Subordinated Convertible Note (the "Convertible Note") in exchange for a $5,000,000 subordinated secured demand loan made by Perfumania, Inc. ("Perfumania") to Glen and Stephen Nussdorf (the "Nussdorfs") on March 9, 2004. The Convertible Note bears interest at the prime rate plus 1%, requires quarterly interest payments and is secured by a security interest in the Company's assets pursuant to a Security Agreement by and among the Company and the Nussdorfs. There are no prepayment penalties and the Convertible Note is subordinate to all bank related indebtedness. The Convertible Note is payable in January 2007 and allows the Nussdorfs to convert the Convertible Note into shares of the Company's common stock at a conversion price of $11.25 per share.

Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the holder of the Convertible Note may declare all amounts due under the Convertible Note to be immediately due and payable. Events of default include certain events of bankruptcy, the Company's failure to pay interest or principal within 10 days after such due date or the Company's failure to pay principal and interest under any Senior Bank Loan within 30 days after such payment is due. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the Convertible Note will bear interest at the default rate of the lower of (1) the highest rate allowed by law, or (2) 3% above the Prime Rate.

The Nussdorfs own approximately 38% of the Company's outstanding common stock and Stephen Nussdorf is the Company's Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Nussdorfs are officers and principals of Quality King Distributors, Inc. ("Quality King"). Michael Katz, the Company's CEO and President is an executive officer of Quality King. As described in our SEC filings, the Company purchases and sells a material amount of products to and from Quality King.
