Sierra Wireless Completes Acquisition of Wireless Maingate

VANCOUVER, British Columbia--(BUSINESS WIRE)--January 16, 2015--Sierra Wireless (NASDAQ: SWIR) (TSX: SW) today announced that it has completed the acquisition of Wireless Maingate, AB (Maingate), a Sweden-based provider of machine-to-machine (M2M) connectivity and data management services, for US $90 million, subject to certain post-closing adjustments. Details of the acquisition were first announced on December 22, 2014.

Maingate provides managed M2M connectivity and information management services to more than 500 customers across Europe, reaching a subscriber base of more than 500,000 connected devices. Founded in 1998, Maingate was a pioneer in offering wireless services specifically for the M2M market. Maingate's value-added services include leading-edge over-the-air subscription provisioning and tailored connectivity solutions for a broad range of M2M industries.

Together, Sierra Wireless and Maingate will be able to offer customers in Europe complete device-to-cloud solutions, with fully integrated hardware, embedded software development tools, cloud-based application development, device and subscription management, and wireless services.
