Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 14, 2015, Republic Bank (the “Bank”), the wholly owned banking subsidiary of Republic First Bancorp, Inc. (the “Company”), entered into employment agreements with each of the following named executive officers of the Company and the Bank: Andrew J. Logue, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Bank; Frank A. Cavallaro, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank and the Company; Rhonda Costello, Executive Vice President and Chief Retail Officer of the Bank; and Jay M. Neilon, Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer of the Bank. Each of the employment agreements is for a one-year term commencing on July 1, 2015, with annual renewals thereafter absent notice of non-renewal by either party at least six months prior to an annual renewal date.

Under the employment agreements, each executive officer is entitled to receive a specified annual base salary and is eligible to participate in other compensation plans or programs maintained by the Company or the Bank for senior executive officers, including stock compensation, retirement, savings and similar plans. Each executive officer is also able to earn an annual bonus based on criteria established by the Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors. The annual base salary amounts under each agreement are substantially equivalent to the salary amounts disclosed for each officer in the Company’s 2015 proxy statement.

In the event of termination of an executive officer’s employment, including resignation by the officer for specified events of “good reason” or a failure to continue an officer’s employment at termination of the employment agreement, the officer would be entitled to receive a lump-sum payment equal to two times the officer’s base salary in effect immediately prior to termination (the “Severance Payment”). If the executive’s employment is terminated as a result of, or in contemplation of, a change in control of the Company, the executive would be entitled to receive the Severance Payment unless the executive is offered a comparable position in the Philadelphia metropolitan area for a period of at least twenty-four months after the change in control with compensation substantially similar to or greater than executive’s compensation with the Bank. No severance is payable in the event of termination of an executive’s employment for specified events of “cause,” or as a result of an executive’s death, disability or resignation without good reason.

The employment agreements include customary provisions relating to non-competition and non-solicitation of customers and employees for a period of twelve months following termination of employment. The employment agreements replace and supersede any prior employment or change in control agreements to which any of the executive officers were a party.

The foregoing description of the employment agreements is qualified by reference to form of employment agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits:

10.1 Form of employment agreement by and between Republic Bank and each of Andrew J. Logue, Frank A. Cavallaro, Rhonda Costello and Jay M. Neilon.
