HUANENG POWER INTERNATIONAL, INC.
Signs Medium-to-long Term Coal Supply Agreements with Yangquan Coal Group and Huating Coal Group

(Beijing, China, October 25, 2004) Huaneng Power International, Inc. (the "Company") [NYSE: HNP; HKEx: 902; SSE: 600011] signs medium-to-long term coal supply agreements with Yangquan Coal Group Limited Liability Company ("Yangquan Coal Group") and Huating Coal Group Limited Liability Company ("Huating Coal Group") respectively on October 22, 2004. These were other medium-to-long term coal supply agreements after the Company had signed medium-to-long term agreements with Shenhua Group Co. Ltd., China Coal Import & Export Company and Shanxi Coking Coal Group Co., Ltd. for purchase of thermal coal.

Pursuant to the medium-to-long term agreement signed between the Company and Yangquan Coal Group, Yangquan Coal Group will supply the Company with anthracite and lean coal amounting to 2 million tonnes, 4.8 million tonnes, 5.6 million tonnes, 7.0 million tonnes and 8.0 million tonnes, respectively for each of five years from 2005 to 2009. The Company and Yangquan Coal Group have determined the basic coal price for 2005, as well as the price increase / decrease ranges for the years thereafter.

Pursuant to the medium-to-long term agreement signed between the Company and Huating Coal Group, Huating Coal Group will be providing the Company with high-quality thermal coal of 6.4 million tonnes each year from 2005 to 2007. The Company and Huating Coal Group have agreed on the basic contract price and determined the price increase / decrease ranges for the years thereafter. Yangquan Coal Group is one of the largest anthracite producers in China with annual output of 16 million tonnes of high-quality anthracite. The company is among the first batch of State-affirmed super-large coal enterprises. Huating Coal Group is a coal producer with rich resources, advanced exploration techniques and mechanized production process in northwestern China. With an annual output of high-quality thermal coal of 15 million tonnes, it is a large modernized enterprise integrating coal production and sale and coal chemicals production.

Throughout the years, Yangquan Coal Group, Huating Coal Group and the Company have been maintaining good relations on coal supplies and other areas. In view of the difficult market situations regarding coal supply, power demand and transportation, the parties have been working hard on the principles of integrity and mutual benefits with an aim to resolve the problem of power supply shortage. The cooperation between the parties provides the thrust for the operation of medium-to-long term agreements on coal supply and effectively
