Item 8.01

Other Events.

On August 11, 2014, Christopher J. Paucek, Chief Executive Officer of 2U, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan with a broker to sell shares of the Company's common stock to be acquired upon exercise of certain of Mr. Paucek's employee stock options. Mr. Paucek's plan, executed during the Company's most recent open trading window, becomes effective on September 25, 2014. Pursuant to the plan, stock options with respect to a maximum of 80,000 shares of the Company's common stock may be exercised and the underlying common stock sold on predetermined dates between September 25, 2014, and August 4, 2015, subject to certain predetermined criteria based on the market price of the Company's common stock, after which time the plan will terminate. Mr. Paucek entered into the plan as part of his personal long-term investment strategy for asset diversification.

On September 8, 2014, Robert L. Cohen, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, entered into a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan with a broker to sell shares of the Company's common stock previously acquired in the Company's Series A and Series B financing rounds. Mr. Cohen's plan, executed during the Company's most recent open trading window, becomes effective on October 12, 2014. Pursuant to the plan, a maximum of 150,000 shares of the Company's common stock may be sold on predetermined dates between October 12, 2014, and October 15, 2015, subject to certain predetermined criteria based on the market price of the Company's common stock, after which time the plan will terminate. Mr. Cohen entered into the plan as part of his personal long-term investment strategy for asset diversification.

On August 24, 2014, Jeff Rinehart, Chief Marketing Officer of the Company, entered into a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan with a broker to sell shares of the Company's common stock to be acquired upon exercise of certain of Mr. Rinehart's employee stock options. Mr. Rinehart's plan, executed during the Company's most recent open trading window, becomes effective on September 26, 2014. Pursuant to the plan, stock options with respect to a maximum of 64,800 shares of the Company's common stock may be exercised and the underlying common stock sold on predetermined dates between September 26, 2014, and August 4, 2015, subject to certain predetermined criteria based on the market price of the Company's common stock, after which time the plan will terminate. Mr. Rinehart entered into the plan as part of his personal long-term investment strategy for asset diversification.

On August 26, 2014, James Kenigsberg, Chief Technology Officer of the Company, entered into a Rule 10b5-1 trading plan with a broker to sell shares of the Company's common stock to be acquired upon exercise of certain of Mr. Kenigsberg's employee stock options. Mr. Kenigsberg's plan, executed during the Company's most recent open trading window, becomes effective on September 25, 2014. Pursuant to the plan, stock options with respect to a maximum of 80,400 shares of the Company's common stock may be exercised and the underlying common stock sold on predetermined dates between September 25, 2014, and August 17, 2015, subject to certain predetermined criteria based on the market price of the Company's common stock, after which time the plan will terminate. Mr. Kenigsberg entered into the plan as part of his personal long-term investment strategy for asset diversification.

Mr. Paucek, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Rinehart and Mr. Kenigsberg will each report any transactions under their respective 10b5-1 plans through Form 144 and Form 4 filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, as appropriate. Each plan is intended to comply with Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the Company's insider trading policy.

The Company does not undertake to report on specific Rule 10b5-1 trading plans of Company officers or to report on modifications or terminations of the aforementioned plans or of the plans of any other individual.
