Re: CellStar Corporation

Dear Bill:

The purpose of this letter is to thank you and representatives of your client, CellStar Corporation (the "Company"), for taking the time Thursday to meet with me, our client, Timothy S. Durham, and his associate, Pat O'Donnell, with regard to their views relating to management of the Company. To memorialize the substantive part of our conversation, our client expressed his view that without delay the Board of Directors of the Company should come to consist of between 5 and 7 persons, none of whom should be current or former officers or directors of the Company and all of whom should be persons nominated by or representing major stockholders of the Company. Our client also expressed the view that Mr. Durham and Mr. O'Donnell should each be members of the new Board of Directors.

As we also discussed, our client believes that the major stockholders of the Company are better suited to conduct the Company's business in the foreseeable future in a manner that maximizes the value of the interests of all of the Company's stockholders than the existing Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: DURHAM TIMOTHY S - Form SC 13D/A

The Company is facing a number of very significant decisions in the near future. Since our client believes that a new Board of Directors able to confidently represent the interests of all of the Company's stockholders should manage the affairs of the Company, our client also believes that the current Board of Directors should refrain, to the extent possible, from making material corporate decisions until such time as a new Board of Directors is in place. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the current Board of Directors should refrain from entering into any employment agreements or other arrangements pursuant to which any person, including any officer or director of the Company, might receive an extraordinary payment or severance benefit as a result of the election of a new Board of Directors, or any other event. Our client does not believe that granting golden parachutes or similar employment related extraordinary benefits to any officers, directors or employees of the Company is in the best interest of the stockholders of the Company at the current time.

Our client is eager to see the Company with a new Board of Directors. Toward that end, please contact me as soon as you are in a position to discuss taking definitive steps in that direction. Our client does not believe that delay in this matter is in the stockholders' collective best interest. If the current Board of Directors is unable or unwilling to move promptly toward a representative Board of Directors, including nominees of our client, our client can be expected, in the near term, to pursue other alternatives.

Once again, thank you for your time.

Yours very truly,

/s/ Jeffrey M. Sone
