The action, styled JS Halberstam Irrevocable Grantor Trust v. Supreme Industries, Inc. et al., alleges that (i) Supreme and individual members of Supreme’s Board of Directors (a) violated Section 14(d)(4) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14D-9 thereunder by failing to disclose material information in Supreme’s Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, filed with the SEC on August 22, 2017 (the “Recommendation Statement”), and (b) violated Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act by issuing a Recommendation Statement which includes untrue statements of material facts or fails to state all material facts necessary in order to make the statements made not misleading, and engaging in deceptive or manipulative acts or practices and (ii) individual members of Supreme’s Board of Directors violated Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act as controlling persons who had the ability to prevent the issuance of the Recommendation Statement or to cause it to not be materially false or misleading.

The plaintiff seeks (i) an order certifying the action as a class action and appointing plaintiff as the class representative and its counsel as class counsel, (ii) a preliminary and permanent injunction against the acquisition of Supreme by Purchaser and Wabash National or, in the alternative, to rescind the sale of Supreme and set aside or award plaintiff and the class rescissory damages, (iii) an award of the costs of the action, including reasonable fees and expenses of plaintiff's attorneys and experts and (iv) such further relief as the court deems just and proper.

On August 29, 2017, a second putative class action lawsuit was filed by a single plaintiff in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware (Case No. 1:17-cv-01227), styled Tola v. Supreme Industries, Inc. et al., against Supreme and individual members of Supreme's Board of Directors. The Tola case also names Wabash National and Purchaser as defendants. The plaintiff seeks (i) an injunction against the acquisition of Supreme by Purchaser and Wabash National or, in the alternative, to rescind the sale of Supreme and set aside or award plaintiff and the class rescissory damages, (ii) an order for the individual members of the Board of Directors to file a Recommendation Statement that does not contain any untrue statements of material fact and that states all material facts required in it or necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading, (iii) an order declaring that the defendants violated Sections 14(e), 14(d) and 20(a) of the Exchange Act, as well as Rule 14a-9, (iv) an award of the costs of the action, including reasonable fees and expenses of plaintiff's attorneys and experts and (v) such further relief as the court deems just and proper."
