Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On March 16, 2007, Schmitt Industries, Inc. (the Company) notified The NASDAQ Stock Market that it was taking action with regard to the composition of its Board of Director (Board) committees, which action was taken in view of NASDAQ listing requirements.

NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4350(d)(2)(A) requires, among other things, that each of member of the Company's audit committee be independent as defined under NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4200. Timothy D.J. Hennessy, a member of the Company's Board and audit committee, is a consultant to VRB Power Systems Inc. (VRB), and Wayne Case, the Company's Chairman of the Board and President, serves on VRB's compensation committee. Mr. Hennessy's duties at VRB may from time to time include those typically associated with an executive officer, and, accordingly, may create a situation where, arguably, there is a violation of NASDAQ Marketplace Rule 4350(d)(2)(A).

To address this issue, on March 15, 2007, Mr. Hennessy resigned from the Company's audit committee and the Board appointed Michael J. Ellsworth to replace him. Mr. Ellsworth currently serves as a member of the Board and is independent under NASDAQ rules. Additionally, to ensure that the Company's compensation and audit committees will be comprised solely of independent directors, Mr. Hennessy also resigned as a member of each committee. On March 15, 2007, the Board appointed David M. Hudson to replace Mr. Hennessy on the Company's compensation committee, and appointed Mr. Ellsworth to replace Mr. Hennessy on the Company's nominating committee. Mr. Hudson currently serves on the Board and is independent under NASDAQ rules. The Company took this additional step as a measure of caution.
