On June 19, 2007, The Flooring Zone, Inc. (the Company) entered into a non-binding letter of intent with Brilliant Technologies, Corp., a Delaware corporation (Brilliant). Consummation of the transaction contemplated by the letter of intent is subject to a satisfactory due diligence review by the Company and Brilliant, the negotiation and execution of a definitive agreement and all required approvals. No assurance can be given that a definitive agreement will be concluded or that the transaction contemplated will close. Under the terms of the letter of intent either party may terminate negotiations and the letter of intent at any time for any reason or for no reason.

The non-binding letter of intent contemplates the acquisition of LTDnetworks, Inc., a Brilliant subsidiary, by the Company. LTDnetworks, which owns and operates the QTrax technology and business, is a development stage company that specializes in the development of innovative technologies, software and services for online e-tailers, advertising, media and marketing companies. The letter of intent proposes the Company will acquire all of the issued and outstanding stock of LTDnetworks in exchange for newly issued Company common stock representing 80% of the then outstanding common stock of the Company. In connection with this transaction, certain financing parties associated with the transaction expect to arrange financing including a $1.5 million bridge convertible debt financing and an equity financing of $3 million to $4 million prior to the execution of the definitive agreement and consummation of any transaction. These financings will entitle the parties to acquire a portion of the remaining 20% of the then outstanding common stock of the Company. The parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to execute a definitive agreement within 45 days of the letter of intent. No assurance can be given that the parties will be able to negotiate and execute a definitive agreement or that the transactions herein contemplated will close.
