Our Business

Stake Technology Ltd. ("Stake" or the "Company") operates in three principal businesses; (1) sourcing, processing, packaging and distribution of natural and organic food products, (2) processing, distribution and recycling of environmentally responsible industrial mineral products and (3) engineering and marketing of a proprietary clean pulping system using patented steam explosion technology.

The Company was incorporated under the laws of Canada on November 13, 1973. The principal executive offices are located at 2838 Highway 7, Norval, Ontario, Canada, L0P 1K0, telephone: (905) 455-1990, fax: (905) 455-2529, e-mail: info@staketech.com and web site: www.staketech.com.

Opta is the world's largest supplier of oat fibre to the food industry based on management's estimate of these markets. Its mission is to resolve its customers' product formulation challenges through innovating, manufacturing and selling proprietary ingredients to improve the nutritional content, healthfulness, texture and taste of foods. Opta is headquartered at 25 Wiggins Avenue, Bedford, Massachusetts, 01730, telephone: (781) 276-5100, fax (781) 276-5101. The Canadian Organic Food Group consists of the 2002 acquisitions of Wild West Organic Harvest Co-operative Association ("Wild West") of Richmond, British Columbia, Simply Organic Co. Ltd. ("Simply Organic") of Toronto, Ontario and Organic Kitchen of Toronto, Ontario, Sunrich Valley, a new division launched in 2002, and the 2003 acquisition of Kettle Valley Dried Fruits Ltd. and its related companies ("Kettle Valley").

Wild West specializes in the distribution of natural and organic foods throughout Western Canada. The Environmental Industrial Group, which represented approximately 20% of fiscal 2002 consolidated revenues, consists of BEI/PECAL, a division of the Company, Temisca Inc., Virginia Materials Inc. ("Virginia Materials") and International Materials & Supplies, Inc. ("International Materials"). The Environmental Industrial Group processes, sells and distributes abrasives and other industrial minerals to the foundry, steel and marine/bridge cleaning industries; sources specialty sands and garnets for the water filtration industry; and recycles inorganic materials under special permits from government authorities at both its Waterdown, Ontario and Norfolk, Virginia sites. The Steam Explosion Technology Group is located on the corporate property of the Company in Norval, Ontario. This division holds a number of patents on its steam explosion process and is marketing a clean pulping system with a special focus on China, the world's largest user of non-woody pulp. The Steam Explosion Technology uses high temperature and pressure rather than chemicals to process non-woody fibres into pulp which can be used to produce various paper products. The Steam Explosion Group is also pursuing opportunities to leverage this technology to North American companies for food grade applications, primarily to convert complex sugars into food grade sweeteners. The Steam Explosion Technology Group is located at 2838 Hwy 7, Norval, Ontario, L0P 1K0, telephone: (905) 455-1990, fax: (905) 455-2529.

Edgar Filing: STAKE TECHNOLOGY LTD - Form S-3/A

Toronto, Canada on June 18, 2003, the shareholders of the Company approved a special resolution to change the name of the Company to SunOpta Inc. The proposed name change is intended to more accurately reflect the Company's stated mission and focus on the development of vertically integrated natural and organic food businesses. The Company intends to file articles of amendment to change its name and implement the proposed name change throughout the organization on or before December 31, 2003.

Acquisitions during 2003 and 2002

Kettle Valley

On May 1, 2003, Stake acquired 100% of the outstanding shares of Integrated Drying Systems Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Kettle Valley Dried Fruits Ltd. and Kettle Valley Dried Fruits, Inc. Purchase consideration totaled $2,668,000 and included a combination of cash, common shares and notes payable. Kettle Valley produces natural and organic fruit bars and fruit leathers with an apple base and markets these products under the Kettle Valley Real Fruit Snack and Frunola brands and realized revenues of approximately $4.0 million in 2002. Kettle Valley operates two production facilities in Summerland, British Columbia, the heart of the British Columbia apple growing district, and is currently constructing a third plant in the State of Washington, the centre of the apple growing district of the Western United States. In addition, Kettle Valley produces a number of private label products for customers in the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom. Kettle Valley products are sold through agents and distributors to the health food and mass markets as well as to various school districts which are committed to improving the dietary content of student lunches.

Opta

On December 4, 2002, Stake completed its cash tender offer for Opta (formerly listed on the Nasdaq - OPTS) for $2.50 per share in accordance with the terms of its tender offer for all of the outstanding shares of Opta. Approximately 92.6% of the outstanding common shares of Opta were tendered. On December 18, 2002, the Company merged Opta with Stake Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. As a result of this merger and pursuant to applicable law, the remaining 7.4% of Opta's outstanding common shares were converted into a right to receive $2.50 per share in cash from Stake. The total purchase price including associated costs was $28.6 million.

Opta is an innovator, manufacturer and marketer of proprietary food ingredients that improve the nutritional content, healthfulness, texture and taste of its customers' food products. Opta's food ingredients are used by more than 350 food companies, including some of the largest consumer packaged food companies and largest quick service restaurant chains in the United States. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2002, Opta's sales were $21.1 million from its four manufacturing plants. As of September 30, 2002, Opta's net assets were approximately $38.1 million, which included approximately $9.5 million in cash and short-term investments.

Simply Organic

On December 1, 2002, the Company acquired privately owned Simply Organic, a Toronto based distributor of natural and organic food products. The purchase price included aggregate cash payments of $187,000 and contingent consideration of $160,000 payable upon achieving certain gross margin targets over the next two to four years. Simply Organic celebrated its second year in business in November, 2002 and had annualized revenues of approximately $3.5 million in 2002.

Simply Organic distributes a broad range of regionally and internationally grown and produced certified organic food products including Stake's line of organic dairy products, marketed under the trademark Mu, throughout much of Ontario to both the mass market and natural food retail outlets. It has recently expanded to a new 14,000 square foot refrigerated warehouse.

Wild West Organic Harvest

On November 1, 2002, the Company acquired privately owned 632100 B.C. Ltd., formally operated as Wild West Organic Harvest Co-Operative Association, a Vancouver, British Columbia based distributor of organic and natural food products. The purchase price included aggregate cash payments of $889,000 and contingent consideration of $144,000 payable upon achieving certain gross margin targets over the next two to four years. Wild West had annualized revenues of approximately $11.0 million in 2002.

Wild West distributes approximately 2,400 products throughout Western Canada to both the mass market and natural food retail outlets. Wild West has a historical annual growth rate of 43% over the last three years and operates from a newly expanded 38,000 square foot refrigerated and frozen warehouse facility.

Organic Kitchen

On July 2, 2002, the Company acquired organic feed and related inventories, the Organic Kitchen trademark and the businesses of Organic Kitchen Inc. and Cloud Mountain Inc. (together forming Organic Kitchen). Consideration consisted of $297,000 paid in cash on closing. In addition, the Company will pay 10% of the pre-tax profits earned to December 31, 2005, up to a maximum of $1,268,000. This contingent consideration will be recorded as an increase to goodwill when the amount of the contingency is determinable. No contingent consideration was paid in 2002.

Financings during 2003 and 2002

Bank Financing

The Company completed two bank refinancings in 2002 with a Canadian chartered bank and its U.S. subsidiary (the "Banks") and has completed a further refinancing in February, 2003.

The first refinancing in March, 2002 was used to consolidate a number of separate banking and private lending relationships. This new facility included a CDN $5 million line of credit, a $5 million line of credit, and a $15 million two year term facility payable quarterly based on a seven year amortization period.

In November, 2002, Stake entered into a tender facility agreement with the Banks for $17 million, which was used solely for the purchase of Opta's outstanding common shares pursuant to the cash tender offer.

In February, 2003, the Company entered into an amended and restated banking agreement with a group of Canadian chartered banks and one of its U.S. subsidiaries (the "Syndicate"). This amended facility increased the term debt to $21.7 million and the U.S. line of credit to $9 million. The incremental proceeds from this facility, in addition to cash on hand were used to repay the tender facility. The term facility is due in March 2005 with a renewal option by the Syndicate and the Company. Principal payments are made quarterly and amortized over seven years. The interest rate under the term facility varies depending on the underlying debt instrument selected and the debt/EBITDA ratio of the Company. The Company intends to renew the facility when it matures in March 2005.

In May, 2003, the Company amended its February, 2003 facility to increase its Canadian line of credit by CDN $2.5 million to CDN $7.5 million. The additional line was used to repay Kettle Valley's bank debt and will be used to complete the expansion of Kettle Valley into a third facility.

Convertible Debenture

In December 2002, Stake issued to Claridge Israel LLC ("Claridge"), the Company's largest shareholder, a $5 million convertible debenture due November 30, 2004 (the "Debenture"). The Debenture bears interest at the rate of 5.5% per annum and is convertible into Common Shares at a price of $3.00 per share on and after November 30, 2003. The conversion price can be reduced to as low as $2.55 if the Company issues Common Shares at a price less than $3.00 per share at any time before it matures. The funds were specifically used for the acquisition of Opta. In conjunction with the Debenture, the Company issued warrants to Claridge to purchase up to 250,000 Common Shares at an exercise price of $3.25 per share, expiring November 30, 2004. The Debenture is secured by second mortgages on certain of the Company's properties in Norval, Hamilton and Flamborough, Ontario.

RISK FACTORS

The Common Shares offered hereby are speculative in nature and involve a high degree of risk. Accordingly, in analyzing an investment in these securities, prospective investors should carefully consider, along with other matters referred to herein, the risk factors set forth below. Prospective investors should carefully consider the following risk factors, together with all of the other information appearing, or incorporated by reference, in this Prospectus, in light of his or her particular financial circumstances and/or investment objectives.

We Need Additional Capital to Maintain Current Growth Rates

Our two facilities in Alexandria, Minnesota operate at, or near, capacity on many of their processing lines. Continued growth in these operations is reliant upon our ability to increase capacity through internal capital projects, new facilities or acquisition. Our ability to raise capital, through equity and/or debt financing, is directly related to our ability to continue to grow and improve returns from operations. Additional capital through equity financing may also result in additional dilution to our current shareholders and a decrease in our share price if we are unable to realize returns equal to or above our current rate of return. We will not be able to maintain our growth rate and our strategy as a consolidator within the natural and organic food industries without further capital.

We Operate in a Highly Competitive Industry

We carry on businesses in highly competitive product and geographic markets in the U.S. and Canada. The Food Group's specialty grains and inputs and food ingredients compete with large companies in the U.S. commercial grain procurement market, major chemical companies with food ingredient divisions, other food ingredient companies, stabilizer companies and consumer food companies that also engage in the development and sale of food ingredients. The Food Group's consumer products operation competes against conventional food distributors, providers of organic meat and organic dairy products and significantly larger food companies that provide specialty or high end products. Many of these competitors have financial resources and staff larger than ours and may be able to benefit from economics of scale, pricing advantages and greater resources to launch new products that compete with our offerings. We have little control over and cannot otherwise affect these competitive factors. If we are unable to effectively respond to these competitive factors or if the competition in any of our product markets results in price reductions or decreased demand for our products, our business, results of operations and financial condition will be materially impacted.

Product Liability Suits, if Brought, Could Have a Material Adverse Effect on Our Business

As a manufacturer and marketer of natural and organic food products and environmental mineral products, we are subject to the risk of claims for product liability. If a product liability claim exceeding our insurance coverage were to be successfully asserted against us, it could harm our business.

Technological Innovation by Competitors Could Make Our Products Less Competitive

Competitors include major chemical companies, other food ingredient companies and consumer food companies that also engage in the development and sale of food ingredients. Many of these companies are engaged in the development of texturizers and other food ingredients and have introduced a number of texturizers into the market. Existing products or products under development by our competitors could prove to be more effective or less costly than any products which have been or are being developed by us.

We Rely on Protection of Our Intellectual Property and Proprietary Rights

We and particularly our Food Group and Steam Explosion Technology Group depend, in part, on our ability to protect intellectual property rights. We rely primarily on patent, copyright, trademark and trade secret laws to protect our proprietary technologies. The failure of any patents or other intellectual property rights to provide protection to our technologies would make it easier for our competitors to offer similar products, which could result in lower sales or gross margins.

The Food Group has developed a number of new ingredients and alternatives to accommodate new product adaptation of these and other ingredients into various food items. The nature of a number of the Food Groups products and processes requires us to create and maintain a number of patents and trade secrets. The Food Group's policy is to protect its technology by, among other things, filing patent applications for technology relating to the development of its business in the U.S. and in selected foreign jurisdictions.

Our trademarks and brand names are registered in the United States, Canada and other jurisdictions and we intend to keep these filings current and seek protection for new trademarks to the extent consistent with business needs. We rely on trade secrets, proprietary know-how and confidentiality agreements to protect certain of the technologies and processes used by the Food Group.

In addition, the Steam Explosion Technology Group holds a number of patents on its steam explosion process and is marketing a clean pulping system with a special focus on China. We recognize that there exists a threat of others attempting to copy our proprietary steam explosion technology. To mitigate this risk, the normal business practice of the Steam Explosion Technology Group includes the signing of confidentiality agreements with all parties to which confidential information is supplied including all customers and licensees. We also hold several patents on our equipment and process technology.

We Are Subject to Substantial Environmental Regulation and Policies

We are, and expect to continue to be, subject to substantial federal, state, provincial and local environmental regulation. Specific to the Environmental Industrial Group are regulations governing the recycling of solid waste material regulated by the Ontario Ministry of Environment and Energy and the Commonwealth of Virginia, Department of Environment Quality. Some of the key regulations include:

- o Air Quality - regulated by Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and certain city/state air pollution control groups.. Emission reports are filed annually;
- o Waste Treatment/Disposal - solid waste is either disposed of by a third-party or in some cases the Company has a permit to haul and land apply the sludge. Agreements exist with local city sewer districts to treat waste at specified levels of biochemical oxygen demand (BOD) and total suspended solids (TSS);
- o Sewer - agreements with the local city sewer districts to treat waste as specified limits of BOD and TSS, which requires weekly/monthly reporting as well as annual inspection; and
- o Hazardous Chemicals - various reports are filed with local city/state emergency response agencies to identify potential hazardous toxic chemicals being used, including reports filed with the Department of Public Safety Emergency Response Commission in Minnesota, and the Kentucky Emergency Response Commission.

Permits are required from certain States and Provinces including the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency, the Commonwealth of Virginia, Department of Environmental Quality and the Ontario Ministry of Environment related to air quality, storm water discharge, solid waste, land spreading and hazardous waste.

In the event that our safety procedures for handling and disposing of potentially hazardous materials in certain of our businesses were to fail, we could be held liable for any damages that result and any such liability could exceed our resources. We may be required to incur significant costs to comply with environmental laws and regulations in the future. In addition, changes to environmental regulations may require us to modify our existing plant and processing facilities and could significantly increase the cost of those operations.

The foregoing environmental regulations, as well as others common to the industries in which we participate, can present delays and costs that can adversely affect business development and growth. If we fail to comply with applicable laws and regulations, we may be subject to civil remedies, including fines, injunctions, recalls or seizures, as well as potential criminal sanctions, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. In addition, any changes to current regulations may impact the development, manufacturing and marketing of our products, and may have a negative impact on our future results.

The Food Group Is Subject to Significant Food Regulations

The Food Group is affected by state and federal fertilizer, pesticide, food processing, grain buying and warehousing, and wholesale food regulations. Government-sponsored price supports and acreage set aside programs are two examples of policies that may affect the Food Group. The Food Group is currently in compliance with all state and federal regulations. Because the Food Group is involved in the manufacture, supply, processing and marketing of organic seed and food products, it is voluntarily subject to certain organic quality assurance standards.

Certain food ingredient products are regulated under the 1958 Food Additive Amendments to the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of 1938 (FDCA), as administered by the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA). Under the FDCA, pre-marketing approval by the FDA is required for the sale of a food ingredient which is a food additive unless the substance is generally regarded as safe (GRAS) under the conditions of its intended use by qualified experts in food safety. We believe that most products for which the Food Group has retained commercial rights are GRAS. However, such status cannot be determined until actual formulations and uses are finalized. As a result, the Food Group may be adversely impacted if the FDA determines that our food ingredient products do not meet the criteria for GRAS.

In December 2000, the USDA adopted regulations with respect to a national organic labeling and certification program which became fully effective in October 2002. These regulations, among other things, set forth the minimum standards producers must meet in order to have their products labelled as "certified organic." We currently manufacture and distribute a number of organic products that are covered by these new regulations. While we believe our products and our supply chain are in compliance with these regulations, changes to food regulations may increase our costs to remain in compliance. In addition, in January 2001, the FDA proposed new policy guidelines regarding the labeling of genetically engineered foods. These guidelines, if adopted, could require us to modify the labeling of our products, which could affect the sales of our products and thus harm our business. We could lose our "organic" certification if a facility becomes contaminated with non-organic materials or if we do not use raw materials that are certified organic. The loss of our "organic" certifications could materially harm our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Acceptance of Steam Explosion Technology

The Steam Explosion Technology Group has yet to gain wide acceptance within the industry and consequently earnings can fluctuate from quarter to quarter. Its patented steam technology, while proven, has yet to develop a firm customer base. The success of this division will depend upon its ability to promote commercial acceptance of our steam explosion technology.

Exercise of Warrants and Stock Options and Issuance of Additional Securities Could Dilute the Value of Our Common Shares

As of March 31, 2003, there are approximately 6,474,654 warrants and stock options outstanding to purchase our Common Shares, with exercise prices ranging from $1.06 to $3.72 per Common Share. The exercise of our warrants and stock options could result in dilution in the value of our Common Shares and the voting power represented thereby. Furthermore, to the extent the holders of our warrants and stock options exercise such securities and then sell the Common Shares they receive upon exercise, our share price may decrease due to the additional amount of Common Shares available in the market. The subsequent sales of these shares could encourage short sales by our shareholders and others which could place further downward pressure on our share price. Moreover, the holders of our warrants and stock options may hedge their positions in our Common Shares by short selling our Common Shares, which could further adversely affect our stock price.

In addition, to attract and retain key personnel or to raise capital, we may issue additional securities, including stock options. No prediction can be made as to the effect, if any, that future issuance of stock options or sales of our Common Shares, or the availability of Common Shares for future sale, will have on the market price of our Common Shares prevailing from time to time. Sales of substantial amounts of our Common Shares in the public market, or the perception that such sales could occur, may adversely affect the market price of our Common Shares and may make it more difficult for us to sell our equity securities in the future at a time and price which we deem appropriate.

Our Operating Results and Share Price are Subject to Significant Volatility

Our net sales and operating results may vary significantly from period to period due to:

- o changes in our operating expenses;
- o management's ability to execute our business and growth strategies;
- o personnel changes;
- o demand for natural products;
- o supply shortages;
- o general economic conditions;
- o changes in customer preferences and demands for natural and organic food products;
- o volatility in commodity prices resulting from poor growing conditions, natural disasters or otherwise; and
- o future acquisitions, particularly in periods immediately following the consummation of such acquisition transactions while the operations of the acquired businesses are being integrated into our operations.

In addition, our share price is more volatile than other larger public companies. Announcements regarding:

- o fluctuations in financial performance from period to period;

- o mergers and acquisitions;
- o strategic partnerships or arrangements;
- o litigation and governmental inquiries;
- o changes in governmental regulation and policy;
- o patents or proprietary rights;
- o changes in consumer preferences and demand;
- o new financings; and

- o general market conditions

may have a significant impact on our share price. Higher volatility increases the chance of larger than normal price swings which reduces predictability in the share value of our stock and could impair investment decisions. In addition, price and volume trading volatility in the U.S. stock markets can have a substantial effect on our share price, frequently for reasons other than our operating performance. These broad market fluctuations could adversely affect the market price of our common shares.

We Are Subject to Dividend Restrictions and Potential Withholding Taxes on Dividends

We have not paid dividends on our Common Shares since our inception and have used available cash resources to fund growth. Moreover, we are precluded under the terms of various agreements with our creditors from paying dividends until the related indebtedness has been satisfied. It is our intention to retain future earnings to fund growth. We will consider paying dividends on our Common Shares in the future when circumstances permit, having regard to, among other things, our earnings, cash flow and financial requirements, as well as relevant legal and business considerations. Accordingly, investors should not expect to receive a return on investment in our Common Shares through the payment of dividends in the foreseeable future and may not realize a return on investment even if they sell their shares. Any future payment of dividends to holders of our Common Shares will depend on decisions that will be made by the Board of Directors and will depend on then existing conditions, including our financial condition, contractual restrictions, capital requirements and business prospects. Also, if we pay dividends, the receipt of cash dividends by United States shareholders from a Canadian corporation may be subject to a 5% to 15% Canadian withholding tax.

Loss of Our Key Customer Could Materially Reduce Sales and Earnings

We have one customer, The Hain Celestial Group, whose purchases from Stake in fiscal 2002 amounted to more than 10% of our revenue. As a result of this concentration of our customer base, the loss or cancellation of business from The Hain Celestial Group could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations.

We May Not Be Able to Effectively Manage Our Growth and Integrate Acquired Companies

Our growth strategy inherently assumes that we will be able to identify suitable acquisition candidates on terms acceptable to us and that these acquisitions, if pursued and completed, will be integrated successfully. Our ability to effectively integrate current and future acquisitions, including our ability to realize potentially available marketing opportunities and cost savings in a timely and efficient manner will have a direct impact on our future results. We may encounter problems in connection with the integration of any new businesses, such as:

- o integration of an acquired company's products into our product mix;
- o amount of cost savings that may be realized as the result of our integration of an acquired brand or business;
- o unanticipated quality and production issues with acquired products;
- o adverse effects on business relationships with our suppliers and customers;

Edgar Filing: STAKE TECHNOLOGY LTD - Form S-3/A

- o diversion of management attention;
- o difficulty with personnel and loss of key employees;
- o compatibility of financial control and information systems; and
- o exchange rate risk with respect to our acquisitions in Canada.

We Are a Canada Corporation and it May Be Difficult to Enforce Civil Liability Provisions of the United States Federal Securities Laws

We are a Canada corporation and a majority of our officers and directors, as well as certain of the experts named herein are residents of Canada and a substantial portion of our assets and the assets of such persons are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon the Company or such persons, or to enforce in United States Courts judgments against them obtained in such courts predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States Federal security laws. (See "ENFORCABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES", page 17).

USE OF PROCEEDS

The 1,143,744 Shares being offered are related to shares to be issued upon the exercise of warrants that were issued pursuant to two private placements in 2001. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the Shares by the selling security holders. We will, however, receive the exercise price of any of the warrants exercised by the selling security holders. If all of the outstanding warrants issued in the two private placements were exercised we would receive gross proceeds of $2,501,430. The proceeds received upon the exercise of any of the warrants would be used for similar purposes as noted below.

Proceeds from the four private placements completed in 2001, of which two are included above, were used to repay a $1,000,000 corporate loan that was drawn in 2000 to provide working capital to Northern Food and Dairy, Inc. In addition the Company also transferred $5,911,000 during 2001 and $700,000 subsequent to December 31, 2001 to the SunRich Food Group, Inc. to fund the Wyoming soy plant expansion, to replace funds used in the start up of Nordic Aseptic, the Company's aseptic packaging operation, reduce lines of credit and improve the Group's working capital. Of the $5,911,000 transferred during 2001, $2,206,000 was specifically used to repay a line of credit due to US Bank as this line of credit was not renewed under the existing terms.

Also during 2001, the Company repaid Canadian lines of credit totaling CDN $1,755,000, paid the purchase price of CDN $2,757,000 to acquire Virginia Materials and Supplies, Inc. (Virginia Materials) and 51% of International Materials and Supplies, Inc. and paid approximately CDN $800,000 to purchase the Environmental Industrial Group's Montreal distribution center. Also in 2001, $640,000 was provided to Virginia Materials to finance working capital, capital additions and payment of deferred and contingent consideration.

In 2002 the remaining proceeds from the private placements were used to continue to repay the deferred and contingent consideration related to the acquisition of Virginia Materials ($1,000,000), to fund the acquisition of Opta ($6,000,000) plus fund the acquisition, repayment of acquired debt and working capital requirements for Wild West, Simply Organic and Organic Kitchen ($2,820,000).

DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

The Company is authorized to issue an unlimited number of common shares without par value and an unlimited number of special shares without par value. As of June 30, 2003 Stake had 43,206,278 common shares outstanding. There are no special shares issued and outstanding. The following is a brief summary of certain of the rights of the holders of the Company's capital stock.

Common Shares

The holder of each common share is entitled to one vote, either in person or by proxy, on all matters submitted to shareholders. Holders of common shares are entitled to share pro rata in such dividends as may be declared by the Board of Directors. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, holders of common shares are entitled to share pro rata in the assets of the Company available for distribution. Since shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights, holders of more than 50% of the outstanding voting shares can elect all of the directors of the Company if they choose to do so. In such event, holders of the remaining shares will be unable to elect any director. The common shares do not have conversion, subscription or preemptive rights, are not subject to redemption and do not have the benefit of any sinking fund provisions. All outstanding common shares are fully paid and non-assessable.

Special Shares

The special shares are issuable in series. Subject to the Company's Articles of Amalgamation, the Board of Directors is authorized to fix, before issuance, the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the shares of each series. The special shares would rank prior to the common shares with respect to dividends and return of capital on dissolution. Except with respect to matters as to which the holders of special shares are entitled to vote as a class, the holders of special shares will not be entitled to vote at meetings of shareholders.

11

The Articles of Amalgamation, as amended, and the By-Laws of the Company and the Canada Business Corporations Act govern the rights of holders of the common shares. The Articles of Amalgamation and By-Laws may be amended so as to modify such rights and major corporate changes (such as amalgamation, reorganization and sale of all or substantially all assets) may be effected, by not less than two-thirds of the votes cast by the shareholders voting in person or by proxy at a general meeting of the Company.

DIVIDEND POLICY

Stake has not paid any cash dividends on its Common Shares since its inception and intends to retain future earnings to fund growth. Moreover, Stake is precluded under the terms of various agreements with its creditors from paying dividends until the related indebtedness has been satisfied. The Company will consider paying dividends on its Common Shares in the future when circumstances permit, having regard to, among other things, its earnings, cash flow and financial requirements, as well as relevant legal and business considerations.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Resales by the Selling Security Holders and Others

The selling security holders may offer the Shares from time to time either in increments or in a single transaction. These sales may be made on or at prices related to the then current market price or at negotiated prices.

The selling security holders may also decide not to sell any or all of the Shares allowed to be sold under this Prospectus. The selling security holders will act independently of Stake in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner and size of each sale.

The term "selling security holders" includes donees, persons who receive Shares from the selling security holders after the date of this Prospectus by gift. The term also includes distributees who receive Shares from selling security holders after the date of this Prospectus as a distribution to members or partners of the selling security holders.

The methods by which the Shares may be sold may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- ☐ Block trades in which the broker or dealer will attempt to sell the Shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- ☐ Purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by the broker or dealer for its account pursuant to this Prospectus;
- ☐ Over-the-counter distributions in accordance with the rules of the Nasdaq Market or the Toronto Stock Exchange;
- ☐ Ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- ☐ Privately negotiated transactions; and
- ☐ A combination of any of these methods of sale.

In effecting sales, brokers or dealers engaged by the selling security holder may receive commissions or discounts from the selling security holder or from the purchasers in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

Costs and Commissions

We will pay all costs, expenses and fees in connection with the registration of the Shares being offered by this Prospectus. The selling security holders will pay all brokerage commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of the Shares.

We have agreed to indemnify the selling security holders, against specified liabilities and expenses arising out of or based upon the information set forth or incorporated by reference in this Prospectus, and the registration statement of which this Prospectus is a part, including liabilities under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act. The selling security holders and any brokers participating in the sales of the Shares may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act.

Any commissions paid or any discounts or concessions allowed to any broker, dealer, underwriter, agent or market maker and, if any broker, dealer, underwriter, agent or market maker purchases any of the Shares as principal, any profits received on the resale of those Shares, may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

Prospectus Delivery Requirements

Because the selling security holders may be deemed an underwriter, the selling security holders must deliver this Prospectus and any supplements to this Prospectus in the manner required by the Securities Act.

Regulation M

The selling security holders and any other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the Shares will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations under such act, including, without limitation, Regulation M. These provisions may restrict certain activities of, and limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the Shares by, the selling security holders or any other such person. Furthermore, under Regulation M, persons engaged in a distribution of securities are prohibited from simultaneously engaging in market making and certain other activities with respect to such securities for a specified period of time prior to the commencement of such distributions, subject to specified exceptions or exemptions. All of these limitations may affect the marketability of the Shares offered by this Prospectus.

Compliance With State Law

In jurisdictions where the state securities laws require it, the selling security holders' Shares offered by this Prospectus may be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the Shares may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and has been complied with.

Sales Under Rule 144

The selling security holders may also resell all or a portion of the Shares offered by this Prospectus in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act. To do so, the selling security holder must meet the criteria and comply with the requirements of Rule 144.

LEGAL MATTERS

Messrs. Basman Smith LLP, Toronto, Ontario, the Company's Canadian counsel have passed upon the validity of the issuance of the Shares offered by this Prospectus.

EXPERTS

The financial statements incorporated in this Prospectus by reference to the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, have been so incorporated in reliance on the report of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, independent accountants, given on the authority of said firm as experts in auditing and accounting.

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Our officers and directors are governed by the provisions of the Canada Business Corporations Act ("CBCA"), the Articles of Amalgamation, the bylaws and insurance policies, which serve to indemnify them against liabilities, which they may incur in such capacities. These various provisions are described below.

Indemnification and Insurance - Under the CBCA, we have the right to indemnify a present or former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts at our request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment reasonably incurred if such individual acted honestly and in good faith with a view to our best interests and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, if she or he had reasonable grounds for believing her or his conduct was lawful. In the latter case, we have the obligation to indemnify such person if he or she complies with the foregoing requirements and was not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that such individual ought to have done. We also have the right, with the approval of a court, to indemnify such persons in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation or other entity to procure a judgment in its favour, to which the individual is made a party because of his or her association with the corporation or such other entity or to advance monies to such person for the costs, charges and expenses of such proceeding if he or she fulfills the foregoing requirements. If such person does not fulfill such requirements, he or she is required to repay the monies so advanced.

However, no such indemnification relieves a director or officer from the duty to act in accordance with the requirement of the CBCA, honestly and in good faith with a view to our best interests, and to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. The bylaws generally provide for mandatory indemnification of our directors and officers to the full extent provided by the CBCA.

We have purchased and intend to maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of Stake, or is or was a director or officer of Stake serving at our request as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, so long as the director or officer acted honestly and in good faith with a view to our best interests.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, those provisions are, in the opinion of the SEC, against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and are therefore unenforceable.

ENFORCEABILITY OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

The Company is a Canada corporation. A majority of its officers and directors, as well as certain of the experts named herein, are residents of Canada and a substantial portion of the assets of the Company and of such persons are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon the Company or such persons or to enforce, in United States courts judgments against them obtained in such courts predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States federal securities laws. The Company has been advised by its Canadian counsel Basman Smith LLP of Toronto, Ontario, that there is doubt as to whether Canadian courts would: (a) enforce judgments of United States courts obtained in actions against the Company or such persons predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the United States federal securities laws; or (b) enforce, in original actions, liabilities against the Company or such persons predicated solely upon the United States federal securities laws.

Edgar Filing: STAKE TECHNOLOGY LTD - Form S-3/A

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 124 of the Canada Business Corporations Act ("CBCA") provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

- (1) Indemnification A corporation may indemnify a director or officer of the corporation, a former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts or acted at the corporation's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including a amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity.
- (2) Advance of costs A corporation may advance moneys to a director, officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in subsection (1). The individual shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfill the conditions of subsection (3).
- (3) Limitation A corporation may not indemnify an individual under subsection (1) unless the individual
- (a) acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as director or officer or in a similar capacity at the corporation's request; and

- (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing that the individual's conduct was lawful.

(4) Indemnification in derivative actions A corporation may with the approval of a court, indemnify an individual referred to in subsection (1), or advance moneys under subsection (2), in respect of an action by or on behalf of the corporation or other entity to procure a judgment in its favour, to which the individual is made a party because of the individual's association with the corporation or other entity as described in subsection (1) against all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with such action, if the individual fulfils the conditions set out in subsection (3).

(5) Right to indemnity Despite subsection (1), an individual referred to in that subsection is entitled to indemnity from the corporation in respect of all costs, charges and expenses reasonably incurred by the individual in connection with the defence of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or the proceeding to which the individual is subject because of the individual's association with the corporation or other entity as described in subsection (1), if the individual seeking indemnity

- (a) was not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the individual ought to have done; and

- (b) fulfils the conditions set out in subsection (3).

II-1

(6) Insurance A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of an individual referred to in subsection (1) against any liability incurred by the individual

- (a) in the individual's capacity as a director or officer of the corporation; or

- (b) in the individual's capacity as a director or officer, or similar capacity, of another entity, if the individual acts or acted in that capacity at the corporation's request.

Pursuant to its By-Laws, the Company shall indemnify any person, and his or her heirs and legal representatives who is or was a director or officer of the Company, or who acts or acted at the request of the Company as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Company is or was a shareholder or creditor, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by such person in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which such person is made a party by reason of being or having been a director or officer of the Company or such body corporate, if such person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company, and, in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, such person had reasonable grounds for believing that his or her conduct was lawful. No director or officer of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company in respect of any liability, costs, charges or expenses that such person sustains or incurs in or about any action, suit or other proceeding as a result of which he or she is adjudged to be in breach of any duty or responsibility imposed upon him or her under the CBCA or under any other statute unless, in an action brought against him or her in their capacity as director or officer, he or she have achieved complete or substantial success as a defendant. Subject to the limitations contained in the CBCA, the Company may purchase, maintain or participate in such insurance for the benefit of such persons as the board of directors may, from time to time, determine.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable. The Company is subject, insofar as its Articles of Amalgamation and internal affairs are concerned, to the laws of Canada, and it has been advised by its Canadian counsel, Messrs. Basman Smith LLP, that, in their opinion, Canadian courts would allow indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act, provided that the indemnification came within the limits of the above quoted sections of the CBCA, since such provisions are not contrary to the public policy of Canada. (See "Enforceability of Civil Liabilities.")

 - (i) To include any Prospectus required by Section 10(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (ii) To reflect in the Prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of Prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective Registration Statement;

II-2

- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
 - (b) The undersigned Registrant hereby further undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of
