Item 8.01. Other Events.

Security Capital Corporation (the "Company") announced on March 2, 2005 that it notified the American Stock Exchange ("AMEX") on February 28, 2005 that it currently expects to file its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2004 (the "Third Quarter Form 10-Q") by March 11, 2005. As previously announced, the Company had expected to file its Third Quarter Form 10-Q by March 1, 2005. The Company's Audit Committee and its counsel are in the process of finalizing the report of the results of the previously announced internal investigation.

The Company also announced that it expects that the outcome of the Audit Committee's investigation will not have a material impact on the Company's financial position at September 30, 2004 or its results of operations or cash flows for the three- and nine-month periods then ended. Additionally, other than the impact of the cost of performing such investigation and other supplemental procedures, the Company does not expect that the outcome of such efforts will have a material impact on the Company's financial position at December 31, 2004 or its results of operations or cash flows for the 12-month period then ended. The Company does not expect to restate its financial results for any prior periods and expects to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

The Company has discussed with AMEX an extension until March 11, 2005 for filing the Third Quarter Form 10-Q and the Company has submitted a letter to AMEX requesting such extension. The Company expects that such request will be accepted by AMEX.

On March 2, 2005, the Company issued a press release announcing that it now expects to file the Third Quarter Form 10-Q by March 11, 2005. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
