

Inspection of Votes. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting who will also determine whether or not a quorum is present. The inspector of election will treat abstentions, and any shares as to which a broker or nominee has indicated that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter, as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum for the election of directors.

PROPOSAL NO. 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Nominees and Continuing Directors

The Board is divided into three classes, with the terms of office of each class ending in successive years. Pursuant to Section 3.2 of the Company's Bylaws, the total number of directors has been established as seven. Two directors of the Company are to be elected for terms ending at the Annual Meeting in the year 2010 or until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified.

Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders named on the enclosed form of proxy intend to distribute the votes represented by proxies in such proportions as they deem desirable to elect the two nominees named below or their substitutes. Although it is not contemplated that any nominee will decline or be unable to serve, if either occurs prior to the Annual Meeting, a substitute nominee will be recommended to the Board by the Nominating Committee. See Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management for the number of shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by these nominees.

The Nominating Committee has recommended that Carlos C. Campbell and Kenneth J. Slepicka be nominated for election as directors at the Company's Annual Meeting on August 3, 2007 for terms ending in 2010. A majority of the independent directors approved the nomination for election to the Board of Carlos C. Campbell and Kenneth J. Slepicka. The following table sets forth information regarding the nominees for election as directors and the other directors whose terms of office as directors will continue after the Annual Meeting, including their ages, a brief description of their business experience, certain directorships held by each of them and the year in which each became a director of the Company.

If a quorum is present and voting, the nominees for election as directors receiving the highest numbers of votes shall be elected. Abstentions and broker nonvotes have no effect on the vote.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

Our compensation programs are designed to support our business goals and promote both short-term and long-term growth. This section of the proxy statement explains how our compensation programs are designed and operate in practice with respect to the Company's Named Executive Officers (NEOs). Our NEOs are the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, and the three most highly compensated executive officers in a particular year.

The Compensation Committee of the Board determines the compensation for our executive officers. Our executive officers have broad job responsibilities. The Committee reviews and determines all components of executive officers compensation including making individual compensation decisions and reviewing and revising executive officer compensation as appropriate.

Our Compensation Philosophy and Programs

Our compensation philosophy centers around the principle of aligning pay and performance. Total compensation varies with individual performance and the Company's performance in achieving objectives. The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan is designed to ensure that executive compensation is aligned with the long-term interests of our shareholders. The Compensation Committee and our management team believe that compensation should help to recruit, retain and motivate the employees upon whom we will depend for current and future success.

The following key design priorities that govern compensation decisions reflect our compensation philosophy:

pay for performance

recruitment, retention and motivation of the highest quality employees

alignment with the interests of our various constituencies including shareholders and employees promoting excellent corporate governance

Each element of compensation reflects one or more of the above designed priorities. Total compensation for the NEOs consists of the following components: (i) base salary, (ii) annual incentive awards, (iii) long-term incentives, (iv) retirement benefits, and (v) insurance and other benefits.

The Role of the Compensation Committee in Determining Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Company is a standing committee. The Committee is composed entirely of independent Directors, determined in accord with Nasdaq Global Market listing rules. John D. Weil is Chairman of the Committee, and the other Committee members are Carlos C. Campbell, Richard D. Ruppert, MD, and Kenneth J. Slepicka.

The Committee oversees and administers the Company's executive compensation program. The role of the Committee is to oversee the Company's compensation and benefit plans and policies, administer the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (including reviewing and approving grants of awards under the 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan), and to review and approve annually the compensation and incentive awards paid to the Company's officers. The Committee is responsible for assuring that all of the executive compensation decisions of the Company are developed, implemented, and administered in a way that support the Company's fundamental philosophy that a significant portion of executive compensation should be linked to Company performance.

The Committee recognizes the importance of maintaining sound principles for the development, maintenance, and administration of compensation and benefit programs, and has taken steps to enhance the Company's ability to carry out its responsibilities. Examples of these steps include:

The Committee has periodically retained independent compensation experts, when deemed necessary by the Committee. The Committee has in the past retained William M. Mercer, Incorporated and The Bankers Bank as independent compensation experts.

Table of Contents

These independent compensation experts do not advise the Company's management, and do not receive any fees from the Company other than consulting fees for advice rendered to the Committee.

In March 2007 the Committee adopted a Charter. This was unanimously approved by the Board. A copy of the Compensation Committee's Charter is posted on the Company's website at www.picoholdings.com.

The Committee's members are appointed annually by the Chairman, and the appointments are ratified by the full Board.

The Committee meets on a regularly scheduled basis and as required. It reviews and approves the executive compensation program, including base salary and incentive awards. It reviews and approves individual executive officer compensation packages based on recommendations of the Company's Chief Executive Officer. As discussed below, the Committee, after consulting with The Bankers Bank in 2005, recommended that Ronald Langley, Chairman, and John R. Hart, President and Chief Executive Officer, be offered new employment agreements with the Company beginning January 1, 2006 for a period of five years. These Employment Agreements provide for the base salary, and a formula to determine an annual incentive award, for both Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart. No other NEO of the Company has an employment agreement.

Goals of Compensation Program

The Compensation Committee attempts to align compensation of the NEOs with the value achieved by the NEOs for the Company's shareholders. The Company's compensation program for the NEOs consists of a combination of (i) base salary, (ii) annual incentive awards, and (iii) long-term incentives designed to attract, retain, and motivate executives who will maximize shareholder value. The Committee considers individual and Company performance, as well as compensation paid by comparable companies.

The NEOs also participate in other employee benefit programs at the same levels of benefits which are available to all of the Company's employees, including health insurance, group life insurance, and the Company's 401(k) Plan.

Elements of Compensation

Base Salary

As stated previously, the Compensation Committee, in consultation with The Bankers Bank, an independent compensation expert, developed new employment agreements for Ronald Langley, Chairman, and John R. Hart, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart entered into these new Employment Agreements (together, the Employment Agreements) beginning January 1, 2006 for a period of five years, i.e., through and including December 31, 2010. The base salary for the initial year, i.e., 2006, of each Employment Agreement was $1,075,000, subject to annual adjustment in January of each subsequent year.

The $1,075,000 base salary in each Employment Agreement is subject to annual adjustment in January of each year in the same percentage applicable to the Company's other staff members in an amount deemed adequate to provide for cost of living, subject to the Committee's approval, based on several major compensation studies.

The Employment Agreements provide that if the employee is terminated for any reason other than cause, death, or disability prior to January 1, 2008, the employee shall be paid a lump sum equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings. If the employee is terminated for any reason other than cause, death, or disability on or after January 1, 2008, and prior to December 31, 2010, the employee shall be paid a lump sum equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings, and minus the amount previously paid to the employee as base salary from January 1, 2008 to the date of termination. In addition to the amount set forth above, the employee shall receive the pro rata portion of the annual incentive award that would have been payable to employee under the Employment Agreement for the year in which termination occurs.

If the employee terminates employment as a result of death or permanent and total disability before January 1, 2008, the employee or his designated heir shall be paid a lump sum in amount equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings. If the employee terminates employment as a result of death or permanent and total disability on or after January 1, 2008 and prior to December 31, 2010, the employee or his designated heir shall be paid a lump sum equal to $3,225,000 minus applicable tax withholdings and minus the amount previously paid to the employee as base salary under the Employment Agreement from January 1, 2008 to the date of termination of employment. In addition to the amount set forth above, the employee shall receive the pro rata portion of the annual incentive award that would have been payable to employee under the Employment Agreement for the year in which termination occurs.

If the employee terminates employment for any reason prior to December 31, 2010, the employee will receive a lump sum payment (minus applicable tax withholdings) of $500,000 if the employee terminates employment during calendar year 2006. The lump sum amount payable to the employee will decrease by $100,000 each calendar year after 2006.

These Employment Agreements do not include change in control clauses.

The base salary for the other three NEOs Richard H. Sharpe, Chief Operating Officer, Maxim C. W. Webb, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, and W. Raymond Webb, Vice President, Investments is recommended to the Committee on an annual basis by the Company's Chief Executive Officer. None of Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, or Mr. Raymond Webb has an employment agreement. The Chief Executive Officer's recommendation is based on base salaries for comparable companies paid for positions of similar scope and responsibilities.

On May 7, 2007, the Board approved a new employment agreement for Mr. Hart, effective May 7, 2007 through December 31, 2012; see Form 8-K filed by the Company with the SEC on May 9, 2007.

Annual Incentive (Bonus) Awards

As recommended by the Committee's independent compensation consultant, The Bankers Bank, in 2005, the Employment Agreements of Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart each contain an identical incentive award, or bonus, provision. The incentive award is based on the growth of book value per share each fiscal year. An incentive award is earned by Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart when a pre-determined threshold is surpassed. Each Employment Agreement establishes this threshold as 80% of the S&P 500's annualized total return for the previous five calendar years. If the growth in book value per share of the Company in a fiscal year exceeds this threshold, the incentive award under each Employment Agreement is equal to 5% of the increase in book value per share multiplied by the number of shares outstanding at the beginning of the fiscal year.

For the incentive award based on 2006 performance, which was paid in March 2007, the threshold, i.e., 80% of the S&P's annualized total return for the five previous calendar years, including 2006, was 4.95%. Since the Company's book value per share increased by 14% in 2006 prior to the accrued bonus incentive compensation and $\frac{7}{8}$ of expenses related to stock appreciation rights, a bonus of \$2,115,635 each was paid in March 2007 for 2006 to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart.

As previously stated, the three other NEOs Richard H. Sharpe, Chief Operating Officer, Maxim C. W. Webb, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, and W. Raymond Webb, Vice President, Investments do not have employment agreements. However, each year that an incentive award is earned under the Employment Agreements of Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart, the Company's Chief Executive Officer recommends to the Committee that a discretionary incentive award be paid to Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, and Mr. Raymond Webb.

The Chief Executive Officer's recommendation for past years has been that Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, and Mr. Raymond Webb each receive an incentive award based on the incentive formula in the Employment Agreements described above and in the same ratio of salary to bonus as paid to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart. The Chief Executive Officer's recommendations for incentive awards to Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, and Mr. Raymond Webb are discretionary with the Chief Executive Officer and are subject to approval by the Committee.

Long-Term Incentives

As recommended by the Committee, the Company utilized cash-settled stock appreciation rights beginning with the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program (the Program) as approved by the Company's shareholders on July 17, 2003 to incentivize directors, officers, consultants, and certain employees. The primary purpose of these stock appreciation rights was to encourage the holders of stock appreciation rights to increase shareholders' equity by providing a mechanism whereby the holders could participate in increased shareholders' equity.

The Bankers Bank recommended to the Compensation Committee amending the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program and instituting the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program was amended on September 21, 2005 by the Compensation Committee. Pursuant to the Compensation Committee's action on September 21, 2005, all outstanding cash-settled stock appreciation rights were monetized to stop future appreciation; as a result, there are no outstanding cash-settled stock appreciation rights under the PICO Holdings, Inc.

2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program. Prior to the Committee's September 21, 2005 action to amend the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program, all the cash-settled stock appreciation rights granted in the Program were fully vested.

The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (Plan) was recommended by the Committee after consulting with The Bankers Bank. It was approved by the Company's shareholders on December 8, 2005. The Plan permits awards to be made by the Committee to participants in various forms including freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights, stock options, restricted stock, performance awards, deferred compensation awards, and other stock-based awards. On December 12, 2005, the Committee awarded grants of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights to the NEOs, the nonemployee directors, and various other employees; see Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year End. The Committee believes that the Plan will closely align the interests of management with shareholders by incentivizing management to increase shareholders' equity and book value per share.

The purpose of the Plan is to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders by providing a variety of incentives for employees, officers (including the NEOs), consultants, and nonemployee directors to increase shareholders' equity and provide a mechanism whereby the participants in the Plan will be able to participate in an increase in share price. The Plan seeks to achieve this by providing for grants of awards in various forms including stock options, freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares, performance units, restricted stock units, deferred compensation awards, and other forms of stock-based awards, although it is not anticipated that all these forms of awards will be granted simultaneously.

The Committee awarded Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart the same number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights under the 2005 Plan as they had cash-settled stock appreciation rights under the 2003 Program, i.e., 838,356 each. The Committee, as recommended by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, increased the number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights awarded under the 2005 Plan to the other NEOs compared to the number of cash-settled stock appreciation rights under the 2003 Program.

Retirement Plans

The Company maintains the PICO Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Employees Retirement Plan and Trust, which complies with the provisions of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act. The NEOs have the opportunity to participate in this 401(k) Plan on the same basis as all other employees.

Insurance and Other Benefits

The Company maintains health insurance, life insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, and disability insurance for all employees, including the NEOs, on a nondiscriminatory basis. The Company also provides paid parking for employees in its La Jolla, California office.

The Compensation Committee has considered the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and related income tax regulations which restrict the deductibility of certain compensation paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and each of the four most highly compensated officers holding office at the end of any year. In view of the Company's compensation structure, the Committee believes that any amount of salary and bonus paid in excess of $1,000,000 to any one individual will not qualify for a corporate tax deduction for the amount over $1,000,000. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor this.

The Committee has never established guidelines or requirements for ownership of the Company's stock. Therefore there is no policy relative to lodging the economic risk of such stock ownership.

The Committee has never engaged in benchmarking either total compensation or any material element of compensation.

The Committee meets as appropriate to discuss compensation, incentive awards, and grants under the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The Company's Secretary, who is not an NEO, usually attends for the purpose of documenting the meeting. Once the Committee makes a decision, e.g., to institute a long-term incentive plan, the Company's NEOs will become involved and will work with outside legal and tax experts to design a plan, subject to the Committee's approval.

Table of Contents

The Company has a severance policy applicable to all officers in which each officer who is terminated for other than cause will receive a severance payment equal to two weeks of salary for each full year of employment. However, this severance payment is not applicable to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart; pursuant to the terms of their January 1, 2006 Employment Agreements, the termination payment provisions in each Employment Agreement are in lieu of the Company's standard severance payment.

All the Company's NEOs have the opportunity to defer compensation into deferred compensation plans established by the Company; see Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Table.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis of this Executive Compensation Report with management. Based on that review and discussion, the Committee has recommended to the Board, and the Board has approved, that this Report be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and the Company's 2007 proxy statement.

- (3) This refers to awards granted by the Compensation Committee on December 12, 2005 under the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (Incentive Plan). The Incentive Plan was approved by the Company s shareholders on December 8, 2005. On December 12, 2005, the Compensation Committee granted the following number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights to the NEOs: Ronald Langley, 838,356; John R. Hart, 838,356; Richard H. Sharpe, 190,454; Maxim C. W. Webb, 163,799; and W. Raymond Webb, 60,000. The exercise price was established by the Compensation Committee as $33.76 for each freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation right, which was the closing price for the

Company's stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on December 12, 2005.

Each freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation right was fully vested on December 12, 2005 and each expires on December 12, 2015.

The dollar values shown in the Stock Awards column represent the full FAS 123R grant date fair value of the freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights awarded to the NEOs by the Compensation Committee on December 12, 2005.

The number of shares to be issued to a NEO who exercises freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights will be based on the net exercise value (i.e., the market value price per share of the Company's stock on the date of exercise, minus the exercise price of $33.76) times the number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights exercised, minus applicable taxes.

- (4) This represents contributions made by the Company for the NEOs to the PICO Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Employees Retirement Plan and Trust. None of the life insurance premiums paid by the Company for any one NEO exceeded $10,000 in 2006, 2005, or 2004 and the Company's health insurance plans do not discriminate in favor of the NEOs and are available to all employees.

- (5) This represents amounts attributable to cash-settled stock appreciation rights granted to the NEOs on July 17, 2003, pursuant to shareholder of the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation-Rights Program (the Program). On September 21, 2005, the Compensation Committee decided that amending the Program was in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. Under the terms of the September 21, 2005 amendment to the Program, each holder of cash-settled stock appreciation rights, including the NEOs, monetized the difference between his or her exercise prices for the cash-settled stock appreciation rights and the September 21, 2005 closing price of $33.23 for the Company's stock on the Nasdaq Global Market. Prior to the Compensation Committee's September 21, 2005 action to amend the Program, all cash-settled stock appreciation rights were fully vested. After September 21, 2005, no cash-settled stock appreciation rights were outstanding or available for grant under the Program. Based on the September 21, 2005 closing price on the Nasdaq Global Market for the Company's common stock, the NEOs realized the following values when the cash-settled stock appreciation rights in the Program were monetized on September 21, 2005: Ronald Langley, $15,625,170; John R. Hart, $17,851,842; Richard H. Sharpe, $2,559,120; Maxim
