Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 26, 2007, ePlus inc. (the “Company”) entered into indemnification agreements, dated as of June 21, 2007, with two of its directors, Mr. Eric Hovde and Mr. Irving Beimler, who both joined the Board of Directors in November 2006. The indemnification agreements, which are substantially similar to indemnification agreements between the Company and its other directors, provide certain indemnification rights in addition to those available to such persons pursuant to the Amended Certificate of Incorporation of the Company. The indemnification agreements provide that the Company shall indemnify and advance expenses to the indemnified persons as provided in the indemnification agreements and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law in effect on the date of the indemnification agreements and to such greater extent as applicable law may thereafter from time to time permit. Other than with respect to proceedings by or in the right of the Company, the indemnification agreements provide for indemnification of expenses, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement related to the indemnified person serving as a director or officer of the Company if the indemnified person acted in good faith and in a manner such indemnified person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that such indemnified person’s conduct was unlawful. With respect to proceedings by or in the right of the Company, the indemnification agreements provide for indemnification of expenses related to the indemnified person serving as a director or officer of the Company if the indemnified person acted in good faith and in such a manner such indemnified person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company; provided, however, that no indemnification against such expenses shall be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which such indemnified person has been adjudged to be liable to the Company unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such proceeding was brought determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such indemnified person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

The foregoing is a summary description of certain terms of the Indemnification Agreements and is incomplete. It is qualified in its entirety by the Form of Indemnification Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.5 to our Registration Statement on Form S-1 (File No. 333-11737) originally filed on September 11, 1996, and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On June 25, 2007, the Company received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market advising that the Board of Directors of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (the “Nasdaq Board”) had stayed the previously disclosed decision of the Nasdaq Listing and Hearing Review Council (the “Listing Council”) to suspend the Company’s securities from trading on the Nasdaq Stock Market, pending further consideration by the Nasdaq Board in July 2007.

The Nasdaq Board decided to call for the review the previously disclosed decision of the Listing Council regarding the Company’s potential delisting. The Company had previously disclosed the decision of the Listing Council to suspend the Company’s securities from trading on the Nasdaq Stock Market at the opening of business on July 9, 2007, if the Company did not come into compliance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(14) by the close of business on July 5, 2007.

A copy of the Company’s press release issued on June 26, 2007, relating to the foregoing, is filed as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
