ITEM 4.01 - CHANGE IN REGISTRANT'S CERTIFYING ACCOUNTANT.

On October 12, 2005, the Board of Directors of Defense Technology Systems, Inc. (the "Company") dismissed the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, BP Audit Group, PLLC ("BP Audit"). In addition, the Company engaged Pollard-Kelley Auditing Services, Inc. ("PKASI") on October 14, 2005 as its new independent registered public accounting firm for its fiscal year June 30, 2005.

The reports of BP Audit Group, PLLC on the financial statements of the Company as of and for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2004 and June 30, 2003 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle; except that their reports on the Company's financial statements as of and for each of the years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003 were modified to include reference to a substantial uncertainty about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern

During the fiscal years ended June 30, 2004 and 2003 and through October 12, 2005, there were no disagreements with BP Audit on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of BP Audit, would have caused BP Audit to make reference thereto in its report on the Company's financial statements for such years.

During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period though October 12, 2005 there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-B.

A letter from BP Audit is attached hereto as Exhibit 16.1 indicating its agreement with the above disclosures.

During the two most recent fiscal years and the subsequent interim period to October 14, 2005, the Company did not consult with PKASI regarding (i) either the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and neither was a written report nor oral advice provided to the Company that PKASI concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting; or (ii) any matter which was the subject of either a "disagreement" or "reportable event" as each is defined in Items 304(a)(1)(iv) and (v) of Regulation S-B, respectively.
