Commentary

Mr. Andrei Dubovskov, President and CEO, commented, We are pleased to announce the beginning of another successful year for MTS. Group revenue increased nearly 8% to over RUB 108 bln as we continue to execute on our 3D strategy. We continue to see sustained demand for data throughout our key markets, which continues to drive growth in both Russia and Ukraine. Macroeconomic factors and competitive issues continue to impact our performance in many ways, but in sum, our group revenue performance continues to pace the market.

Mr. Dubovskov continued, Despite continued macroeconomic volatility and increased competition, Group Adjusted OIBDA was roughly stable year-over-year at RUB 41.3 bln. While we see weakness in a number of our foreign subsidiaries due to macroeconomic issues or strategic developments, year-over-year growth in Russia OIBDA drove the group performance.

Mr. Vasyl Latsanych, Chief Marketing Officer, commented, For the year, total revenue in Russia increased by 6.5% to RUB 96.3 bln. Our mobile business revenue grew 6.6% as we see a continuation of trends that had previously defined our growth, in particular stronger data usage due to both the growth of customer usage and migration to data plans as smartphone penetration increased to 50.3%. The implementation of our retail strategy in Russia in the face of increased competitor behavior has led to higher handset sales and a 3.7% growth in subscribers as we focus more on sales through our proprietary retail channels.

Mr. Latsanych continued, In our fixed-line business, revenue increased slightly by 0.3% to RUB 15.4 bln. Growth continues to be driven by our increasing market share in B2C markets, in particular in Moscow where our broadband and pay-tv market shares continue to increase.

In Ukraine, revenue for the period improved by nearly 5% to UAH 2.8 bln. The obvious driver is data consumption, which is rising as we have rolled out 3G to 19 regional centers in Ukraine. We see strong take-up of traditional voice tariffs now being offered under the Vodafone brand with revised pricing on international calling.

Among our foreign subsidiaries, we note that revenue in Armenia fell year-over-year by over 16% as macroeconomic factors continue to impact usage of services such as international calling and roaming. In Turkmenistan, revenue also declined roughly 6% due to a slight decline in the active user base and macroeconomic-driven factors. In Uzbekistan, however, we continue to see strong revenue growth as we further develop our business in the market.

Mr. Alexey Kornya, Vice President, Finance and Investments and Chief Financial Officer, further commented, Group net income for the period increased 33.3% year-over-year to RUB 14.5 bln. In addition to OIBDA trends, primary factors here include a non-cash FOREX gain for the period of RUB 2.3 bln, due to ruble appreciation vis-à-vis our non-ruble denominated debt and the fact that we had reserves related to cash balances held in distressed banks in Ukraine in Q1 2015.

Free cash flow for the period amounted to RUB 20.5 bln, an increase of 37% year-over-year for the period. CAPEX spending of RUB 18 bln, or 28% lower than Q1 in 2015, was a key factor, as cash flows from operations was relatively stable. As we guided in March, we aim to reduce overall CAPEX spending this year to RUB 85 bln, which will support free cash flow this year.

Edgar Filing: MOBILE TELESYSTEMS PJSC - Form 6-K

In Q1, the Board of Directors confirmed the Company's new dividend policy and recommended dividend payments for 2015 fiscal year. Under the new dividend policy, management sets a target payout of RUB 25.0 – 26.0 per ordinary MTS share (RUB 50.0 – 52.0 per ADR) per calendar year and guarantees a minimum payout of RUB 20.0 per ordinary MTS share (or RUB 40.0 per ADR). As part of the company's long-stated ambition to equalize semi-annual payments, the Board recommended a dividend payment of 14.01 rubles per share (or 28.02 per ADR) based on full-year 2015 financial results. In accordance with the new dividend policy, the Board will review proposals for an interim dividend in Fall 2016, which combined with our upcoming proposed payment would translate to 25 to 26 rubles per share.

Likewise, the Board has tasked management to consider the advisability of a share repurchase program as an additional way to create further shareholder value. As part of such a program, the Group could allocate up to RUB 30 bln to be spent over the next three years on the repurchase of shares.

By the end of the period, total debt stood at RUB 317 bln, a significant decrease from Q4 2015, but largely due to ruble appreciation in relation to our non-ruble denominated debt as well as some amortized payments in Q1. Our net debt/LTM Adjusted OIBDA declined slightly to 1.1x, a comfortable level for the Company and very low in relation to our peers. We remind investors that 97% of our non-ruble debt position is currently covered by a combination of hedges, short-term deposits and stable long-term investments, all of which are denominated in US dollar or Euro.

Additional Information

MTS continues to see sustained macroeconomic volatility in its markets of operations that may impact the financial and operational performance throughout the Group.

Non-IFRS financial measures. This presentation includes financial information prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, or IFRS, as well as other financial measures referred to as non-IFRS. The non-IFRS financial measures should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the information prepared in accordance with IFRS. Due to the rounding and translation practices, Russian ruble and functional currency margins, as well as other non-IFRS financial measures, may differ.

Operating Income Before Depreciation and Amortization (OIBDA) and OIBDA margin. OIBDA represents operating income before depreciation and amortization. OIBDA margin is defined as OIBDA as a percentage of our net revenues. OIBDA may not be similar to OIBDA measures of other companies, is not a measurement under IFRS and should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the information contained in our consolidated statement of operations. We believe that OIBDA provides useful information to investors because it is an indicator of the strength and performance of our ongoing business operations, including our ability to fund discretionary spending such as capital expenditures, acquisitions of mobile operators and other investments and our ability to incur and service debt. While depreciation and amortization are considered operating costs under IFRS, these expenses primarily represent the non-cash current period allocation of costs associated with long-lived assets acquired or constructed in prior periods. Our OIBDA calculation is commonly used as one of the bases for investors, analysts and credit rating agencies to evaluate and compare the periodic and future operating performance and value of companies within the wireless telecommunications industry. We use a term Adjusted for OIBDA and operating income when there were significant excluded one off effects. OIBDA can be reconciled to our consolidated statements of operations as follows:
