Item 3.01 Notice of Failure to Satisfy Continued Listing Standards

On February 2, 2005, clickNsettle.com, Inc. (the "Company") was informed by the Boston Stock Exchange ("BSE") that the Company's listing thereon would be suspended as of the close of trading that day. The suspension is due to the fact that the Company, after the sale of its sole operating business, is no longer in compliance with the BSE's requirements of $1,000,000 in total assets and $500,000 in shareholders' equity. However, the BSE has agreed to provide a 90-day extension through May 2, 2005. If the Company were to regain compliance on or before that day, the Company's stock would not be delisted from the BSE.

The Company continues to search for a new operating business to acquire and should this transaction be completed prior to May 2, 2005, the Company believes it would regain compliance with the BSE's requirements. There can be no assurance that it will find a suitable business.

The Company's common stock continues to be quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board under the stock symbol CLIK.
