In addition to the solicitation of proxies by the board of directors through use of the mails, proxies may also be solicited by LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc. and its directors, officers and employees (who will receive no additional compensation therefor) by telephone, telegram, facsimile transmission or other electronic communication, and/or by personal interview. VOTE REQUIRED AND VOTING

In order to obtain shareholder approval for all matters other than the amendment to the articles of incorporation, thirty-three and one-third percent (33.33%) of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote or preferred shares entitled to vote as common stock (collectively the "voting shares") as of the record date, represented in person or by proxy, is required for a quorum at the special meeting. Abstentions may be specified and will be counted as present for the purpose of determining the existence of a quorum. Election of directors shall be accomplished by the two candidates receiving a plurality of the votes cast at a shareholder's meeting at which a quorum is present. Approval of the amendments to the articles of incorporation requires the affirmative at the meeting of a majority of all voting shares issued and outstanding.

There are three classes or series of stock entitled to vote at the meeting; common shares, Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, and Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. At the record date there were 874,468,337 shares of common stock issued and outstanding with each share entitled to one vote at the meeting. At the record date there were 875,000 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock issued and outstanding with each share entitled to 40 votes at the meeting or a total of 35,000,000 votes. At the record date there were 60,000,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock issued and outstanding with each share entitled to 50 votes at the meeting or a total of 3,000,000,000 votes.

A change in control of the corporation has occurred since the beginning of its last fiscal year. On May 27, 2004, Mr. Ray Hawkins, the CEO and a director of the corporation acquired 60,000,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, with each share being able to vote the equivalent of 50 shares of common stock. Accordingly, Mr. Hawkins acquired control of the corporation on the basis of his ability to vote the equivalent of 3,000,000,000 common shares at any meeting of the shareholders. Mr. Hawkins acquired the 60,000,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock for consideration of $0.0017 per share upon the cancellation of $102,000 indebtedness owed Mr. Hawkins by the corporation for loans Mr. Hawkins made to the corporation. At the time Mr. Hawkins acquired the 60,000,000 of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock $102,000 in liability of the Company was eliminated. Part of the consideration for this transaction is to create a level of management continuity. Mr. Hawkins has loaned the corporation extensive amounts of money and provided to the corporation significant personal services for which he has not been compensated but has been willing to accrue the remuneration for such services in order to preserve and promote the business operations of the corporation in support of the shareholders of the corporation. The Board of Directors deemed it to be vital to the corporation and to its continued operations to preserve the services of Mr. Hawkins to the corporation as well as his ability to guide and direct the business affairs of the corporation. The shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are convertible into shares of common stock on a share for share basis and have the same dividend and liquidation rights as common stock on a share for share basis. Mr. Hawkins now holds directly or indirectly a total of 76.7 % of the voting power of the corporation.

You can vote by either attending the meeting in person or by filling out and sending in your proxy. Shares of common stock that are represented by properly executed proxies, unless such proxies shall have previously been properly revoked (as provided herein), will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated in such proxies. If no contrary instructions are indicated, such shares will be voted FOR the named nominees for the board of directors identified herein. Shares represented by proxies that have voted against the propositions presented at the meeting cannot be used to postpone or adjourn the meeting in order to solicit more votes for the proposition.

Brokers who hold shares in a street name have the authority to vote when they have not received instructions from the beneficial owners. Brokers who do not receive instructions, but who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting will be counted as present for quorum purposes.

OTHER MATTERS

It is not expected that any matters other than those referred to in this proxy statement will be brought before the meeting. If other matters are properly presented, however, the persons named as proxy appointees will vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters. The grant of a proxy also will confer discretionary authority on the persons named as proxy appointees to vote in accordance with their best judgment on matters incident to the conduct of the meeting.

REVOCAION OF PROXY

Any shareholder may revoke his, her or its proxy (other than an irrevocable proxy coupled with an interest) at any time before it is voted, by: (1) filing with the corporate secretary of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc. an instrument revoking the proxy; (2) returning a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (3) attending the meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the meeting will not by itself constitute revocation of a proxy.

SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ AND CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE INFORMATION PRESENTED IN THIS PROXY STATEMENT, AND SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO COMPLETE, DATE, SIGN AND PROMPTLY RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY IN THE ACCOMPANYING PREPAID ENVELOPE.

PROPOSAL II

AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED COMMON STOCK FROM 1,000,000,000 SHARES TO 10,000,000,000 SHARES

Reason for the Increase in Authorized Common Stock

The Company is currently authorized to issue one billion shares of Common Stock and 200 million shares of Preferred Stock. The Company's Board of Directors has unanimously adopted a resolution seeking shareholder approval to amend the Articles of Incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of Common Stock to 10 billion shares. The Board of Directors believes that the proposed increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock is in the best interest of the Company in that it will provide the Company with available shares which could be issued for various corporate purposes, including but not limited to acquisitions, stock dividends, options, convertible debt and equity financings, as the Board of Directors determines in its discretion. The Board further believes that the increase in the number of authorized shares of Common Stock will enable the Company to promptly take advantage of market conditions and the availability of favorable opportunities without the delay and expense associated with holding a special meeting of shareholders. The issuance by the Company of any additional shares of Common Stock would dilute both the equity interests and the earnings per share of existing holders of the Common Stock. Such dilution may be substantial, depending upon the amount of shares issued.

Because of the currently low stock price, and given the expected purchase price of acquisitions and cost of capital and the retention of talent, this may translate into significant amount of outstanding shares required to be added to the capital stock. Although we endeavor, to structure the consideration paid for acquisition and other transactions to reduce the amount of potential stock needed, given the currently low stock price, we may not be able to avoid the issuance of significant amounts of stock to close the transaction. In order to make the acquisitions, there will be a need for capital to cover the expenses of identification, targeting and closing the acquisitions including but not limited to fees for lawyers, accountants and investment bankers. In addition to the use of stock for the acquiring of establishments, the Company may need additional stock for joint venture transactions, the acquiring and financing of concert and special event businesses or other synergistic businesses and possibly for general working capital. The Company has previously stated it may issue stock to compensate, staff, consultants and others, and also to settle debts with suppliers and creditors. .

The Board believes that the increase in the authorized will be well merited since it may result in the Company building a core of income-producing hard assets. The Board believes that over the long term the impact of these income-producing assets may result in an increase in the company's valuation and stock price such that any realized dilution may be offset by the increase in valuation such that stockholders may see an increase in the stock price as a result.

All shares of common stock have equal voting rights and, when validly issued and outstanding, are entitled to one vote per share in all matters to be voted upon by shareholders. The shares of common stock have no preemptive, subscription, conversion or redemption rights and may be issued only as fully paid and nonassessable shares. Cumulative voting in the election of directors is not permitted, which means that the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock represented at any meeting where a quorum is present will be able to elect the entire Board of Directors if they so choose. In that event, the holders of the remaining shares of common stock will not be able to elect any directors. In the event of liquidation, each shareholder is entitled to receive a proportionate share of our assets available for distribution to shareholders after the payment of liabilities and after distribution in full of preferential amounts, if any. All shares of our common stock issued and outstanding are fully paid and nonassessable. Holders of stock are entitled to share pro rata in dividends and distributions with respect to the common stock, as may be declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor.

THE BOARD RECOMMENDS A VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION.

Eligibility

Incentive Stock Options and Awards may be granted only to employees (including, officers and directors who are also employees) of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc. or of a parent or subsidiary of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc.

The Option Agreement and a copy of the applicable Stock Plan is delivered to the participant within a reasonable time after the granting of the option.

Payment for the shares of our common stock purchased may be made in accordance with the Stock Plans.

Unless employment is terminated for Cause, as defined by applicable law, the right to exercise in the event of termination of employment, to the extent that the optionee is entitled to exercise on the date the employment terminates as follows:

Limitations on Exercise. The committee may specify a reasonable minimum number of shares of our common stock that may be purchased on any exercise of an option, provided that such minimum number will not prevent the participant from exercising the option for the full number of shares of our common stock for which it is then exercisable. Subject to the provisions of the Stock Plans, the Employee has the right to exercise his Stock Options at the rate of at least 33-1/3 percent per year over three years from the date the Stock Option is granted.

Limitations on ISO. The aggregate fair market value (determined as of the date of grant) of shares of our common stock with respect to which ISOs are exercisable for the first time by a participant during any calendar year (under the Stock Plans or under any other ISO plan of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc., or the parent or any subsidiary of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc.) will not exceed $100,000.00. In the event that the Internal Revenue Code or the regulations promulgated thereunder are amended after the effective date of the Stock Plans to provide for a different limit on the fair market value of shares of our common stock permitted to be subject to ISO, such different limit will be automatically incorporated in the Stock Plans and will apply to any options granted after the effective date of such amendment.

Modification, Extension or Renewal. The committee may modify or amend any Award under the Stock Plans or waive any restrictions or conditions applicable to the Award; provided, however, that the committee may not undertake any such modifications, amendments or waivers if the effect thereof materially increases the benefits to any Employee, or adversely affects the rights of any Employee without his consent.

A Stock Bonus is an award of shares of our common stock (which may consist of Restricted Stock) for extraordinary services rendered to LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc. or any parent or subsidiary of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc. Each Award under the Stock Plans consists of a grant of shares of our common stock subject to a restriction period (after which the restrictions shall lapse), which shall be a period commencing on the date the Award is granted and ending on such date as the committee shall determine (the Restriction Period). The committee may provide for the lapse of restrictions in installments, for acceleration of the lapse of restrictions upon the satisfaction of such performance or other criteria or upon the occurrence of such events as the committee shall determine, and for the early expiration of the Restriction Period upon an Employee's death, Disability or Retirement as defined in the Stock Plans or, following a Change of Control, upon termination of an Employee's employment by us without Cause or by the Employee for Good Reason, as those terms are defined in the Stock Plans.

Terms of Stock Bonuses. Upon receipt of an Award of shares of our common stock under the Stock Plans, even during the Restriction Period, an Employee is the holder of record of the shares and has all the rights of a stockholder with respect to such shares, subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Plans and the Award.

Federal Tax Consequences

Option Grants. Options granted under the Stock Plans may be either ISO which satisfy the requirements of Section 422 of the Code or NQSOs which are not intended to meet such requirements. The federal income tax treatment for the two types of options differs as discussed below.

Incentive Stock Options. The optionee recognizes no taxable income at the time of the option grant, and no taxable income is generally recognized at the time the option is exercised. However, the exercise of an ISO (if the holding period rules set forth below are satisfied) will give rise to income includable by the optionee in his alternative minimum taxable income for purposes of the alternative minimum tax in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the shares acquired on the date of the exercise of the option over the exercise price. The optionee will also recognize taxable income in the year in which the exercised shares are sold or otherwise made the subject of a taxable disposition. For federal tax purposes, dispositions are divided into two categories: (i) qualifying and (ii) disqualifying. A qualifying disposition occurs if the sale or other disposition is made after the optionee has held the shares for more than two years after the option grant date and more than one year after the exercise date. If either of these two holding periods is not satisfied, then a disqualifying disposition will result. In addition, the optionee must be an employee of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc. or a qualified subsidiary at all times between the date of grant and the date three months (one year in the case of disability) before exercise of the option (special rules apply in the case of the death of the optionee).

Upon a qualifying disposition, the optionee will recognize long-term capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount realized upon the sale or other disposition of the purchased shares over (ii) the exercise price paid for the shares. If there is a disqualifying disposition of the shares, then the excess of (i) the lesser of the fair market value of those shares on the exercise date or the sale date and (ii) the exercise price paid for the shares will be taxable as ordinary income to the optionee. Any additional gain or loss recognized upon the disposition will be recognized as a capital gain or loss by the optionee.

If the optionee makes a disqualifying disposition of the purchased shares, then we will be entitled to an income tax deduction, for the taxable year in which such disposition occurs, equal to the excess of (i) the fair market value of such shares on the option exercise date or the sale date, if less, over (ii) the exercise price paid for the shares. In no other instance will we be allowed a deduction with respect to the optionee's disposition of the purchased shares.

Nonqualified Stock Options. No taxable income is recognized by an optionee upon the grant of a NQSO. The optionee will in general recognize ordinary income, in the year in which the option is exercised, equal to the excess of the fair market value of the purchased shares on the exercise date over the exercise price paid for the shares, and the optionee will be required to satisfy the tax withholding requirements applicable to such income.

If the shares acquired upon exercise of the NQSO are unvested and subject to repurchase, at the exercise price paid per share, by us in the event of the optionee's termination of service prior to vesting in those shares, then the optionee will not recognize any taxable income at the time of exercise but will have to report as ordinary income, as and when our repurchase right lapses, an amount equal to the excess of (i) the fair market value of the shares on the date the repurchase right lapses over (ii) the exercise price paid for the shares. The optionee may, however, elect under Section 83(b) of the Code to include as ordinary income in the year of exercise of the option an amount equal to the excess of (i) the fair market value of the purchased shares on the exercise date over (ii) the exercise price paid for such shares. If the Section 83(b) election is made, the optionee will not recognize any additional income as and when the repurchase right lapse and all subsequent appreciation in the shares generally would be eligible for capital gains treatment.

We will be entitled to an income tax deduction equal to the amount of ordinary income recognized by the optionee with respect to the exercised NQSO. The deduction will in general be allowed for our taxable year in which such ordinary income is recognized by the optionee.

Direct Stock Issuance. With respect to the receipt of a stock award not subject to restriction, the participant would have ordinary income, at the time of receipt, in an amount equal to the difference between the fair market value of the stock received at such time and the amount, if any, paid by the holder for the stock award.

With respect to the receipt of a stock award that is subject to restrictions, or certain repurchase rights of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc., unless the recipient of such stock award makes an 83(b) election (as discussed below), there generally will be no tax consequences as a result of such a stock award until the shares are no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture or are transferable (free of such risk). We intend that, generally, when the restrictions are lifted, the holder will recognize ordinary income, and we will be entitled to a deduction, equal to the difference between the fair market value of the shares at such time and the amount, if any, paid by the holder for the stock. Subsequently realized changes in the value of the stock generally will be treated as long-term or short-term capital gain or loss, depending on the length of time the shares are held prior to disposition of such shares. In general terms, if a holder makes an 83(b) election (under Section 83(b) of the Code) upon the award of a stock award subject to restrictions (or certain repurchase rights of LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc.), the holder will recognize ordinary income on the date of the award of the stock award, and we will be entitled to a deduction, equal to (i) the fair market value of such stock as though the stock were (A) not subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture or (B) transferable, minus (ii) the amount, if any, paid for the stock award. If an 83(b) election is made, there will generally be no tax consequences to the holder upon the lifting of restrictions, and all subsequent appreciation in the stock award generally would be eligible for capital gains treatment.

Accounting Treatment

Option grants or stock issuances with exercise or issue prices less than the fair market value of the shares on the grant or issue date will result in a compensation expense to our earnings equal to the difference between the exercise or issue price and the fair market value of the shares on the grant or issue date. Such expense will be amortized against our earnings over the period that the option shares or issued shares are to vest.

Option grants or stock issuances with exercise or issue prices equal to the fair market value of the shares at the time of issuance or grant generally will not result in any charge to our earnings, but LIVESTAR Entertainment Group, Inc., in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, must disclose, in pro-forma statements to our financial statements, the impact those option grants would have upon our reported earnings (losses) were the value of those options treated as compensation expense. Whether or not granted at a discount, the number of outstanding options may be a factor in determining our earnings per share on a fully diluted basis.

Should one or more optionee be granted stock appreciation rights that have no conditions upon exercisability other than a service or employment requirement, then such rights will result in a compensation expense to our earnings. Accordingly, at the end of each fiscal quarter, the amount (if any) by which the fair market value of the shares of common stock subject to such outstanding stock appreciation rights has increased from the prior quarter-end would be accrued as compensation expense, to the extent such fair market value is in excess of the aggregate exercise price in effect for those rights.

Vote Required

The affirmative vote of a majority of the total number of shares of our issued and outstanding capital stock is required to approve our Stock Plans.

OUR BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE RATIFICATION OF OUR STOCK PLANS, AND, UNLESS A STOCKHOLDER GIVES INSTRUCTIONS ON THE PROXY CARD TO THE CONTRARY OR A BROKER NON-VOTE IS INDICATED ON THE PROXY CARD, THE APPOINTEES NAMED THEREON INTEND SO TO VOTE.
