Palo Alto is an investment advisory firm that currently owns or exercises control or direction over 4,674,744 common shares of the Company, which represents approximately 9.3% of the Company’s outstanding common shares.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company has agreed that no later than January 15, 2010 its board of directors (the “Board”) will appoint a new independent director to the Board and to the nominating committee of the Board (the “Nominating Committee”). Pursuant to the Agreement, the 2010 Annual Meeting will be held no later than June 15, 2010. The Company further agreed that no later than January 15, 2010 the Board and the Company’s management will cause the positions of chief executive officer and chairman of the Board to be held by different individuals and will amend the Company’s bylaws to prohibit any one person from holding both positions concurrently.

The Company’s and Palo Alto’s rights and obligations under the Agreement will terminate upon the earlier to occur of: (i) December 31, 2010; (ii) the date 90 days following the date on which Palo Alto and its affiliates own shares of any class of capital stock of the Company that are then entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (“Voting Securities”) that represent, in the aggregate, 5% or less of the Company’s then-outstanding common shares, provided that such ownership has remained at or below 5% for the entire 90-day period; (iii) the date that the Board publicly announces its intention to solicit a proposal for (a) the merger, consolidation, amalgamation, arrangement, share exchange, business combination, liquidation, dissolution, recapitalization, reorganization or other similar transaction involving the Company, (other than any such transaction where the Company is the surviving person or immediately after such transaction the former shareholders of the Company own a majority of the equity interest of the surviving person), (b) the sale or issuance of more than 50% of the capital stock of the Company or its subsidiaries, (c) the sale of more than 50% of the assets or businesses of the Company and its subsidiaries (each a “Sale Proposal”), or (d) publicly approves or recommends to the Company’s shareholders their approval of, or their conveyance of any Voting Securities pursuant to, any Sale Proposal; (iv) the date that the Company has entered into a letter of intent, agreement in principle, definitive agreement, or any similar agreement with any party (other than a customary confidentiality agreement) with respect to a Sale Proposal; or (v) the date that any person or group shall have acquired or announced its intention to acquire, including by commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer, beneficial ownership of more than 50% of the Voting Securities
