Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 20, 2008, Altairnano, Inc. ("Altairnano"), a second-tier subsidiary of Altair Nanotechnologies Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a letter agreement with Phoenix Motorcars, Inc. ("Phoenix") to document an understanding reached earlier with Phoenix with respect to the forty-seven (47) prototype battery packs sold to Phoenix in 2007.

As previously reported, Altairnano had offered a warranty replacement with respect to the 47 prototype battery packs. Pursuant to the letter agreement, Altairnano will ship the original 47 prototype battery packs to Phoenix for use solely in demonstration vehicles in which Phoenix will install an additional safety system, and Altairnano has cancelled an approximately $1.7 million promissory note made by Phoenix in favor of Altairnano. The promissory note represents approximately 40% of the purchase price of the battery packs, the remainder of which was previously paid with cash.

Under the letter agreement, the battery packs are delivered "as is" without explicit or implied warranties. As a result, the Company has reversed a $2.8 million warranty liability associated with the battery packs. In addition, Altairnano is entitled to 10% of the monetized value of any California Air Resources Board zero-emission-vehicle credits associated with the battery packs.

The description of the letter agreement set forth above is, by its nature, a summary description and omits certain detailed terms set forth in the underlying letter agreement. The summary set forth above is qualified by the terms and conditions of the letter agreement attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report.

Item 1.02 termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 24, 2008, the Company, Altairnano, Phoenix and Phoenix MC, Inc. ("Phoenix MC") entered into a letter agreement terminating the Supply Agreement dated January 8, 2007, as amended to date (the "Supply Agreement"), by and between Altairnano and Phoenix MC, as successor-in-interest to Phoenix. Under the Supply Agreement, Altairnano had agreed to supply, and Phoenix had agreed to purchase, 35 KWh battery pack systems for use in CARB type II BEV and CARB type III BEV electric motorcars over a several year period.

The purpose of the termination letter, together with the letter agreement described in Item 1.01 above, was to eliminate uncertainties about the status of the Supply Agreement, battery packs being shipped to Phoenix, the offer of warranty, the promissory note and related issues. The expectation of Altairnano and Phoenix MC is that, having settled all past issues between them, the parties can better focus on building and delineating a new development and supply relationship for the future.

The description of the letter agreement set forth above is, by its nature, a summary description and omits certain detailed terms set forth in the underlying letter agreement. The summary set forth above is qualified by the terms and conditions of the letter agreement attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report.
