Item 8.01. Other Events

Protective Life Corporation's Board of Directors today approved an amendment to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines adding a requirement that non-employee directors shall retain for a period of not less than three years any shares of the Company's Common Stock granted to the director as compensation. The amendment is effective on May 6, 2013. This new holding period requirement is in addition to the Company's long-standing requirement that directors own a certain amount of the Company's Common Stock.

The Company took this action in response to concerns expressed by Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) with respect to the proposal that share owners approve the Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors at the Company's annual meeting of share owners on May 13, 2013. ISS has told the Company that the new holding period requirement addresses its concerns.

The Company's amended Corporate Governance Guidelines are included as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are available in the Investor Relations section of the Company's website at www.Protective.com.
