ITEM 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On October 8, 2010, C2 Options Exchange, Incorporated ( "C2" ), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CBOE Holdings, Inc. (the "Company" ), filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois (Case No. 10-cv-06483) against International Securities Exchange, Inc. ( "ISE" ) seeking a declaratory judgment that United States Patent No. 6,618,707, which is directed towards an automated exchange for trading derivative securities and is assigned to ISE, is not infringed, not valid and not enforceable against C2.

In filing the complaint against ISE, C2 is seeking to be proactive in asserting and protecting its rights relating to its trading platform. The patent at issue in this case is the same one that ISE previously asserted against the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ( "CBOE" ) Hybrid Trading System in a co-pending litigation. CBOE is also a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. C2 strongly believes that, based on various rulings in that co-pending litigation between CBOE and ISE, the C2 exchange does not infringe ISE's patent. The specifics of C2's position may be found in the publicly available copy of the complaint (which is available at the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois).
