May 19, 2016

Dear Fellow Stockholder,

Boingo's 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, to be held on June 9, 2016, is less than one month away and your vote is important in determining your Company's future. Boingo has been delivering on its strategic plan and we believe stockholders will benefit as our recent strong financial results improve at an accelerated pace. Ides Capital, together with a group of individuals (together, the Ides Group), is intent on derailing this progress by seeking to replace two of your highly qualified directors with their own under-qualified and unproven, hand-picked candidates. It is important that you stop the Ides Group by voting on the enclosed WHITE proxy card today.

The Boingo Board encourages you to vote FOR Boingo's highly qualified director nominees Charles Boesenberg and Terrell Jones today by telephone, Internet, or by signing and dating the enclosed WHITE proxy card and returning it in the postage-paid envelope provided.

BOINGO HAS BEEN COMMUNICATING A CLEAR STRATEGY TO DELIVER VALUE AND IS DELIVERING ON ITS PLAN

Boingo understands the increasing mobile data demands of consumers. In anticipation of the exponential growth of mobile data traffic and broader network densification trends, Boingo developed an ambitious and forward-thinking plan to invest in building out high density networks, including Distributed Antenna Systems (DAS) and Wi-Fi networks, to best position the Company to capitalize on this trend.

On Boingo's fourth quarter 2012 earnings call, management discussed our multi-year outlook and investment plan and began giving quarterly updates on our network buildout progress. At that time, we said 2013 would be an investment year and that we would begin monetizing our buildout in the second half of 2014. We delivered on that promise and have delivered double-digit revenue growth every quarter since the fourth quarter of 2014 and increased EBITDA over the same period.

BOINGO IS LEADING THE FAST GROWING WIRELESS INFRASTRUCTURE SPACE

Boingo has significantly expanded its networks since 2013. As of the end of the first quarter, we have grown our DAS nodes from 5,600 at the beginning of 2013 to more than 12,500. In that same time period we have ramped up military coverage to over 250,000 beds at 51 bases.

We believe Boingo is the leading global provider of commercial mobile Wi-Fi internet solutions and indoor DAS services for carriers and venues. Our wireless networks are located in a variety of large venues including airports, military bases, stadiums and arenas. We have made investments in our networks and are now beginning to realize the benefits of our strong competitive position. Mobile data traffic is expected to increase eightfold by 2020 and we will continue to capture this demand through DAS, military broadband and wholesale and retail Wi-Fi. In 2015 alone, we signed 57 DAS carrier contracts, an increase of 500% over the total dollar value of DAS carrier contracts signed in 2014. As we continue to execute on our strategic plan, we expect to generate significant recurring cash flows from our network assets and return to positive free cash flow in the second half of 2016.

WALL STREET ANALYSTS ARE SUPPORTIVE OF BOINGO'S STRATEGY AND RECOGNIZE OUR SUCCESSFUL EXECUTION

Many industry analysts are supportive of the actions we are taking and recognize the positive progress underway at Boingo. Further, independent analysts agree that Boingo is poised to continue this momentum: as of today, six out of six analysts covering Boingo rate our stock as a Buy(1), and consensus for our twelve month price target is $11.65.

But don't just take our word for it. Hear what the experienced and independent analysts—individuals with an intimate understanding of our business, strategy, industry, performance history and expectations—have to say(2).

*The fundamental story is as strong as ever, if not stronger, given the recent pace of build-outs in military, the ramp of Wi-Fi offload and expectations for a second Wi-Fi offload carrier in the next couple of months. We expect the three-legged stool of DAS, Military and Wi-Fi Offload to help transform the company in 2016.

Jim Moorman, D.A. Davidson, 5/6/2016

[The first quarter 2016] marks the third consecutive quarter on an annual basis that Boingo achieved gross margin expansion of more than 150 basis points year-over-year. The military and Wi-Fi offload business are high-growth segments that will continue to drive gross margin expansion as they scale. As the military and offload businesses ramp up throughout the year, we expect that Boingo will be free cash flow positive by the end of the year. We remain confident that Boingo can continue to win DAS deals, wholesale Wi-Fi will gain momentum.

Jim Breen, William Blair, 5/5/2016

We were pleased with WIFI's solid execution in the quarter reporting top line results of $34.5 million, slightly ahead of our $33.5 million estimate and at the high end of the Company's original guidance of $32-35 million. Additionally, the Company posted pro forma EBITDA of $5.1 million, slightly ahead of its original guide of $3-$5 million reflecting the positive impact of continued revenue growth of its high margin military Wi-Fi business which was the shining star in the quarter (up 32% q/q). After heavy initial investment, WIFI is beginning to reap the rewards of its military Wi-Fi business which represented over a quarter of the Company's total revenue in Q1.*

Tony Stoss, Craig-Hallum, 5/6/2016

Boingo reported a top and bottom line beat as Military and DAS revenue again drove the upside to guidance and CS estimates. Boingo signed 12 new DAS carrier contracts during 1Q16, continuing to add to the 57 contracts for over $150m signed in 2015. Boingo added ~12k new military subscribers in 1Q16 as 6k more beds came online, bringing military Wi-Fi penetration to ~27.6% vs 4Q15's 23.4% and Military ARPU expansion continued to drive revenue upside. We expect the retail subscription business to continue to decay going forward - WIFI's investments in DAS, Military, and Carrier Offloads over the last two years are starting to bear fruit, evidenced by management's expectation to be FCF positive in FY16. We maintain our Outperform rating.

ELECTING THE IDES GROUP NOMINEES RISKS DERAILING

OUR SUCCESSFUL EXECUTION

Each member of our Board, including Charles Boesenberg and Terrell Jones, has been instrumental in formulating the Company's transformation plan, which has been the foundation of our recent success. In addition, all of our Directors have been chosen for their expertise in areas essential to our business,

(1) Includes Buy equivalent, such as Outperform

(2) Permission to use quotes neither sought nor obtained. Emphasis added.

including technology, internet, e-commerce, telecommunications and M&A, as well as their extensive public company leadership and board experience.

Our director nominees have strong track records of creating shareholder value at other companies where they either served on the board or held executive positions, for example

Charles Boesenberg, who has been a Boingo director for only five years, is Boingo's Lead Independent Director and Chair of the Audit Committee:

- Oversaw 88% stock price appreciation as a Director at Keynote Systems, Inc. until the company was acquired in 2013.
- Oversaw 61% stock price appreciation as a Director at Websense, Inc. until the company was acquired in 2013.

Terrell Jones, who has been a director for only three years, is a member of the Audit and Governance committees and was our 2015 Cyber Security Director:

- Oversaw 54% stock price appreciation as the founder and Chairman of Kayak.com from its IPO until the company was acquired in 2013.
- Oversaw 51% stock price appreciation as a Director at La Quinta Corp until the company was acquired in 2006.

We believe Boingo's continued strong financial performance, as evidenced by our increasing margins and our second consecutive year of double-digit revenue growth, is a clear indication that the strategic plan put into place by the Company's Board and management team is working. While there is still work to be done, the Board and management believe that Boingo is just starting to reap the benefits of this strategic plan, and that changing course now would be value destructive to the Company and to Boingo stockholders.

PROTECT THE VALUE OF YOUR INVESTMENT IN BOINGO:

VOTE THE WHITE PROXY CARD TODAY

Three years ago Boingo articulated its strategic plan and your Board and management have been delivering on that plan. Given the opportunity, your Board and management will continue to deliver on that plan. Don't let the Ides Group put your investment at risk just as it is beginning to bear fruit. We urge you to protect your investment by voting FOR Boingo's director nominees Charles Boesenberg and Terrell Jones on the WHITE proxy card today.

We appreciate your continued support of Boingo Wireless.

Sincerely,

David Hagan
Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

Charles Boesenberg
Lead Independent Director
