In connection with these results, Robert Price, President of the Company said:

"We are delighted with the performance of our Verizon Wireless of the East partnership supervised by David Benson of Verizon Communications. We continue to explore new prudent acquisitions including mutual fund companies, cellular properties, independent telephone companies, broadcasting companies, and converting our company into a closed-end investment company."

On August 15, 2002 Price Communications Corporation completed its transaction with Verizon, under which the cellular telephone assets of its Price Communications Wireless subsidiary were exchanged for a preferred limited partnership interest in a new partnership controlled by Verizon Wireless. This interest may be exchanged in 2006 into the common stock of Verizon Communications, Inc.
