Innofone.com, Incorporated ("The Company") operates as a holding company for companies that are involved in the technology and financial services. Innofone is actively seeking new investment opportunities in creating and or acquiring assets involved in the broad technology and financial market. Innofone currently has 5 employes on staff.

The company has no operating subsidiary, because of lack of capital it divested it self of CompuBec Micro Distribution Inc. ("Compubec") in early November 2002., As previously reported, our ex-sole operating subsidiary, Digital Micro Distribution Canada Inc., has been sold to Qvest Management Group effective June 11th, 2002. Compubec, Innofone.com Inc's sole subsidiary, plans to specialize in the disassembly and international distribution of used/refurbished, end of line new personal computers, servers, peripherals and components. Compubec's core business will act as a clearing house and distribution center for the hundreds of thousands of used off-lease computers, monitors and printers that are surplus to major Corporations on an annual basis. The ability of Compubec to execute its business plan was dependent upon raising capital to fund its startup and operational needs which never materialized.

Please see Item 6, "Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation," for more information.

Item 2. Description of Property.

The Company does not own any real estate. The company is currently negotiating a lease for new office space.

Item 3. Legal Proceedings.

The Company does not currently have any pending legal proceedings. The company issued 80,000 shares to counsel for legal services. The value of which was $5,000.

Item 6. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The following discussion of the financial condition and results of operations of the Company should be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto for the year ended June 30, 2004 included elsewhere in this Report. This Annual Report on Form 10-KSB includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Words such as "may," "plans," "expects," "anticipates," "approximates," "believes," "estimates," "intends," "hopes," "potential," or "continue", and variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. The Company intends such forward-looking statements, all of which are qualified by this statement, to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Litigation

Edgar Filing: INNOFONE COM INC - Form 10KSB/A

Securities Reform Act of 1995 and is including this statement for purposes of complying with these safe harbor provisions. The Company has based these statements on its current expectations and projections about future events. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in these statements. Forward-looking statements include but are not limited to:

- o The Company's ability to raise financing and find suitable acquisitions.

Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which reflect management's views only as of the date hereof. The Company is not obligated to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In light of the risks, uncertainties and assumptions to which the Company and such forward-looking statements are subject, the forward-looking events discussed in this Annual Report on Form 10-KSB might not occur.

The Company currently does not have sufficient funds with which to sustain its operations. It is has convert noteholders to equity common stock shareholders and the company is still waiting to see whether or not it will receive a dividend from the bankruptcy of its previously owned subsidiary, Innofone Canada. Which is highly unlikely.

The company changed its authorized share capital from 100,000,000 shares to 950,000,000 common shares. This was done in accordance to the companies by-laws as disclosed in it's latest 8-K dated August 12, 2002.

The company issued shares to the President and new chairman for salary and expense reimbursement due to the company's poor cash flow position total value of these expenses was $330,000.

The Company is currently reviewing and implementing new disclosure controls and procedures to ensure that they fully comply with the new Securities Exchange Act Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15.

(a) Plan of Operations

The company is in discussions with an several investors and acquisition candidates.

As reflected in Note 1 of the financial statements the Company currently has a going concern issue as there are insufficient assets or prospective cash flows to fund its liabilities. While the Company is hopeful that the capital and loan requirements can be achieved, there can be no assurance that they will be and consequently, it cannot be determined if the company will be able to meet its current or future obligations.

The Company's CEO and President Frederic Richardson is currently reviewing several acquisition candidates and funding sources. The company's Chairman is reviewing technology acquisitions and financing options. The company was successful in canceling most the debt on the books which was one of the major objectives of new management.

(b) Results of Operations

The company had no operations in 2004. Management is currently looking for outside directors and new management to help in securing additional financing for operations and viable acquisitions. To that end management has retained Frederic Richardson as its new President, CEO and CFO in addition Mr Jeffery Watson has become the company's chairman. The company hopes to make additional appointments to the Board of Directors and management over the next three months.

(c) Liquidity and Capital Resources

As previously mentioned, the company has a going concern issue as there are insufficient assets or prospective cash flows to fund its liabilities. The effect of this on the company being able to meet its current or future obligations cannot be determined at this time.

Item 7. Financial Statements.

The financial statements required by this Item 7 are included elsewhere in this Report and incorporated herein by this reference.

Item 8. Changes in and Disagreements with Accountants on Accounting and Financial Disclosure.

There have been no changes in or disagreements with our accountants since the formation of the Company required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 304 of Regulation S-B.

The company was not in a financial position to pay the prior years auditor's fees, and consequently, they refused to provide any further audit services. The company retained the services of Danziger and Hochman chartered accountants to perform the current years audit. There were no changes in or disagreements with either the current or the prior years auditors relating to financial disclosure issues. The change of auditors was reported in the 8-K dated August 12, 2002.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of:
INNOFONE.COM, INCORPORATED

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of INNOFONE.COM, INCORPORATED as at June 30, 2004 and 2003, and the related statements of operations, shareholders' deficit and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2004. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, these financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as at June 30, 2004 and 2003, and the results of its operations and their cash flows each of the three years in the period ended June 30, 2004, in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

As more fully described in note 6, the 2004 financial statements have been restated.

1. NATURE OF OPERATION

The Company was incorporated in Nevada on December 19, 1995 and is in the process of attempting to raise capital for future operations.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These financial statements have been prepared by management in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of

Edgar Filing: INNOFONE COM INC - Form 10KSB/A

America and include the following significant accounting policies:

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates. These estimates are reviewed periodically and, as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in earnings in the period in which they become known.

Financial Instruments

Financial instruments included in the balance sheet are accounts payable. Their carrying values approximate fair market value.
