Section 5 –Corporate Governance and Management.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective July 9, 2010, Kirk Rowland resigned as our Chief Financial Officer and from our Board of Directors. While it is expected that Mr. Rowland will continue to assist our company from time to time in connection with various accounting and related financial matters on an independent consulting basis, the functions for which Mr. Rowland previously had primary responsibility within our company have been assumed for the time being by a combination of our Chief Executive Officer, Steven Malone, as well as others within our accounting department that had been serving under Mr. Rowland up until his departure. Although the individuals assuming these additional responsibilities are not receiving any related additional compensation from the company, and we do not expect that they will, we do expect them to continue to perform these additional functions until such time, if at all, as we hire a permanent replacement for Mr. Rowland.
