Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 30, 2007, Cooper Tire & Rubber Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the Purchase Agreement) with Michelin North America, Inc., a New York corporation (the Buyer), to purchase all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Oliver Rubber Company, a California corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and its subsidiaries (Oliver Rubber). Oliver Rubber, which has annual sales of approximately $100 million, produces tread rubber and retreading equipment.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the Company will receive gross proceeds of $69 million for the sale of 100% of the issued and outstanding Oliver Rubber capital stock (the Transaction). As part of the Transaction, the Company will also transfer the Salisbury Machine Company division to the Buyer and will enter into a transition services agreement with the Buyer for a period of up to 6 months following the closing of the Transaction. Under the Purchase Agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify the Buyer for certain matters. Such indemnification has an initial threshold of $2.5 million, is capped at $69 million, and will not apply to losses equal to or less than $25,000. The Purchase Agreement also contemplates a working capital adjustment after closing.

The closing of the Transaction, which the Purchase Agreement contemplates will occur no later than September 30, 2007, is subject to customary closing conditions, regulatory approvals, including under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, and the completion of a Phase II environmental investigation by the Buyer at Oliver Rubber's Asheboro facility the results of which investigation must be satisfactory to the Buyer.

The Company and the Buyer currently have certain business relationships. The Company currently supplies the Buyer with certain rubber mixes and finished tread rolls.

The summary of the Purchase Agreement and the Transaction described above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Company's press release, which press release is filed by the Company as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
