Table of Contents

This list is not exhaustive of the factors that may affect any of CIBC's forward-looking statements. Additional information about these factors can be found in the "Management of Risk" sections of CIBC's 2016 Annual Report and its 2017 Second Quarter Report (each as defined below), each of which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus. CANADIAN IMPERIAL BANK OF COMMERCE

CIBC is a diversified financial institution governed by the Bank Act (Canada) (the "Bank Act"). CIBC's registered and head office is located in Commerce Court, Toronto, Canada, M5L 1A2. CIBC was formed in 1961 through the amalgamation of The Canadian Bank of Commerce (originally incorporated in 1858) and Imperial Bank of Canada (originally incorporated in 1875).

Additional information with respect to CIBC's businesses is included in the documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus. See "Documents Incorporated by Reference" in this prospectus.

Background of Transaction and Share Registration

On July 7, 2017, Atlantic Trust Group, LLC ("Atlantic Trust"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, entered into a purchase and sale agreement pursuant to which it agreed to acquire the operating subsidiaries of Geneva Holding Company of Chicago, LLC ("Geneva"). Prior to the closing of the transaction (the "Closing"), these operating subsidiaries will be transferred to The Matterhorn Delaware Directed Trust (the "Selling Shareholder") as part of a liquidation of Geneva. Pursuant to such purchase and sale agreement, Atlantic Trust agreed, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, to pay the Selling Shareholder approximately $132 million in upfront consideration, through the payment of approximately $31 million in cash and the issuance to the Selling Shareholder of approximately $101 million of CIBC's common shares. Additionally, contingent consideration, of up to $65 million in the aggregate may become payable following the Closing, subject to achievement of certain metrics relating to the performance of the acquired business. Such additional consideration would be payable to the Selling Shareholder in a combination of cash and common shares of CIBC on the second and third anniversaries of the Closing, depending on the extent to which such metrics are achieved. In connection with the acquisition, CIBC agreed to file with the SEC one or more registration statements covering the resale of the common shares issued at the Closing (the "Closing Date Shares"), a portion of which shares are covered by the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part. The obligation of Geneva to transfer the acquired business to CIBC in exchange for the issuance of cash and CIBC common shares is not subject to closing conditions within the control of Geneva or the Selling Shareholder. The number of the Closing Date Shares to be issued to the Selling Shareholder is determined by a formula set forth in the purchase and sale agreement. The portion of the Closing Date Shares covered by this prospectus is a fixed number of shares. CIBC has further agreed to file with the SEC a registration statement covering the resale of any additional CIBC common shares that may be issued pursuant to the purchase and sale agreement, including if the acquired business achieves future performance milestones on the second and third anniversaries of the Closing, which shares are not covered by the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

RISK FACTORS

CIBC's business is subject to uncertainties and risks. You should carefully consider and evaluate all of the information included and incorporated by reference in this prospectus, including the risk factors incorporated by reference from CIBC's Annual Report on Form 40-F for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2016 (the "2016 Annual Report"), including the categories of risks identified and discussed in the "Management of risk" section of CIBC's management's discussion and analysis included in the 2016 Annual Report, the "Management of risk" section of CIBC's management's discussion and analysis included in CIBC's Form 6-K with respect to CIBC's Report to Shareholders for the Second Quarter, 2017 (the "2017 Second Quarter Report"), and from time to time in other filings with the SEC. CIBC encourages you to read these risk factors in their entirety. In addition to these risks, other risks and uncertainties not presently known to CIBC or that it currently deems immaterial may also adversely affect its business operations and financial condition. Such risks could cause actual results to differ materially from anticipated results. This could cause the trading price of CIBC's common shares to decline, perhaps significantly, and investors may lose part or all of their investment.

DESCRIPTION OF CIBC SHARE CAPITAL

Set forth below is a summary of the material terms of CIBC's share capital and material provisions of the Bank Act and CIBC's by-laws as they relate to CIBC's share capital. The following summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by the Bank Act, CIBC's by-laws and the actual terms and conditions of such shares. We urge you to read the provisions of the Bank Act (in particular, Sections 372-408 and the definitions in Sections 2.2 and 8) and CIBC's by-laws, which are relevant to a full understanding of CIBC's share capital. Copies of CIBC's by-laws are available, without charge, to any person by following the instructions listed in the section entitled "Where You Can Find More Information."

CIBC Share Capital

CIBC's authorized share capital consists of (i) an unlimited number of common shares, without nominal or par value, (ii) an unlimited number of Class A preferred shares, without nominal or par value, provided that the maximum aggregate consideration for all outstanding Class A preferred shares at any time may not exceed C$10 billion and (iii) an unlimited number of Class B preferred shares, without nominal or par value, provided that the maximum aggregate consideration for all outstanding Class B preferred shares at any time may not exceed C$10 billion. Table of Contents

CIBC Common Shares

Shareholder Meetings and Voting

A holder of common shares is entitled to notice of and to attend all shareholders' meetings, except meetings at which only holders of a specified class or series of shares are entitled to vote, and for all purposes will be entitled to one vote for each common share held.

Size of Board of Directors

The Bank Act requires that the number of directors on CIBC's board of directors be at least seven. All directors of CIBC are elected annually. The Bank Act also requires that at least a majority of the directors on CIBC's board of directors must be, at the time of each director's election or appointment, resident Canadians.

Dividends

The holders of common shares are entitled to receive dividends as and when declared by the board of directors of CIBC, subject to the preference of holders of preferred shares.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of CIBC, after payment of all outstanding deposits and debts and subject to the preference of any shares ranking senior to the common shares, the holders of common shares will be entitled to a pro rata distribution of the remaining assets of CIBC.

Preemptive, Subscription, Redemption and Conversion Rights

The holders of common shares have no preemptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights. The rights, preferences and privileges of the common shares are subject to the rights of the holders of preferred shares.

CIBC Preferred Shares

Class A preferred shares and Class B preferred shares are issuable in series with such rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions as the board of directors of CIBC, subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, may determine from time to time.

The Bank Act requires that banks maintain adequate capital in relation to their operations. The Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada) establishes capital adequacy requirements for issuances of regulatory capital by banks. These requirements include that all regulatory capital must be able to absorb losses in a failed financial institution. Effective January 1, 2013, in accordance with capital adequacy requirements adopted by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada), non-common capital instruments issued after January 1, 2013, including preferred shares, must include non-viability contingent capital provisions, providing for the full and permanent automatic conversion (an "NVCC Automatic Conversion") of such non-common capital instruments into common shares upon the occurrence of certain trigger events relating to financial viability (the "NVCC Provisions") in order to qualify as regulatory capital.

Table of Contents

with respect to the payment of dividends and on the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CIBC, provided that an NVCC Automatic Conversion as contemplated under the NVCC Provisions applicable to a series of Class A preferred shares has not occurred.

Restrictions on Creation of Additional Class A Preferred Shares

In addition to any shareholder approvals required by applicable law, including the Bank Act, the approval of the holders of the Class A preferred shares given in the manner described under the section titled "Modification" below, is required for any increase in the maximum aggregate consideration for which the Class A preferred shares may be issued and for the creation of any shares ranking prior to or on a parity with the Class A preferred shares.

Modification

Approval of amendments to the provisions of the Class A preferred shares as a class and any other authorization required to be given by the holders of Class A preferred shares may be given by a resolution carried out by an affirmative vote of not less than $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ of the votes cast at a meeting at which the holders of 10% of the outstanding Class A preferred shares are present or represented by proxy or, if no quorum is present at such meeting, at an adjourned meeting at which the shareholders then-present would form the necessary quorum.

Rights on Liquidation

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of CIBC, provided that a NVCC Automatic Conversion as contemplated under the NVCC Provisions applicable to a series of Class A preferred shares has not occurred, the holders of the Class A preferred shares will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the price at which such shares are issued together with such premium, if any, as shall have been provided for with respect to the Class A preferred shares of any series, together with all declared and unpaid dividends, before any amount is paid or any assets of CIBC are distributed to the holders of any shares ranking junior to the Class A preferred shares. Upon payment to the holders of the Class A preferred shares of the amounts so payable to them, they will not be entitled to share in any further distribution of the assets of CIBC. If an NVCC Automatic Conversion as contemplated under the NVCC Provisions applicable to a series of Class A preferred shares has occurred, all of the Class A preferred shares of such series shall have been converted into common shares of CIBC in accordance with a pre-determined conversion formula specified at the time of issuance of the Class A preferred shares of such series and will rank on parity with all other common shares of CIBC.

Voting Rights

Subject to the provisions of the Bank Act, the directors of CIBC are empowered to set voting rights, if any, for each series of Class A preferred shares.

Contingent Conversion of Certain Series of Class A Preferred Shares

All of CIBC's currently outstanding Class A preferred shares (Series 39, 41 and 43) were issued after January 1, 2013 and, accordingly, contain NVCC Provisions in their respective share terms and conditions. The number of common shares into which such Class A preferred shares would be converted upon an NVCC Automatic Conversion will be determined in accordance with a pre-determined conversion formula specified at the time of issuance of such Class A preferred shares.

Bank Act Restrictions Related to Share Ownership

The Bank Act contains restrictions on the issue, transfer, acquisition, beneficial ownership and voting of all shares of a chartered bank such as CIBC. By way of summary, no person shall be a major shareholder of a bank if the bank has equity of C$12 billion or more (which would include CIBC). A person is a major shareholder of a bank where (i) the aggregate of the shares of any class of voting shares beneficially owned by that person, by entities controlled by that person and by any person associated or acting jointly or in concert with that person (as contemplated by the Bank Act) is more than 20% of that class of voting shares or (ii) the aggregate of the shares of any class of non-voting shares beneficially owned by that person, by entities controlled by that person and by any person associated or acting jointly or in concert with that person (as contemplated by the Bank Act) is more than 30% of that class of non-voting shares. No person shall have a significant interest in any class of shares of a bank, including CIBC, unless the person first receives the approval of the Minister of Finance (Canada). For purposes of the Bank Act, a person has a significant interest in a class of shares of a bank where the aggregate of any shares of the class beneficially owned by that person, by entities controlled by that person and by any person associated or acting jointly or in concert with that person (as contemplated by the Bank Act) exceeds 10% of all of the outstanding shares of that class of shares of such bank. If a person contravenes any of these restrictions, the Minister of Finance may, by order, direct that person to dispose of all or any portion of those shares.

In addition, the Bank Act prohibits a bank, including CIBC, from recording in its securities register the transfer or issuance of shares of any class to Her Majesty in right of Canada or of a province, an agent or agency of Her Majesty in right of Canada or of a province, a government of a foreign country or any political subdivision of a foreign country, or an agent or agency of a foreign government. The Bank Act also suspends the exercise of any voting rights attached to any share of a bank, including CIBC, that is beneficially owned by Her Majesty in right of Canada or of a province, an agency of Her Majesty in right of Canada or of a province, a government of a foreign country or any political subdivision of a foreign country, or any agency thereof. Certain exceptions apply.

Under the Bank Act, CIBC cannot purchase any of its shares, including its common shares, or redeem any of its redeemable shares unless the prior consent of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada) has been obtained. In addition, the Bank Act prohibits a bank from purchasing any of its shares or redeeming any of its redeemable shares or paying any dividends if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the bank is, or the payment would cause the bank to be, in contravention of the Bank Act's requirement to maintain, in relation to the bank's operations, adequate capital and adequate and appropriate forms of liquidity and to comply with any regulations or directions of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada) in relation thereto.

Bank Act Implications for the Amendments to the Rights, Privileges, Restrictions and Conditions of CIBC's Share Capital

Under the Bank Act, the rights of holders of CIBC's shares can be changed by the board of directors of CIBC by making, amending or repealing the by-laws of CIBC. The board of directors of CIBC must submit such by-law, or amendment to or repeal of a by-law, to the shareholders of CIBC in accordance with the procedures of the Bank Act and the by-laws of CIBC, and the shareholders must approve the by-law, amendment to or repeal of the by-law, by special resolution to be effective. Under the Bank Act, a special resolution is a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast by or on behalf of the shareholders who voted in respect of that resolution or signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution. In some circumstances, the Bank Act mandates that holders of shares of a class or a series are entitled to vote separately as a class or series on a proposal to amend the by-laws of the bank.

Table of ContentsSELLING SHAREHOLDER

This prospectus relates to the offer of the Closing Date Shares, all of which are being offered for resale by the Selling Shareholder. As described above under "Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce Background of Transaction and Share Registration," the Selling Shareholder will acquire these shares from CIBC at the Closing. The Selling Shareholder may from time to time offer and sell pursuant to this prospectus any or all of the common shares being registered.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the Selling Shareholder and its beneficial ownership of CIBC common shares, including the Closing Date Shares but excluding any additional shares that may be issued after the Closing under the purchase and sale agreement between Geneva and CIBC. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the Rule 13d-3(a) of the Exchange Act, and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. The table is based upon information provided by the Selling Shareholder. The table assumes that all the shares being offered by the Selling Shareholder pursuant to this prospectus are ultimately sold in the offering. The Selling Shareholder may sell some, all or none of its shares covered by this prospectus, and as a result the actual number of shares that will be held by the Selling Shareholder upon termination of the offering may exceed the minimum number set forth in the table.

* Represents beneficial ownership of less than one percent (1%) of CIBC's outstanding common shares.

(1) Based on 433,927,176 common shares outstanding as at June 30, 2017.

(2) The Matterhorn Delaware Directed Trust was formed on July 7, 2017. The trustee is The Bryn Mawr Trust Company of Delaware. Immediately prior to the Closing, Geneva will transfer to the trust all of Geneva's assets and the members of Geneva as of that time will become the beneficiaries of the trust. The trustee will take directions as to disposition and, as applicable, voting of the CIBC common shares and other assets from a management committee comprised of the following members of Geneva: Robert C. Bridges, Thomas S. Bridges, Amit Dhawan and John P. Huber.

Except for being a holder of CIBC securities listed in the table above and as described above under "Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce Background of Transaction and Share Registration," the Selling Shareholder has not had any position, office or other material relationship with CIBC within the past three years.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Selling Shareholder may, from time to time, sell any or all of the common shares it beneficially owns and that are offered hereby.

Table of Contents

The sales may be made on one or more securities exchanges or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, at prices and on terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price or otherwise negotiated, or in negotiated transactions.

The Selling Shareholder may effect such transactions by selling the common shares directly or to or through broker-dealers or agents. The common shares may be sold by the Selling Shareholder directly or through broker-dealers or agents by one or more of, or a combination of, the following:

on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the securities may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;

in the over-the-counter market;

in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or systems or in the over-the-counter market;

broker-dealers may agree with the Selling Shareholder to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

a block trade (which may include crosses) in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the common shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by such broker or dealer for its account;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;

in privately negotiated transactions;

in short sales;

through the writing of options on the shares, whether or not the options are listed on an options exchange;

through distributions of the shares by the Selling Shareholder to its beneficiaries; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The Selling Shareholder may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, or pursuant to other available exemptions from the registration requirements under the Securities Act, rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

Broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of commissions and may receive commissions from purchasers of the securities for whom they may act as agents. If any broker-dealer purchases the securities as principal, it may effect resales of the securities from time to time to or through other broker-dealers, and other broker-dealers may receive compensation in the form of concessions or commissions from the purchasers of securities for whom they may act as agents.

In connection with sales of the common shares under this prospectus, the Selling Shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, who may in turn engage in short sales of the common shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The Selling Shareholder also may sell common shares short and deliver them to close out the short positions or loan or pledge the common shares to broker-dealers that in turn may sell them. In addition, from time to time, the Selling Shareholder may pledge, hypothecate or grant a security interest in some or all of the securities owned by it. In the event of an event of default, upon any foreclosure by pledgees, secured parties or persons to whom any of the common shares have been hypothecated, the number of the Selling Shareholder's securities offered under this prospectus will decrease.

The Selling Shareholder and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares covered by this prospectus may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities

Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

To CIBC's knowledge, there are currently no plans, arrangements or understandings between the Selling Shareholder and any broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of the shares covered by this prospectus by such Selling Shareholder. If the Selling Shareholder notifies CIBC that a material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer or other agent for the sale of shares through a block trade, special offering or secondary distribution, CIBC may be required to file a prospectus supplement pursuant to applicable SEC rules promulgated under the Securities Act.

There can be no assurance that the Selling Shareholder will sell any or all of the common shares registered pursuant to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

CIBC is required to pay a portion of the fees and expenses incident to the registration of the common shares covered by this prospectus.

Once sold under the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part, the common shares will be freely tradable in the hands of persons other than CIBC's affiliates.

LIMITATIONS ON ENFORCEMENT OF U.S. LAWS AGAINST CIBC, ITS MANAGEMENT AND OTHERS

CIBC is a Canadian chartered bank. Many of its directors and executive officers, including many of the persons who signed the registration statement on Form F-3, of which this prospectus is a part, and some of the experts named in this document, are resident outside of the United States, and a substantial portion of CIBC's assets and all or a substantial portion of the assets of such persons are located outside of the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for United States investors to effect service of process within the United States upon such persons to enforce against them judgments of the courts of the United States predicated upon, among other things, the civil liability provisions of the federal securities laws of the United States. In addition, it may be difficult for United States investors to enforce, in original actions brought in courts in jurisdictions located outside of the United States, among other things, civil liabilities predicated upon such securities laws.

CIBC has been advised by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, its Canadian counsel, that a judgment of a United States court may be enforceable in Canada if: (a) there is a real and substantial connection between the events, persons and circumstances and the forum in which the United States proceedings occur such that the United States court properly assumed jurisdiction; (b) the United States judgment is final and conclusive and for a sum certain; (c) the defendant was properly served with originating process from the United States court; and (d) the United States law that led to the judgment is not contrary to Canadian public policy, as that term would be applied by a Canadian court. CIBC has been advised that in normal circumstances, only civil judgments and not other rights arising from United States securities legislation (for example, penal or similar awards made by a court in a regulatory prosecution or proceeding) are enforceable in Canada. The enforceability of a United States judgment in Canada will be subject to the requirements that: (i) an action to enforce the United States judgment must be commenced in the Canadian court within any applicable limitation period; (ii) the Canadian court has discretion to stay or decline to hear an action on the United States judgment if the United States judgment is under appeal or there is another subsisting judgment in any jurisdiction relating to the same cause of action; (iii) the Canadian court will render judgment only in Canadian dollars; and (iv) an action in the Canadian court on the United States judgment may be affected by bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application limiting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally. The enforceability of a United States judgment in Canada will be subject to the following defenses: (i) the United States judgment was obtained by fraud or in a manner contrary to the principles of natural justice; (ii) the United States judgment is for a claim which under the law of the applicable

Canadian province would be characterized as based on a foreign revenue, expropriatory, penal or other public law; (iii) the United States judgment is contrary to the public policy of the applicable Canadian province or to an order made by the Attorney General of Canada under the Foreign Extraterritorial Measures Act (Canada) or by the Competition Tribunal under the Competition Act (Canada) in respect of certain judgments referred to in these statutes; and (iv) the United States judgment has been satisfied or is void or voidable under United States law.

LEGAL MATTERS

Unless otherwise specified in the prospectus supplement, certain legal matters under Canadian law relating to the securities offered by a prospectus supplement will be passed upon on behalf of CIBC by Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP. Certain legal matters in connection with the offering relating to United States law will be passed upon on behalf of CIBC by Mayer Brown LLP. Counsel for any underwriters, dealers or agents will be named in the applicable prospectus supplement.

PART II: INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 8. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under the Bank Act and CIBC's by-laws, CIBC indemnifies any director or officer of CIBC, any former director or officer of CIBC, and any other person who acts or acted at CIBC's request as a director or officer of or in a similar capacity for another entity, and his or her heirs and personal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment reasonably incurred by them in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which they are involved because of that association with CIBC or other entity; provided (i) the person acted honestly and in good faith or in a similar capacity; and (ii) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the person had reasonable grounds for belief that their conduct was lawful.

Under the Bank Act, the indemnified persons referred to above are entitled to indemnity from CIBC in respect of all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding to which the person is subject because of their association with CIBC or another entity, if the person seeking indemnity:

was not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything they ought to have done; and fulfills the conditions set out in (i) and (ii) above.

CIBC has obtained director's and officer's liability insurance coverage, which, subject to policy terms and limitations, provides coverage for directors and officers of CIBC, acting as directors and officers of CIBC and its subsidiaries, in certain circumstances where CIBC is unable to provide indemnification to such directors and officers.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 9. Exhibits.

The exhibits listed in the exhibit index beginning immediately following the signature pages hereto are filed herewith or incorporated herein by reference.

Item 10. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1)

To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i)

To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii)

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement;

Table of Contents

(iii)

To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that the undertakings set forth in paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the Registration Statement.

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3)

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4)

If the Registrant is a foreign private issuer, to file a post-effective amendment to the Registration Statement to include any financial statements required by Form 40-F at the start of any delayed offering or throughout a continuous offering. Financial statements and information otherwise required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act need not be furnished, provided, that the Registrant includes in the prospectus, by means of a post-effective amendment, financial statements required pursuant to this paragraph (a)(4) and other information necessary to ensure that all other information in the prospectus is at least as current as the date of those financial statements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a post-effective amendment need not be filed to include financial statements and information required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act or Rule 3-19 of Regulation S-X if such financial statements and information are contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(5)

That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, if the Registrant is subject to Rule 430C, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the Registration Statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, in a primary offering of securities of the Registrant pursuant to this Registration Statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;
 - (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and
 - (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.
- (b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
