EATON VANCE CORP. ANNOUNCES PROPOSED SENIOR NOTE OFFERING

Boston, MA - Eaton Vance Corp. (NYSE: EV) announced today that it intends to offer, subject to market and other considerations, up to $350 million aggregate principal amount of new 10-year maturity senior notes. The Company may use the net proceeds of the proposed debt offering for one or more of the following purposes: current and planned business investment, including the seeding of new funds, continued expansion of distribution channels, and investments in developing products; the repurchase of shares of Eaton Vance's non-voting common stock; and other general corporate purposes, including potential acquisitions and the payment of fees and expenses related to the proposed offering.

As a result of Eaton Vance's continued strong financial performance, we believe that issuing a modest amount of long-term debt will benefit our overall cost of capital and improve the value of our franchise. It will enable Eaton Vance to pursue strategic initiatives while preserving financial flexibility and a solid investment grade credit profile, said Tom Faust, Eaton Vance's President.

Citi and Merrill Lynch & Co. are expected to act as joint book-running managers of the proposed offering. A copy of the prospectus supplement and prospectus relating to the offering may be obtained when available from Citi, Brooklyn Army Terminal, 140 58th Street, 8th Floor, Brooklyn, NY 11220, Attention: Prospectus Department; telephone: 800-831-9146 or Merrill Lynch & Co., 4 World Financial Center, 250 Vesey Street, New York, NY 10080, Attention: Prospectus Department; telephone: 212-449-1000.
